

50 of the celebrated VICTORIA SANITARY MATTRESSES in assorted fancy ticking, regular price, $6.50, Saturday 4.59

25 Mattresses in 2 pieces, African fibre and cotton fl ck, in good, fancy

If people to day knew the dirt and filth in the average mattress they could easily trace the numerous contagious diseases to that source. The above mattresses, on sale SATURDAY, JUNE 21st, are recommend d by the Toronto Medical Council as a perfect sanitary mattress.

GG=Goods on Bargain Day are sold for CASH and will not be delivered.

of the coronation ceremonies Rev. John Spurgeon, father of the Spurgeon family of preachers, is dead at Norwood. Ne was born in 1810. special dispensation Major General O'Grady-Haly bade farewell to Ottawa and official life in fasting on Friday and Saturday, the Canada and sailed for England on Sat- 27th and 28th of June, on account of the coronation festivities. urday.

There is now no prospect of the coal strike ending until either the operators fering from blood poisoning in one of or miners admit that they have been his feet and legs. He ran a fish bone beaten. Total subscriptions at Ottawa for ondition. Several doctors are attend the erection of memorials over graves in / bim. of Canadians in South Africa amounts

Mr. W. H. Kerr, for many years in the employ of the C. P. R. at their freight shed, Brockville, died on Thurs day evening.

Mr. Geo. F. Berryman, who con-ducted the Riverside House, Lyndhurst, for several years, has removed to Almonte. The cost of the famous McLaren will

The cost of the famous McLaren will case of Perth is estimated at $700 each The best west end situations are now at day the trial goes on, thus making the a minimum of two guineas instead of total cost $3,500. three as formerly.

Commandant Kemp, when surrender With the end of military difficulties ing said: "I am quite satisfied with the terms and have no ill feeling Lord Milner are rapidly springing up on every side. The organization of against England."

Major General O'Grady-Haly says civil government over vast areas, that what the Canadian Militia re- though it has long been prepared for, quires is continuity of office by the means a great rush of work.

general officer commanding for five or Mr. Wm. Sheppard, Lansdowne, was severely kicked by a horse one day with good work.

Mrs. Peter Kendrick died on Mon last week, breaking the bones of one day at her home in Lyndhurst, after arm. But his recovery is rapid. The an illness of but a few days. She was bones knit at once and the cuts healed, which is attributed to Mr. Sheppard's a sister of Wellington Johnson, merchant. Lyndhurst, and Peter Johnston, temperate habits and healthy blo Lansdowne

Word has been received in Brock-The department of Marine and Fishville that Horace Robinson, of that town, son of Mr. Amos Robinson of the eries have just recently had deposited in Christie's Lake about 60,000 salmon St. Lawrence Hall, has been recomtrout fry and over 6,000 sea salmon mended for the Victoria Cross for confry, and in Otty Lake nearly 30,000 salmon trout fry. spicuous bravery while serving with Brabant's Horse in South Africa.

has decided to have a special audit of of the orange and blue, and their rethe books to cover the last four years. mark is significant, "The senator didn't forget the lunch !"

His Holiness the Pope has granted a to Catholics broughout the British Empire from M1. Thos Steacy, Lansdowne, is suf-for slander if he dared to mention into the upper part of his foot a few days ago and it developed a serious their names in his sermons.

> The Toronto Telegram states that a death from malignant smallpox was reported to the provincial medical health officer from North Crosby, . Leeds county. The man was only sick a week with the disease. Several other cases of a severe type are reported from the the price will be as low as is consistent same hospital in which the man was cared for. The disease, too, has spread into two neighboring townships. In Speculators in the street coronation the latter complaint is made that vac seats at London are lowering them by leaps and bounds, for which they were cination is not being made general.

Mr. Thomas Southworth, director of colonization, states that the influx of settlers into the Temiskaming district has been so great this spring that they have the utmost difficulty to get through to their farms, as the roads have not been constructed fast enough. Many complaints have been sent in on this score and Mr. Southworth and Mr. A. W. Campbell, deputy minister of public works, will go north to make a tour of inspection to hasten the work of building roads into the district.

our new Government. Let us nov submit to His decision. How little people realize the blessings they have with them. In the A preacher in a certain town recent- (Northern Yukon Territory the even' A preacher in a certain town recent ly announced that he was going to preach a sermon on "Hell, and Who Will be There." He immediately re-Will be There." He immediately received letters from a lawyer, three we hurl harsh words and unkind bankers, two real estate men, two bar- missiles at in the centres of civilization, tenders and three doctors, threatening are worth $25 a piece out there. to withdraw their support and sue him Think of the wonders of a country where cats are worth more than a yearling steer is in our end of the Dominion. There is the alace for the modern Dick Whittington to go.

> PENALTY FOR INJURING SHADE TREES. -If one t' ing more than another adds to the beauty and attractiveness of a town it is that of carefully preserved shade trees along the sides of the streets. For the protection of such trees the Ontario statutes impose a heavy penalty against their injury. Chapter 60 provides "that any person who ties an animal to a shade tree in the street, or trims such a tree in any way, is liable to a fine of $25 and costs or thirty days' imprisonment. The persons in front of whose premises the trees are, are not exempt from restriction. Express permission must be had of the council to trim or in any way meddle with the trees planted in the street.'

A farmer living near New Belford planted eighty acres of corn and the crows dug up so much of it, that he tried soaking the kernels in whiskey and scattering them broadcast where the crows bothered the field most, Mr. D. McFadden, Lansdowne, last fall purchased a fine new carriage for thinking he could thus keep them from use in his livery. He stored the cardigging up the planted, and incidently riage in one of the exhibition buildings have a little fun at the expense of the there for the winter. Now, when he crows. An hour after scattering the wants to use it he finds some one has liquor laden kernels he went to the field, deliberately scratched and marred it where he heard an unearthly jabbering all over, so that its appearance has of crows, One big crow was percha been destroyed to an extent that will on a log, where he had gathered all the whiskey soaked kernels, and retailing necessitate its being sent to the factory to have a new finish at a cost of from them out for two good ones, which the $25 to $40. He offers a reward of $20 other crows were digging out of the for the conviction of the guilty parties field .- Exchange.