Passion Week Services. Rev. M. Kelly delivered a very forceful address last evening at the First Baptist church on "The Culpability of Pilate in Delivering Jesus to be Crucified." Mr. J. A. Harold sang "There is a green hill far away" in splendid voice. The pastor will conclude these special services on Sunday, 11 a.m. "By-Products of the Resurrection," p.m. "The Easter Hope." There will be an extra musical services in the evening.

They Want Hydro. One hundred and twelve residents of South Dumfries have petitioned for hydro electric service. This list included only a few in St. George's majority being farmers representing every section in the township east of the river. The petition has been forwarded to the commission and their engineer will investigate and report. West of the river several farmers have expressed a desire for power and may also present a petition.

Equal Franchise. The regular monthly meeting of the Equal Franchise Club was held on Thursday evening in the board room of the Library. A most interesting paper on Current Events was read by Mrs. S. G. Read, and the subject, "What Have Women Done With the Vote?" was ably dealt with by Miss Grace Struthers.

Visited Hamilton Regiments. Some nineteen members of the Dufferin Rifles and the 25th Brant Dragoons musketry class went to Hamilton yesterday and engaged in a day's shooting with some twenty-four members of the Hamilton regiments. The morning was spent in range firing and the use of the mekometer, and the afternoon in target shooting. With ideal weather, a splendid day's work was put in by the soldiers and some good scores were made.
