

1882. -- SPRING -- 1882.

Douglas & Co., Amherst, N. S.
HAVE ABOUT COMPLETED THEIR IMPORTATIONS IN ALL DEPARTMENTS.
The Newest Effects in Dry Goods are now Offered.

Dress Goods in all the New Materials.
Zephyr Checks, Nun's Veiling, Satin Merveilleux, French Beiges, French Poplins, French Serges.

TRIMMINGS, MOIRE AND BROCADE SILKS, FRINGES, LACES, ORNAMENTS, GIMPS, &c., &c.
The New Chenille Peterline, Parasols and Umbrellas, Novelties in Millinery.

BRUSSELS, TAPESTRY, WOOL AND HEMP CARPETS.

Examine the Dress Goods at Ten Cents a Yard.

'82. -- SPRING -- '82.

Boots and Shoes,
CHEAP FOR CASH.

TO THE RETAIL TRADE:

Our Spring Stock of Boots and Shoes is now Complete, embracing the Various Lines of

OUR OWN MANUFACTURE.

ALSO:

IMPORTED GOODS,

Direct from Manufacturers in the United States and Canada.

RANGING IN QUALITY AND PRICES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

Buying strictly for Cash, and in large quantities, and from our long experience in the Boot and Shoe business, we guarantee to give our customers satisfaction.

THE AMHERST BOOT, SHOE AND TANNING COMPANY,

may 11-3m AMHERST, N. S.

ONE CAR LOAD

COSSIT BROTHERS'

JUSTLY CELEBRATED

IRON FRAME MOWERS,

One and Two Horse Power.

ALSO 35

Ithica Spring Teeth Rakes.

These Machines are the same we have sold in years past, which have commanded public approval as the VERY BEST for this country. PRICES and TERMS EASY.

Sackville, June 21, 1882. J. L. BLACK.

DUNLAP BROTHERS & COMPANY,

HAVE RECEIVED:

Lawn Mowers in 12, 14 and 16 inch Cutters;

Imperial Wringers in 10, 11 and 12 inch Rollers;

White Wash Brushes from 20 cents;

Ball Potash from 15 cents;

Children's Carriages from $6.25.

A Large Stock of House Builders' Materials.

IN GLASS, PUTTY, SHEET ZINC AND LEAD, LEAD PIPE, DRY AND TARRIED

SHEATING PAIPER, LUMBER, &c., PAINTS, OILS,

TURPENTINE, BRUSHES of all kinds.

The Most Complete Stock of Saddlery, Hardware, and Carriage Stock in the Province.

Our Furniture Department is now Complete.

Amherst, N. S., June 14, 1882. DUNLAP BROTHERS & COMPANY.

MILLINERY, DRY GOODS,

AT--

W. D. Main & Co.'s. W. D. Main & Co.'s.

ENGLISH, FRENCH, AND NEW YORK

Pattern Hats & Bonnets,

Are now Open for Inspection.

BEAUTY AND CELEBRITY, COM-

BINED WITH CHEAPNESS,

IS OUR MOTTO.

Handsome Hats from $1.25 up.

RIBBONS, LACE TIES, SILK TIES, RUFFLINGS.

COME AND SEE.

Douglas Block, Amherst.

HALIFAX BANKING CO.

Head Office, - - - - - Halifax, N. S.

AGENCIES:

NOVA SCOTIA. NEW BRUNSWICK.

ACADIA IRON MINES, Londonbury.

TRURO PARROBORG.

LUNenburg.

SHELBURNE--with Sub-Agencies at BARRETON, LOCKY.

THE BANK grants Drafts and Telegraphic Transfers on its Agencies, and also on

New York, Boston, and Montreal. It also grants Drafts on Winnipeg, Emerson, Brandon, and Portage la Prairie; also on the Agencies of the Molson Bank and Merchants' Bank of Canada, throughout Canada.

The Bank also buys and sells Sterling and other Exchange, and grants cable transfers on Union Bank of Canada.

Interest granted on Special Deposits, and Collections promptly attended to an rendered at lowest rates.

The Sackville Agency is now prepared to conduct a GENERAL BANKING

BUSINESS under the management of J. WOOD, Esq.

Office Hours: 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. } June 15

Sackville, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. } June 15

W. L. PITCAITHLY, Cashier.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Queen Victoria is the sole survivor of the first Privy Council.

The last spike was driven in the railway connecting Winnipeg with Thunder Bay on Saturday.

The largest sailing ship in the world is now loading coals at Cardiff. She is built of steel, 290 feet long.

On Friday, Reuben Brown of Hammond K. C. was killed by lightning. Mr. Brown was a widower and leaves five children.

At the late meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge, Colonel Laurie was chosen Grand Master and Rev. Canon Townshend, Grand Chaplain.

Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, was denounced by the Ladies' Aid League, as he was warned that he will follow Lord F. Cavendish and Mr. Burke within seven days.

Bismark is not likely always to be a dictator to Germany. The Reichstag throws out his bills with impunity and he finds his army supply bills vigorously opposed. Bismark is angry but cannot do very much.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., ex-M. P., has been fined for assaulting a sea captain. The dispute took place in Mr. Snowball's office over some papers of which both parties wanted possession.

The people of Ontario are beginning to appreciate the truthfulness of the late John Sandfield Macdonald's opinion of the present Grit.

Edward Biske is the embodiment of treachery and vindictiveness.

Charles H. Tupper, son of Sir Charles Tupper, has been returned at the head of the poll in Pictou County. This is a fine opening for the young man. Charles H. was not born when his father began to represent Cumberland.

The successor of Lord Frederick Cavendish in the House of Commons is Mr. Holder, who began life as a book-keeper in a worsted mill. He afterward became a local preacher among the Wesleyans, but was not popular, being "strongly Portia-like, often bitter, always stern." He is now a rich and prosperous woollen manufacturer.

Prof. Schureman, of Acadia College, has transferred his services to Dalhousie. Mr. Munro has established another chair in that college. He now pays the salaries of three professors, who receive $6,500 a year. He offers a sum of $10,000 for a scholarship.

The late Mr. J. S. Johnson & Co. have been successful in getting a windfall, and equally for untold in securing so promising a young man as Prof. Schureman.

Princess Zinaida Yusopoff lately married a Russian nobleman, a son of the Imperial House of Russia, for love of whom she refused the hand of a monarch. Her father, the richest man in Russia, gave her nearly two million dollars cash, a palace in St. Petersburg, an estate worth fifty thousand a year, and a large fortune in securities.

An amusing instance of Longfellow's amiability occurred when he was a professor at Bowdoin College. He once called up a student who was unprepared for a recitation. The student endeavored to prompt him in a whisper, however, he was so loud as to be heard through the room. The professor did not interrupt, but when the student stopped of his own accord, recited the poem, and then said: "Your recitation reminds me of a Spanish theatre, where the prompter is more important than the actor."

The London World tells us that the magnificent lace worn at the Duke of Albany's wedding by the Princess Beatrice has a strange history. Her Royal Highness was inquiring curiously, a few years ago turning out an old cabinet in the Queen's apartments, and came on a parcel of extremely old lace. Among them was the suite in which she appeared on Thursday, on being repaired and cleaned, it proved almost priceless; connoisseurs say it is worth £30,000. It was lately presented to the Princess by her Majesty.

The Princess Dolgorouki left Russia, it is said, on account of the coldness of the Empress, who, being a virtuous woman herself, probably does not feel bound to seek companionship in the partner of her father-in-law's sins. The Princess, says rumor, is a wealthy widow, and has had a very singular taste to have the dolls of her little girls put in mourning.

In a private letter written by a retired New York merchant, the late Moses Taylor is spoken of as the boldest, most successful, most sagacious merchant of our country--an old-fashioned, upright merchant of the first class, whose character was in striking contrast with that of the tricksters in such high feather at present. He showed from the first and for more than half a century the steady courage and far-reaching enterprise which enabled him to stock the great safe which at his death is understood to have contained one item of more than 25,000 railroad bonds of $100,000 each ($25,000,000), not folded as you and I fold the few we have, but piled up flat, broad open, sheet upon sheet, in great stacks. It was stated in the daily papers soon after Mr. Taylor's death that his estate was worth about $25,000,000. We understand that on the 1st of January last his own estimate of its value was nearly if not quite double that amount, and he did not "mark it up."

Cure--Frederickson taxes commercial travellers. A number of them purchased a farm in York Co., some time ago, in order to become ratepayers and avoid the tax. Mr. Briggs, of Halifax was the first "land-lunger" brought to book. He was fined $15 or 20 days jail. He appealed and the Chief Justice has sustained him.

GENERAL NEWS.

The last spike was driven in the railway connecting Winnipeg with Thunder Bay on Saturday.

The largest sailing ship in the world is now loading coals at Cardiff. She is built of steel, 290 feet long.

On Friday, Reuben Brown of Hammond K. C. was killed by lightning. Mr. Brown was a widower and leaves five children.

At the late meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge, Colonel Laurie was chosen Grand Master and Rev. Canon Townshend, Grand Chaplain.

Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, was denounced by the Ladies' Aid League, as he was warned that he will follow Lord F. Cavendish and Mr. Burke within seven days.

Bismark is not likely always to be a dictator to Germany. The Reichstag throws out his bills with impunity and he finds his army supply bills vigorously opposed. Bismark is angry but cannot do very much.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., ex-M. P., has been fined for assaulting a sea captain. The dispute took place in Mr. Snowball's office over some papers of which both parties wanted possession.

The people of Ontario are beginning to appreciate the truthfulness of the late John Sandfield Macdonald's opinion of the present Grit.

Edward Biske is the embodiment of treachery and vindictiveness.

Charles H. Tupper, son of Sir Charles Tupper, has been returned at the head of the poll in Pictou County. This is a fine opening for the young man. Charles H. was not born when his father began to represent Cumberland.

The successor of Lord Frederick Cavendish in the House of Commons is Mr. Holder, who began life as a book-keeper in a worsted mill. He afterward became a local preacher among the Wesleyans, but was not popular, being "strongly Portia-like, often bitter, always stern." He is now a rich and prosperous woollen manufacturer.

Prof. Schureman, of Acadia College, has transferred his services to Dalhousie. Mr. Munro has established another chair in that college. He now pays the salaries of three professors, who receive $6,500 a year. He offers a sum of $10,000 for a scholarship.

The late Mr. J. S. Johnson & Co. have been successful in getting a windfall, and equally for untold in securing so promising a young man as Prof. Schureman.

Princess Zinaida Yusopoff lately married a Russian nobleman, a son of the Imperial House of Russia, for love of whom she refused the hand of a monarch. Her father, the richest man in Russia, gave her nearly two million dollars cash, a palace in St. Petersburg, an estate worth fifty thousand a year, and a large fortune in securities.

An amusing instance of Longfellow's amiability occurred when he was a professor at Bowdoin College. He once called up a student who was unprepared for a recitation. The student endeavored to prompt him in a whisper, however, he was so loud as to be heard through the room. The professor did not interrupt, but when the student stopped of his own accord, recited the poem, and then said: "Your recitation reminds me of a Spanish theatre, where the prompter is more important than the actor."

The London World tells us that the magnificent lace worn at the Duke of Albany's wedding by the Princess Beatrice has a strange history. Her Royal Highness was inquiring curiously, a few years ago turning out an old cabinet in the Queen's apartments, and came on a parcel of extremely old lace. Among them was the suite in which she appeared on Thursday, on being repaired and cleaned, it proved almost priceless; connoisseurs say it is worth £30,000. It was lately presented to the Princess by her Majesty.

The Princess Dolgorouki left Russia, it is said, on account of the coldness of the Empress, who, being a virtuous woman herself, probably does not feel bound to seek companionship in the partner of her father-in-law's sins. The Princess, says rumor, is a wealthy widow, and has had a very singular taste to have the dolls of her little girls put in mourning.

In a private letter written by a retired New York merchant, the late Moses Taylor is spoken of as the boldest, most successful, most sagacious merchant of our country--an old-fashioned, upright merchant of the first class, whose character was in striking contrast with that of the tricksters in such high feather at present. He showed from the first and for more than half a century the steady courage and far-reaching enterprise which enabled him to stock the great safe which at his death is understood to have contained one item of more than 25,000 railroad bonds of $100,000 each ($25,000,000), not folded as you and I fold the few we have, but piled up flat, broad open, sheet upon sheet, in great stacks. It was stated in the daily papers soon after Mr. Taylor's death that his estate was worth about $25,000,000. We understand that on the 1st of January last his own estimate of its value was nearly if not quite double that amount, and he did not "mark it up."

Cure--Frederickson taxes commercial travellers. A number of them purchased a farm in York Co., some time ago, in order to become ratepayers and avoid the tax. Mr. Briggs, of Halifax was the first "land-lunger" brought to book. He was fined $15 or 20 days jail. He appealed and the Chief Justice has sustained him.

The last spike was driven in the railway connecting Winnipeg with Thunder Bay on Saturday.

The largest sailing ship in the world is now loading coals at Cardiff. She is built of steel, 290 feet long.

On Friday, Reuben Brown of Hammond K. C. was killed by lightning. Mr. Brown was a widower and leaves five children.

At the late meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge, Colonel Laurie was chosen Grand Master and Rev. Canon Townshend, Grand Chaplain.

Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, was denounced by the Ladies' Aid League, as he was warned that he will follow Lord F. Cavendish and Mr. Burke within seven days.

Bismark is not likely always to be a dictator to Germany. The Reichstag throws out his bills with impunity and he finds his army supply bills vigorously opposed. Bismark is angry but cannot do very much.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., ex-M. P., has been fined for assaulting a sea captain. The dispute took place in Mr. Snowball's office over some papers of which both parties wanted possession.

The people of Ontario are beginning to appreciate the truthfulness of the late John Sandfield Macdonald's opinion of the present Grit.

Edward Biske is the embodiment of treachery and vindictiveness.

Charles H. Tupper, son of Sir Charles Tupper, has been returned at the head of the poll in Pictou County. This is a fine opening for the young man. Charles H. was not born when his father began to represent Cumberland.

The successor of Lord Frederick Cavendish in the House of Commons is Mr. Holder, who began life as a book-keeper in a worsted mill. He afterward became a local preacher among the Wesleyans, but was not popular, being "strongly Portia-like, often bitter, always stern." He is now a rich and prosperous woollen manufacturer.

Prof. Schureman, of Acadia College, has transferred his services to Dalhousie. Mr. Munro has established another chair in that college. He now pays the salaries of three professors, who receive $6,500 a year. He offers a sum of $10,000 for a scholarship.

The late Mr. J. S. Johnson & Co. have been successful in getting a windfall, and equally for untold in securing so promising a young man as Prof. Schureman.

Princess Zinaida Yusopoff lately married a Russian nobleman, a son of the Imperial House of Russia, for love of whom she refused the hand of a monarch. Her father, the richest man in Russia, gave her nearly two million dollars cash, a palace in St. Petersburg, an estate worth fifty thousand a year, and a large fortune in securities.

An amusing instance of Longfellow's amiability occurred when he was a professor at Bowdoin College. He once called up a student who was unprepared for a recitation. The student endeavored to prompt him in a whisper, however, he was so loud as to be heard through the room. The professor did not interrupt, but when the student stopped of his own accord, recited the poem, and then said: "Your recitation reminds me of a Spanish theatre, where the prompter is more important than the actor."

The London World tells us that the magnificent lace worn at the Duke of Albany's wedding by the Princess Beatrice has a strange history. Her Royal Highness was inquiring curiously, a few years ago turning out an old cabinet in the Queen's apartments, and came on a parcel of extremely old lace. Among them was the suite in which she appeared on Thursday, on being repaired and cleaned, it proved almost priceless; connoisseurs say it is worth £30,000. It was lately presented to the Princess by her Majesty.

The Princess Dolgorouki left Russia, it is said, on account of the coldness of the Empress, who, being a virtuous woman herself, probably does not feel bound to seek companionship in the partner of her father-in-law's sins. The Princess, says rumor, is a wealthy widow, and has had a very singular taste to have the dolls of her little girls put in mourning.

In a private letter written by a retired New York merchant, the late Moses Taylor is spoken of as the boldest, most successful, most sagacious merchant of our country--an old-fashioned, upright merchant of the first class, whose character was in striking contrast with that of the tricksters in such high feather at present. He showed from the first and for more than half a century the steady courage and far-reaching enterprise which enabled him to stock the great safe which at his death is understood to have contained one item of more than 25,000 railroad bonds of $100,000 each ($25,000,000), not folded as you and I fold the few we have, but piled up flat, broad open, sheet upon sheet, in great stacks. It was stated in the daily papers soon after Mr. Taylor's death that his estate was worth about $25,000,000. We understand that on the 1st of January last his own estimate of its value was nearly if not quite double that amount, and he did not "mark it up."

Cure--Frederickson taxes commercial travellers. A number of them purchased a farm in York Co., some time ago, in order to become ratepayers and avoid the tax. Mr. Briggs, of Halifax was the first "land-lunger" brought to book. He was fined $15 or 20 days jail. He appealed and the Chief Justice has sustained him.

The last spike was driven in the railway connecting Winnipeg with Thunder Bay on Saturday.

The largest sailing ship in the world is now loading coals at Cardiff. She is built of steel, 290 feet long.

On Friday, Reuben Brown of Hammond K. C. was killed by lightning. Mr. Brown was a widower and leaves five children.

At the late meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge, Colonel Laurie was chosen Grand Master and Rev. Canon Townshend, Grand Chaplain.

Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, was denounced by the Ladies' Aid League, as he was warned that he will follow Lord F. Cavendish and Mr. Burke within seven days.

Bismark is not likely always to be a dictator to Germany. The Reichstag throws out his bills with impunity and he finds his army supply bills vigorously opposed. Bismark is angry but cannot do very much.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., ex-M. P., has been fined for assaulting a sea captain. The dispute took place in Mr. Snowball's office over some papers of which both parties wanted possession.

The people of Ontario are beginning to appreciate the truthfulness of the late John Sandfield Macdonald's opinion of the present Grit.

Edward Biske is the embodiment of treachery and vindictiveness.

Charles H. Tupper, son of Sir Charles Tupper, has been returned at the head of the poll in Pictou County. This is a fine opening for the young man. Charles H. was not born when his father began to represent Cumberland.

The successor of Lord Frederick Cavendish in the House of Commons is Mr. Holder, who began life as a book-keeper in a worsted mill. He afterward became a local preacher among the Wesleyans, but was not popular, being "strongly Portia-like, often bitter, always stern." He is now a rich and prosperous woollen manufacturer.

Prof. Schureman, of Acadia College, has transferred his services to Dalhousie. Mr. Munro has established another chair in that college. He now pays the salaries of three professors, who receive $6,500 a year. He offers a sum of $10,000 for a scholarship.

The late Mr. J. S. Johnson & Co. have been successful in getting a windfall, and equally for untold in securing so promising a young man as Prof. Schureman.

Princess Zinaida Yusopoff lately married a Russian nobleman, a son of the Imperial House of Russia, for love of whom she refused the hand of a monarch. Her father, the richest man in Russia, gave her nearly two million dollars cash, a palace in St. Petersburg, an estate worth fifty thousand a year, and a large fortune in securities.

An amusing instance of Longfellow's amiability occurred when he was a professor at Bowdoin College. He once called up a student who was unprepared for a recitation. The student endeavored to prompt him in a whisper, however, he was so loud as to be heard through the room. The professor did not interrupt, but when the student stopped of his own accord, recited the poem, and then said: "Your recitation reminds me of a Spanish theatre, where the prompter is more important than the actor."

The London World tells us that the magnificent lace worn at the Duke of Albany's wedding by the Princess Beatrice has a strange history. Her Royal Highness was inquiring curiously, a few years ago turning out an old cabinet in the Queen's apartments, and came on a parcel of extremely old lace. Among them was the suite in which she appeared on Thursday, on being repaired and cleaned, it proved almost priceless; connoisseurs say it is worth £30,000. It was lately presented to the Princess by her Majesty.

The Princess Dolgorouki left Russia, it is said, on account of the coldness of the Empress, who, being a virtuous woman herself, probably does not feel bound to seek companionship in the partner of her father-in-law's sins. The Princess, says rumor, is a wealthy widow, and has had a very singular taste to have the dolls of her little girls put in mourning.

In a private letter written by a retired New York merchant, the late Moses Taylor is spoken of as the boldest, most successful, most sagacious merchant of our country--an old-fashioned, upright merchant of the first class, whose character was in striking contrast with that of the tricksters in such high feather at present. He showed from the first and for more than half a century the steady courage and far-reaching enterprise which enabled him to stock the great safe which at his death is understood to have contained one item of more than 25,000 railroad bonds of $100,000 each ($25,000,000), not folded as you and I fold the few we have, but piled up flat, broad open, sheet upon sheet, in great stacks. It was stated in the daily papers soon after Mr. Taylor's death that his estate was worth about $25,000,000. We understand that on the 1st of January last his own estimate of its value was nearly if not quite double that amount, and he did not "mark it up."

Cure--Frederickson taxes commercial travellers. A number of them purchased a farm in York Co., some time ago, in order to become ratepayers and avoid the tax. Mr. Briggs, of Halifax was the first "land-lunger" brought to book. He was fined $15 or 20 days jail. He appealed and the Chief Justice has sustained him.

The last spike was driven in the railway connecting Winnipeg with Thunder Bay on Saturday.

The largest sailing ship in the world is now loading coals at Cardiff. She is built of steel, 290 feet long.

On Friday, Reuben Brown of Hammond K. C. was killed by lightning. Mr. Brown was a widower and leaves five children.

At the late meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge, Colonel Laurie was chosen Grand Master and Rev. Canon Townshend, Grand Chaplain.

Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, was denounced by the Ladies' Aid League, as he was warned that he will follow Lord F. Cavendish and Mr. Burke within seven days.

Bismark is not likely always to be a dictator to Germany. The Reichstag throws out his bills with impunity and he finds his army supply bills vigorously opposed. Bismark is angry but cannot do very much.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., ex-M. P., has been fined for assaulting a sea captain. The dispute took place in Mr. Snowball's office over some papers of which both parties wanted possession.

The people of Ontario are beginning to appreciate the truthfulness of the late John Sandfield Macdonald's opinion of the present Grit.

Edward Biske is the embodiment of treachery and vindictiveness.

Charles H. Tupper, son of Sir Charles Tupper, has been returned at the head of the poll in Pictou County. This is a fine opening for the young man. Charles H. was not born when his father began to represent Cumberland.

The successor of Lord Frederick Cavendish in the House of Commons is Mr. Holder, who began life as a book-keeper in a worsted mill. He afterward became a local preacher among the Wesleyans, but was not popular, being "strongly Portia-like, often bitter,