Correspondence.

Restigouche, March 20, 1878. To the Editors of the Advocate:-In my last letter of the 2nd inst; I threw out some hints that I thought broad enough to let every voter in this County know who the men are that are spoken of as candidates at the next it. Not money, of course, nor any-thought you preached for the good of thing that could be called bribery. souls!" next election, will have to pay for it, a decent meal." from the present look of things, by a very hard canvass; by a careful study that our number one may not come to ing. the front after all. Our other councillor is the sensible. smart man I told you he was; and he is going to take my advice and let this thing alone for a spell. But the day may come when he will be heard in larger assemblies than the County Council of Restigouche.

Our senior sitting member, now at his post in Fredericton, will certainly try his luck again if he is well enough but it would surprise no one to find him aiming at higher game' than before. He might win his way to Ottawa as easily as to Fredericton; for it is rather odd that none of our last three representatives at Ottawa even held a seat in the Local House, al-Since therefore Mr. Phillips has twice carried the more difficult seat, it is but reasonable to think he could not fail to carry the easier one. But the North Side King Square, ST. JOHN poor fellow's health is feeble, and he may be obliged to stand aside, however much against his will.

His honorable colleague has begun his canvass already—in the House. Fearing that that speech of his recited To the Sheriff of the County of Gloucester, in the House a few years since, has been forgotten, he has been trying certain Public Officer for the sake of winning some support. Let the member try some other scheme, for these tricks don't count. But I grass [L.S.] these tricks don't count. But I guess he will be doing something desperate; for every one knows that the men who returned him last time, thinking he would do them and the County credit, have found out their mistake long ago, and are disgusted in proportion to their disappointment. They find that the GLOUCESTER COUNTY S.S. laughing-stock of the House is not what they took him for, and are now even more down on him than his former opponents.—By speaking in this way, you must see I am doing the upper end of the County. That gentleman will really have to leave the people to the blessings of self-government for a while, and come and try to save his fallen prostrate bleeding County, as Mr. M'Kenzie, (not the Premier) would say. If this favorite candidate will come out, he shall have my vote at any rate, and my neighbor along-side here says he will vote fo think the chances for that gentle man will never be better, and he will do well to take the ball at the ho p. Then there are the law ers, last,

Then there are the law etc., and as they !!tink, not 'east. Will they not 'east. Will But they wont both ru a in, or else the people are mad. May neighbor say he believes it wor at be a good thing to have one law yer, so as to watch the rogues in the House; but two; no, no. Instead of watching the rogues in the House of the Government, they would not held the five in the Government, they would not held the chains, thence the chains to a male tree, thence following the voice of the sources of the atoresaid bank or shore up the one that will do us most credit. That one can manage our public business best. We like to be known as honorable men ourselves; we must maist on having none but honorable men to represent us. We used to some and the represent us. We used to the contract of all the property of the source of the sourc men to represent us. We used to have men of talents for our members; we will try and get the like again if possible; so for our own sakes let us

choose the lawyer who is known as the one best up in his profession, who is most honorable in his professional dealings, who displays the greates tact, and has won most the confidence of those who have entrusted him with One of the lawyer candidates is known to hold a number of valuable public offices, and will find it hard to part with them in order to make himelf eligible. He is Clerk of the Peace Secretary-Treasurer to the Council Registrar of Probates, and I don't know what all. Surely he must see nothing less than a judgeship looming up in the distance to make him think of parting with so many nice things His friend, the third "legal light" all the time telling him that there is no doubt about it; that judges don't live for ever, any more than prophets do; that a vacancy must occur soon, and may occur any day; that just a term of service at Fredericton, and then, presto! off to Ottawa, brushing aside Haddow, whom he loves about as much as he does Moffat, as easily as a cobweb, and bearing down full sail upon the great pairty for a seat on e beneh, or a fat office nearer home. Meantime this disinterested legal friend (mind you the mortar of their friendship is hardly dry yet) will obligingly take charge of the trifles which he is flattering the candidate to hrow away. The other sprig of the law has no ablic office that I know of, nor SMELT BOXES eems, as far as I can hear, to be shing for any but the office of being our representative. He may turn out a fraud-he may turu out a failure, as lenty like him have done before; but unless better offer, I am disposed, and so is my neighbor, to give him a trial. A word to the wise ought to be enough. I shall wait a couple of weeks to see the effect of my words before writing again. A good Minister at the West, who ved on a very small salary, was greatare spoken of as candidates at the next ly troubled at one time to get his quarelection. As to the first mentioned, terly instalment. He had called on his election. As to the first included, terry installient. He had cance on his it is not quite certain whether he has steward a number of times, but had made up his mind to try the race. each time been put off with some exmade up his mind to try the race. The last time I saw him, he did not say a word about it. He has not much indeed to gain by a seat, even if it cost nothing, and it is a dead sure thing that whoever gets a seat this time will have to pay pretty dear for the word of course, nor any thought you preach for money! I thought you preach for the good of

No, no. We never had much of that thing here, and we don't want it now. But the man that wins a seat at the take a thousand such as yours to make or any Constable within the said County, GREETING: been forgotten, he has been trying lately to rouse his slumbering genius again. But he may rest—rest in peace. His fears are groundless. That speech will not die—not it. It will live as long as the Restigouche flows, or the Sugar Loaf stands. No after speech of bis can come up that splendid effort. It came forth perfect, and can't be improved. Then let him be content with immortality!—and stay at home. But he wont, the more fool he. They even say that before he went away this winter he was trying the game of all weak kneed politicians, and offering to sacrifice a certain Public Officer for the sake of even more down on him than his former opponents.—By speaking in this way, you must see I am doing the member a good turn, and giving him sound advice when hinting he should stay at home. I have no hopes however of his listening to my advice. If he don't, and then fail, he will know who he has to blame.

The jolly landlord is likely to be guided by the advice of firs real friends to keep out of a contest that cannot but hurt him in his business and otherwise. Better listen to the sound advice of true friends than follow the counsels of those who would urge him or any body else into a contest, just for the sport of the thing.

Now for another candidate, the gentleman formerly hinted at as from the upper end of the County. That gentleman will really heart the said court, at B athurst, this twenty-fifth Last.

In construction they are similar to the celebrated Walter A. Wood's Iron Frame Merer, and the Richardson Buckeye, both Angen machines. Of the former there are over 200,000 in use, and the extraordinary number of 20,000 were manufactured and sold last season, by the Wood Company of United States. We have over 500 of our manufacture of the power in use for the season of the sea States. We have over 500 of our manufacture now in use, every one of which (no exceptions) stands as a monument of the great and unprecedented success of home manufacture and our enterprise. A list of our Agents in this section of the Province will be found appended, and farmers are requested to ask information of them relative to our Mowers in use in their respective localities, which will establish beyond doubt their unquestionable superiority over any other moves.

ble superiority over any other mower to be had in our market.

The facility of procuring all parts or pieces within a nominal length of time must show beyond the shadow of a doubt the claims such an enterprise has upon the farmers of the Maritime Provinces.

For the coming Harvest of 1877 we will manufacture LARGELY in excess of our numbers of last Season, and treated to be the barriers of last Season. manuacure LARGELI in excess or our numbers of last Season, and trust that our growing enterprise may find such inducements held out to it as will be commensurate with its merits.

Let it be remembered we have no hesitation at all times, in entering in a friendly competition in the field with any other machine in our market. WE GUARANTEE OUR MOWERS TO BE INFERIOR TO NOW. NONE. Farmers would do well to enquire prices and terms before purchasing elsewhere.
