URGED WOMEN TO STAND FOR RIGHTS

Mrs. F. McD. Dennison Addressed Public Meeting Here Last Night

MAINTAIN DEMOCRACY

An appeal to the women of Canada, to work toward the consummation of long cherished ideals of woman's rights, and to sit in maintaining at home the democracy for which the Allies are bearing the brunt of battle overseas, was delivered by Mrs. Flora McDonald Dennison in the Brant Theatre last night.

Mrs. Dennison, who is one of the Dominion's most active workers in the cause of woman suffrage, and who has travelled over the greater part of the civilized world, was in attendance at the sessions of the National Council of Women here last week, and at the request of the Mayor remained in the city for the purpose of addressing the meeting.

"Our activities in this war are wholly and solely from a moral standpoint," declared Mrs. MacDennison. "The first speaker of the evening, Belgium set an example of sacrifice which would long stand forth before all the world; she had fought for a principle which had enlisted the sympathy of Great Britain and of the United States, whose people were to-day committed to the greatest moral purpose of the age."

The speaker appealed to the women of Canada to align themselves in the support of the moral issues of the war.

"We all know and glory in the part which British and Canadian womanhood has taken in the struggle," observed Ald. H. J. Clement, who occupied the chair. "The presence in Brantford last week of the National Council of Women brought home to all the great work being done by the women." Ald. Clement then called upon the speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Flora Dennison.

The latter in her opening remarks recalled the earlier days of the National Council of Women, not always, she declared, so democratic a body as to-day. There were then 26 Councils in the International Council, and Canada alone was backward in supporting the cause of Women's suffrage.

"The first time that the members of the National Council met as enfranchised women," Mrs. Dennison pointed out, they were meeting in Brantford. She then passed to reconstruction problems after the war, outlining first, social conditions prior to the war, when civilization had been developed along the male viewpoint. Man was combative, while woman was constructive; this latter phase had too long been neglected, and the result was a state of affairs such as had come to pass in Germany. Had the German been educated in matters political, even to the extent that were British and American women, they would never have allowed the Kaiser to launch such a war upon the world. This the speaker knew to be true from personal experience, for she had visited Germany shortly before the war and gained an insight into conditions there.

Canada has been preparing, in 1914, to celebrate the consummation of 100 years of peace with the United States when out of the blue came the world war. Was it any wonder that she wondered? Bernard Shaw declared that the war might continue for 30 years, but with this Mrs. Dennison did not agree—she saw light just ahead.

German Philosophy Pagan.

The world had long recognized the industrial and military efficiency of Germany without seeing the underlying philosophy of Nietzsche and Treitschke, which made the bottom women of the country the Kaiser and the Junkers the upper strata. This philosophy was more insidious because the Kaiser pretended to be Christian, because the Kaiser posed as the leader of a great Protestant church. Contrast such a state of affairs with the British one of civility, developed from the outset of the war.

Mrs. Dennison, with the lofty ideals of the United States, enumerated in Lincoln's pronouncement at Gettysburg, "we fought that government should not perish from the earth, we fought that government should not perish from the earth."

"Yet in such an age of progress, the rights of women to the vote had still been denied, the speaker pointed out, going on to review the various stages of the equal suffrage movement. Even after the declaration of war, it had taken the Ontario Government over two years to grant the women the vote. The speaker expressed pleasure that all the politicians had either changed their views on this subject, or died off. Assuredly, when Premier of Britain had declared that only over his dead body would the women of the country receive the vote. To-day, he was, no longer dead.

Must Work for Reform.

"The time has come," declared Mrs. Dennison, "when we women must look upon ourselves no longer as a part of any province, or even as a part of any nation, but as a component part of a civilized world."

Many reforms had come about of late years, but many more were vitally essential; the speaker reviewed several of the topics discussed by the National Council of Women last week, and advocated drastic amendments to the Criminal Code for the protection of girls and women.

"I have no quarrel with men," declared Mrs. Dennison, "but I quarrel with their system, which has brought about the present state of affairs."

"We see what the world has been, and we tell you from page to page and to-day what is the great signs of the war? It is that immortal

100,000 Called Up By Fall

By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, Ont. June 17.—By fall it is expected, the limit of reinforcements under the military service act will have been reached. This limit is fixed by statute at 100,000 and up to the present, making full allowance for men not properly classed as "reinforcements" some 60,000 men have been secured under the act. The net number of men that should have been reported now totals 95,655. Of these, 15,916 failed to report and total reported of 79,739.

Included in this total are 2,912 imperial recruits, men voluntarily reporting, and men granted leave of absence for farming. Investigation is now under way to determine how far the men reporting for duty can be properly classed as "reinforcements" under the act.

Farmers on leave of absence, it is understood, will not be classed until they actually join the colors.

CALLING OUT FARMERS.

Ottawa, Ont. June 17.—It is stated that an official announcement of the National Council of Women will shortly be issued by the government dealing with the calling out of men engaged in agricultural pursuits. It is understood that while the need for reinforcements must be met every care will be taken to have the enforcement of the military service act press as lightly upon the farmers as possible at least until after the completion of harvesting operations.

As already announced young men of the nineteen year class, who were asked to register on June 10th first before the National Council in autumn. The position of the farmers has recently been engaging the attention of the Cabinet Council.

SPLIT BETWEEN MAJOR LEAGUES SEEMS IMMINENT

Connie Mack Refuses to Abide by a Ruling of the National Commission

By Courier Leased Wire. Cleveland, O., June 17.—The National Baseball agreement between the American and National leagues is in danger of being abrogated as a result of a suit filed in the common pleas court today by Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans, asking for an injunction restraining the Boston Nationals from interfering with his playing pitcher Scott Perry, awarded to the Boston Nationals by a majority vote of the National Baseball Commission. Perry was purchased by Boston from the Atlanta club last year, partial payment being made. After seventeen days of "bench duty," Perry left the Boston club. He was not on the Boston reserve list last winter, and Manager Mack signed him as a free agent and he pitched three full games and part of another this season before the Boston club put in a claim for him, according to Manager Mack.

Recently President Herrmann of the National Commission, with President Tener, National League, concurring, and President Johnson of the American League, dissenting, awarded Perry to the Boston Nationals.

Manager Mack refuses to abide by the decision and says he will fight to hold Perry.

Common Pleas Judge Morgan granted the restraining order, allowing the Philadelphia Americans an uninterrupted use of Perry pending final hearing of the suit.

FINNS DIVIDED

By Courier Leased Wire. Stockholm, June 17.—The official Finnish News Bureau reports that the government proposal of putting into effect a monarchic form of government has been referred to the constitution committee and probably will not be taken up until after a general election is held.

"The old Finns and Swedes and some of the young Finns are monarchists, while the agrarians and a majority of the young Finns are republicans and demand a new election or a referendum."

The Dagens Nyheter says the government is convinced that it would be impossible to get a majority for a monarchy at the present time. "The monarchists want time for campaigning among the people," the newspaper adds, "and it still is a long way to a kingdom in Finland."

REDEMPTORIST CHANGES

By Courier Leased Wire. Quebec, June 17.—An important change in the long speaking branch of the Redemptionist Order in Canada has been announced here. This branch of the order, which up to the present was a vice-province and subject to the head order in the United States, now becomes a separate province, with Rev. Father Melhall, C.S.S.R., as provincial, with headquarters in Toronto. Rev. George Mylett, of London, Ontario, becomes rector of St. Ann's, Montreal. Rev. William McLaughlin is transferred from Quebec to London, Ontario. There are several other changes in Quebec and western Canada.
