

GENERAL LESSARD TO INSPECT DUFFS

Regiment in All Departments Never Looked Better Than at Present.

The Annual Fall inspection of the 25th Dufferin Rifles is to be held next Monday night at the local Armories and every man is to be on parade, which will mean a turnout of the men of all ranks. The inspecting officer is Gen. Lessard of Toronto, who will inspect the Regiment for the first time and the Dufferins are confident of making the best showing yet, before him and his accompanying staff. The Regiment with all its branches, from an efficiency standpoint, was never better. The brass band, under Bandmaster Johnson is in first class condition and also the Bugle band, under Sergt. Meyer. The stretcher bearers section under Sergt. Menning is great over-strength and are doing their drill in approved style, and the signalling corps under Capt. Dunlop is if anything more than ever the pride of the Regiment. Much petty rivalry exists between companies A and E as to who shall turn out most men on inspection.

night. However, Capt. Colquhoun and his men say that after holding first place for five years, they will not yield to Capt. Newman in 1913, so probably the matter is settled. The O. C. requests the Captains to have their pay sheets signed and target practice returns handed in to the Orderly room by Saturday of this week, also all books and stores belonging to the regiment must be in for inspection by one o'clock Monday next. Col. Howard especially requests the men to have their equipments in very best of condition at fall-in, which will sound at eight o'clock sharp. The galleries will be thrown open to ladies and their escorts.

Recruit Class.
The final recruit class for this season will be held on Tuesday and Thursday night of this week. Those who have not yet passed should make a special effort in order to be sworn in for inspection.

HOSPITAL BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Report Submitted by Superintendent—Other Business Transacted.

The regular meeting of the Governors of the Hospital took place yesterday afternoon. Present: C. H. Waterous, president; A. K. Bunnell, Mayor Hartman, F. D. Reville, George Watt, T. H. Preston, Warden Kendrick, J. Sanderson, J. Symons, Dr. Bell.

Superintendent's Report.
Miss Carson for the first month of the hospital year reported 63 patients in the institution on Oct. 1st, number admitted during the month 74, deaths 7, number discharged 4, number now in residence 43.

Two nurses had graduated and two probats were secured.

The services of Miss Nesbitt, a graduate of Macdonald Institute, Guelph had been secured to fill the position of house keeper and dietitian. The nurses were very comfortably housed in their new home and she suggested a phone for that building.

The nurses are very grateful to the Women's Hospital Aid, who furnished them with a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner.

Mayor Hartman had phoned that arrangements had been made to remove Thomas Turner to the Toronto Home for Incurables.

The need for another horse was again urged.

It was decided to look into this and other matters to which Miss Carson made reference.

Request of Doctors.
A letter was read from the Medical association calling attention to the need for a second operating room and naming a committee of the medical men to discuss plans regarding the same.

Dr. Bell stated that with the increase in the number of patients, one operating room was altogether insufficient.

It was decided to look into the subject.

Ladies' Aid.
Mr. A. K. Bunnell, representative of the Women's Hospital Aid Association pointed out that at the time of the handing over of the Nurses' Home, the ladies had expressed a desire to be still identified with that institution.

Mr. Reville said that he understood the matter the ladies simply wished to look after the upkeep of the home with regard to linen, and so on. He considered that their wishes should be fully met for their association had proved a tower of strength to the hospital.

On motion a committee composed of Mr. Waterous, Dr. Bell, Mr. Bunnell and F. D. Reville, was appointed to confer with them.

In General.
With regard to the request for a phone it was decided to look into the entire telephone equipment.

Mr. Bunnell said that with the new buildings and much larger number of patients, the expenses were naturally increasing.

Dr. Bell—Even so, the present rate of cost of patients, $1.30 per day, is the lowest recorded for a very long time although the institution is much better run and prices of supplies are higher.

Board then adjourned.

Gray Hair Becomes Dark, Thick, Glossy

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, and rubbed to the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look years younger. Agent, T. George Bowles.

The Cash Intrigue

"The situation clears up more the further I go into it," said he. "Out of this room instead of a padded morris chair. His head eyes glittered above his hawklike nose; his pointed chin was tilted.

"Is it enough?" he asked. "I was absolute control of every mile of railroad in the United States."

"I think you have enough," replied Kelvin.

Breed looked at him questioning, then he turned sharply to his granddaughter. "Lillian, you had better run along and get ready if you are going out upon the links with us."

"I want to stay!" she declared. "Grandfather, do you know what you are doing to me? I have all the nervous energy you failed to bequeath to my father. You coop me up here. I don't have an interest in anything, something big, or I shall go mad! I tell you I shall die if I have no battle to fight except myself and the social inanities which Mrs. Rensselaer is presumed to teach me before I may show myself in Madison avenue!" she declared. "As an ambition that does not seem to promise much scope, I want larger things. They cannot be too large. I, too, would build an empire or destroy one."

Kelvin looked quietly up at her. She was a picture of striking beauty, but there was about her a certain savagery, such as a Lucrezia Borgia might have had, Kelvin thought, or such as animated the woman vultures of the French revolution.

Henry Breed was possessed of no such dramatic comparisons. "Leave the room!" he said, "I shall go mad! such stocks as Northern Pacific were reduced to the absurd figure of twenty-nine. Rollins was in the market to buy actual stock for spot cash, and in several of these roads he is today the second minority stockholder to yourself. I kept close record of his transactions, and, in fact, I sold him some Northern Pacific and some New Haven myself!"

"You did?" exclaimed Breed, surprised and not altogether pleased.

CHAPTER IX.

KELVIN laid down his pencil and leaned back in his chair. His face was a trifle pale. He was about to reveal himself, perhaps more definitely than Breed would like. "I did not exceed my instructions," he explained, "for in pursuance of my plan you merely told me to secure of the six lending stocks all that I could. I did so, and found that I had much more difficulty in securing some of these stocks and not enough of others so I traded. As it stands now, I have
