MORE TROUBLE FOR DANIEL

EXECUTION OF CZOLGOSZ.

Murderer of President William McKinley May Have Been Electrocuted This Morning, Otherwise He Will Die Tomorrow—Very Few Witnesses.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 23, via Skagway. Leon Czolgosz, the murderer of President William McKinley, will probably be executed next Monday morning, October 28, before six o'clock, and if not on Monday, certainly on Tuesday. Only 28 witnesses will be present at the execution, the number being limited by law. Over 1,300 requests for invitations were received by the warden. (The sentence passed on Czolgosz was that he should be executed during the week beginning Monday, Oct. 28th, hence the uncertainty of the exact date.)

EMMA NOTT SNEAKS IN

Brings Mail and Will Take Mail This Evening.

The Emma Knott was a disappointment from beginning to end of her last trip down from Whitehorse particularly the end. There were thousands of anxious people impatiently awaiting her whistle in order to be down at the wharf and give her the reception and heap upon her the result of the pent up feelings that her trip had awakened in the whole community. And what did the Emma Knott do? She cowardly sneaked in between two days—between Saturday and Sunday—and disappointed everybody. She had 25 sacks of mail on board, and no sooner was it landed at the postoffice than the clerks were awakened from their Sunday morning slumbers and had the whole of it distributed before breakfast time. And they did not Shanghai any of the Emma Knott crew to help them, either.

NOYES IN COURT.

San Francisco, Oct. 23, via Skagway. In regard to the contempt charges against Judge Noyes, some highly sensational evidence was given by W. T. Hume, of Hubbard, Beman & Hume, Nome attorneys. Hume said he had been corruptly approached by McKenzie and forced to give up half the profits of his law firm in order to obtain favorable decisions in Noyes' court. An attempt was made by the defense to show that Hume was over zealous in his prosecution of Noyes. Former Marshal Vawter told of his service of the writ of superceas on Noyes and that Noyes said Judge of San Francisco circuit court was a sandlotter.

TOO MUCH NOISE.

Victoria, Oct. 24, via Skagway. The determination of the government to mount big guns for signal purposes on Esquimaux hill will mean that the village at the naval station must be evacuated by civilians, as the concussion from the guns will render the place uninhabitable. The new fort will be cut from solid granite and will be the most formidable on the Pacific coast.

WAYWARD GIRLS.

Vancouver, Oct. 23, via Skagway. Mrs. Morrison of Grand Forks, is here looking for her two daughters who recently obtained considerable newspaper notoriety owing to their hilarious conduct. The police say the girls were last heard of in Olympia, to which place their mother has followed.

HI-YU GOLD.

Seattle, Oct. 23, via Skagway. The steamer St. Paul from St. Michael brings the largest single gold shipment of the year, the totals exceeding $2,000,000.

T'WAS OVER VERY SOON

Through Telegraphic Connection Today for a Short Time. Direct communication was again had this morning, the overland wire being up for the first time since the 19th. For about an hour the line was kept hot, then another break occurred and it again went out of business. The present difficulty is thought to be only temporary and Local Superintendent Brownlow expects the wire to again be in order by evening. While up this morning the line worked badly, the messages being sent through by relays. Telegrams now are being received only subject to delay.

PROTECTING WINTER TRAIL

Sixty Policed Constantly Patrol the Three Hundred Miles. The trail will not be lost this year and should there be wicker peddlers designing to form a footpad syndicate such as the one O'Brien was general manager of, they will find many new obstacles in the path to success. Chief among these will be the strong patrol of the trail by the mounted police. Sixty men will be sent out for this purpose, under the command of Captain Jarvis stationed at Selkirk and Captain Worsley stationed at Hootchiku. A new police post has been completed at Minto, the stretch from Selkirk to Hootchiku being too long to afford proper protection. A new post has also been recently completed on Livingston creek, Big Salmon district, and will be in charge of a corporal and two men. Send a copy of Goetzman's Souvenir to outside friends. A complete pictorial history of Klondike. For sale at all news stands. Price $2.50.

Subscription Reduced

Beginning October 16th the subscription of the Daily Nugget will be reduced to three dollars per month, delivered by carrier to any address within the limits of Dawson. This reduction is made by reason of the facilities which we now enjoy for turning out a modern up-to-date journal at a minimum cost, the Nugget now possessing a plant which cannot be excelled in any city of the world of a similar size. Our readers will notice that while we have reduced the price of the paper we have increased its size, and are now publishing an eight column metropolitan journal, equal in text, matter and typographical appearance to the up-to-date dailies on the outside. The Nugget will be delivered to your door for $3.00 per month in the future.

GOES TO JAIL.

Albany, Oct. 23, via Skagway. Ralph Ross, the defaulting in-charge of the revenue, has been sentenced to six months in the federal penitentiary and a fine of $3,750, the result of his delinquency. By taking his oath Ross can serve out his term in one month.
