THIS, LARGE AIRY STORE

MAKES PLEASANT SUMMER SHOPPING

The old-fashioned idea of store keeping was to make the store look full and stuffy and congest the shoppers all in one aisle or around a few counters to make things "look busy." The Trading Company idea is to make people comfortable and so we have provided ample space for wide aisles, long counters, plenty of elbow room. That is why this store is so pleasantly cool. No crowding; no worry, ample stocks of everything that should be here at this season---and unusual bargains all over the store.
