The Dominion Steel Products Company, Ltd.

Public notice is hereby given that under the First Part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the Seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 25th day of July, 1916, incorporating the Dominion Steel Products Company, Limited, of the City of Brantford, in the Province of Ontario.

(a) To carry on the business of manufacturing, selling and dealing in all kinds of articles made from metal or wood, including all kinds of machinery, machine supplies, tools, shells, guns, munitions and implements of war, and all articles and commodities in which steel, iron, brass, copper or any kind of metal or wood forms a part.

(b) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with the manufacturing and other operations which the company may carry on or be interested in or required by workmen and others employed by the company.

(c) To buy, sell or deal in all such articles and goods as the company may consider capable of being conveniently dealt in relation to its business and to manufacture and establish, equip, maintain and operate factories for manufacturing articles and goods for any or all of the above mentioned purposes.

(d) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights.

(e) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipalities or otherwise that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think it desirable to obtain and to carry out exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(f) To purchase, take or lease or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any real property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business and in particular any machinery, plant and equipment.

(g) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, bridges or sidings, harbours, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactory, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interests and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof.

(h) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit and in particular for shares, debentures or money or for any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company.

(i) To prosecute, amalgamate with, or enter into any arrangement for sharing of profits, the union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, or otherwise, or to guarantee the carrying on of or about to carry on business similar to that of the company or auxiliary thereto, or to advance money or to guarantee the carrying on of or otherwise assist any person or company having business engagements with this company or indirectly with it, and to invest any of the company's funds in the shares of any other company carrying on a similar business.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the Act to subscribe for, receive, purchase or otherwise acquire the shares or securities of any company carrying on a similar business, or to guarantee the carrying on of or otherwise assist any person or company having business engagements with this company or indirectly with it, and to invest any of the company's funds in the shares of any other company carrying on a similar business.

(k) To purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise acquire and possess and deal in all movable and immovable property which the company may deem necessary or useful for its business or operations, including trade marks, industrial designs, patents, rights, licenses and other privileges of any kind whatsoever.

(l) To issue shares of the company, common or preferred, in payment for property acquired by, or with the approval of the shareholders for services rendered to the company or in connection with the incorporation and organization of the company or for franchise, options, contracts or other rights, benefits or privileges.

(m) To do all or any of the above things authorized by the Letters Patent as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(n) The powers in each of the foregoing clauses to be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause.

The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of "The Dominion Steel Products Company, Limited," with a capital of five hundred thousand dollars, divided into 5,000 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the company to be at the City of Brantford, in the Province of Ontario.

Dated at the office of the Secretary of State of Canada, this 27th day of July, 1916.

THOMAS MULVEY,
Under-Secretary of State.

LOSSES OF ENEMY IN COUNTER ATTACKS WERE VERY HEAVY

Moreover British Not Only Beat Off Assaults but Seized a Trench North-West of Bazentin-le-Petit

London, Aug. 18.—The nightly despatch from British Headquarters on the Somme front describes the sanguinary defeat of powerful German counter-attacks yesterday. In one of these attacks the Germans advanced six deep, but were taken under so heavy a fire that they fled in retreat before even reaching the British lines. Their losses are described as enormous.

General Haig also announced the capture of a 100-yard trench north-west of Bazentin-le-Petit, at the brow of the British advance toward the Martinpuich heights. Counter-attacks delivered from the latter region were unsuccessful. Only south of the Somme, in the sector of Bellefleur-Santre, does the German General Staff admit that they spent the day in consolidating the captured ground, while General Haig reports the further penetration for 300 yards of the German front west of the High Wood.

Artillery's Great Triumph
The British night official report says:

"Last night and early this morning the enemy delivered a series of determined counter-attacks on our trenches northwest of Pozieres. Six lines of his infantry advanced and attacked, but ran back, suffering heavy losses. Our guns and machine guns did great execution. In no case did he succeed in entering our lines."

"Northwest of Bazentin we captured a hundred yards of trenches. A counter-attack made from Martinpuich yesterday was repulsed and some prisoners were taken by us."

A Local Offensive.
"The operations on the Somme forgoing clauses to be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause.

The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of "The Dominion Steel Products Company, Limited," with a capital of five hundred thousand dollars, divided into 5,000 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the company to be at the City of Brantford, in the Province of Ontario.

STILL CROWDING TO SEE SHOW

More People Than Ever Patronized Kennedy Attractions Last Night.

Thursday night witnessed a tremendous crowd on the Con. T. Kennedy show midway; so great was the demand that the capacity was taxed. It was one of those good natured crowds, out for an evening of fun and recreation, and they enjoyed elbowing their way from one attraction to another. There is always plenty of light upon the pleasure zone, in fact it is as bright at night as in the day time, and the business-like manner in which all of the shows are conducted does away with long delays and annoyances. To-day and to-morrow are the last chances to visit the Kennedy attractions, as the leading cause with the engagement in the London theatre to-morrow night and on Sunday move to their next destination.

Bootsie and Hody Hurd, pretty girls, clever singers and good dancers, have won many friends by their excellent work in the Russian theatrical comedy which is the first half of the program in this big attraction, and are ably supported by an excellent company of singers and dancers.

Gene Bowers, is a real comedian, one of those fellows who makes you laugh when you look at him. He has some real jokes, and keeps the spectators in an uproar all the time.

The wonderful Godswill troupe of Royal Russian dancers are also on the bill, and conclude the performance. They are five in number and are without equals in their specialty.

This company has appeared on the leading vaudeville circuits of the United States and are popular wherever they have played. This is one show all should see.

SEPTEMBER IN THE HIGHLANDS.
No territory in Canada is more attractive during the month of September than is the "Highlands of Ontario." Among the several districts embraced in this district the "Lake of Bays" reached through Huntsville (145 miles north of Toronto) offers unlimited scope for rest and recreation.

Good hotel accommodation. Write C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Grand Trunk Railway, for free illustrated publications and full particulars.

Turkish troops that are advancing through Persia have entered Hamadan, sixteen miles from the Persian capital.

Did you ever stop to think about the old cane and half-washed bottles in which milk is often delivered? Not here, though, because every bottle leaving our building is sterilized.
