This is the fourth consecutive season that Mr. Gordon has been awarded a prize, three of which were first and one second.

The editor's request for free publicity are becoming more and more numerous each week. An exchange says this week over twenty such requests were received. If the publisher gives his advertising space away each week it is only a question of time until he will have nothing more to give. Surely if a cause is worth advertising the beneficiaries should be willing to pay the moderate fees asked for the publicity.

Rod and Gun

A glance at the list of contents of the November issue of Rod and Gun in Canada magazine indicates that this number is of general interest to the outdoor lover and sportsman, while a reading of the number justifies the first impression. "Big Alec and the Portage of Death," is a Hudson Bay story by R. J. Fraser, of pathetic interest concerning a veritable 'portage of death' which was negotiated by an unfortunate band of Indians, the victims of a factor's cruelty. "Martin and the Montague," is another of H. C. Haddon's stories and has to do with the capture of a den of black fox puppies. "How Saunders caught the Game hog" is a story of deer hunting by camera vs. deer hunting by gun, written and illustrated by F. V. Williams. There are other stories that make a like appeal to the readers of a sportsman's magazine, as well as the usual special departments devoted to guns and ammunition, fishing, etc. W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont., are the publishers.
