—This morning William Carlisle, a painter living at No. 156 Robert street, fell out of a third-story window while working at St. Joseph's Convent. Strange to say, no bones were broken, but he was so badly shaken up that he had to be removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

—Young Turner, the patient in the Smallpox Hospital, has so far recovered that he is able to be up. It is nine days since the case was reported and eleven or twelve days since he was taken sick. None of the other members of the family show any symptoms of the disease, and it is believed that the "outbreak" will be confined to the one case.

SUNDAY CARS.

The following was passed at the prayer meeting in Knox Church last night: "The congregation of Knox Church, this city, heretofore earnestly raises its protest against the flagrant and, in its judgment, wickedly-unnecessary disturbing of public worship on the Lord's day by the running of the Hamilton street cars. The pretence that the said cars are run for the accommodation of the Lord's people is the vilest and the most hypocritical of this mammoth-pursuing age of the world. They are run for gold alone." They are run for gold alone."—Mango Fraser, unanimously endorsed by the prayer meeting.

A MAN IN HER ROOM.

The residence of Mr. J. McHendrie, No. 11 Stuart street west, was broken into last night, but the would-be thief was frightened off by the screams of Miss McHendrie. The young lady was awakened about 1 a.m. by a noise in her room, and she discovered a man standing at her bedside. She screamed, and the intruder ran across the room and jumped out of the window. He had removed his shoes before entering the house.

POPULAR AMERICAN AUTHORS.

The Douglas series of popular American authors are of such a size as seem to invite one to try and see how they fit the side pocket. The works are printed on good paper in clear, legible type. Messrs. Robert Duncan & Co. carry a full line.

JOURNEMEN TAILORS.

At the monthly meeting of the Journeymen Tailors' Union, held in Wallace Hall, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: President, William McIntyre; vice-president, F. Elder; recording secretary, E. Taylor; financial secretary, H. Robinson; treasurer, F. Jones; guard, J. Stokes.

FATHER FRANCIS AGAIN.

He Says He Has Been Slandered—Police Court Cases.

Interesting cases on the docket attracted a large audience to the Police Court this morning. Among the prisoners in the dock were Thomas Barrett and James Ramage. They were charged by Father Francis Leo Sovieski, the ex-Priest, with criminal libel. In the information laid by Francis, he alleges that the prisoners sent two letters to Messrs. Groydon and Britnell, leading members of the Christian Workers' Mission, charging Father Francis with being a criminal. The ex-Priest was trying to get a position as pastor of the Willing Workers, among whom the letters fell like bombs. They decided that Father Francis would have to clear himself of the charges, and in order to do this he thought it necessary to have Ramage and Barrett arrested. Messrs. J. W. Nesbitt, Q. C., and E. Cahill appeared for the defence and Mr. C. E. Burkholder for the prosecution. The case was adjourned until Thursday next. Leading members of the Victoria Avenue Baptist Church furnished bail for the prisoners in the sum of $400.

Roberts, for forging a cheque for $100 on his mother's bank account, was sentenced to six months in Central Prison.

William Givens, for stealing cigars and tobacco from Burns cigar store on Sunday, was sent to jail for a month.

Judgment was given for the complainants in wages suits of William McKee against George Worthington for $4.87, and David Pyle against James Jackson for $4.95. In the adjoining wages case against William Givens, Frank Taft secured judgment for $35 and costs.

James Phillips, charged with obtaining a value and some clothing from Mary Metzner by false pretences, was allowed to go, the prosecutrix withdrawing the charge.

Michael Doran was assessed $1 for not complying with a Health Department order to have a vault cleaned.

A charge of assault preferred by L. Coliberty against Frank Johnston was dismissed. Mary Lewis, the only drunk, was discharged.

AT CANADA'S ROCKAWAY.

Bathing in the Beach Canal—Stealing the Life Boat.

Notices have been posted, by order of Major Gray, Dominion Engineer, threatening the arrest of any persons bathing in the canal at the beach without bathing suits. "Trunks do not go," remarked the Major, when questioned about the necessity for complete suits. A couple of mornings ago Capt. Campbell detected half a dozen young men making off with the lifeboat, "Adam Brown," and promptly giving chase, caught up with them in the canal. Two of the men, who belonged to a camping party on the beach, jumped into the canal, and the other three got away via the ferry. The affair occurred at 2 o'clock in the morning, and, attired in night clothing, with the wind sighing through his whiskers and brandishing an oar as a weapon, the "Adam Brown" was seen to have been driven into the water. The next morning the "Adam Brown" was found in the water. The next man who fools around the "Adam Brown" will be liable to be taken to court. Campbell. Two years ago a crew of young fellows stole the boat and the Captain had to follow it to St. Catharines.

HOLIDAY HOUSE.

The Building Finished—It is Being Formally Opened To-day.

"The Holiday House" is a very appropriate name for the comfortable and commodious building which, by the efforts of a few ladies and gentlemen, has been erected at the Beach. The house is situated south of "Edison," and there is a right of way through Mr. Freed's property to the bay shore, where a boat house will be built. A few enterprising citizens bought the lot and had the building erected, and the painters are now at work putting on the finishing touches. The new building will be formally opened at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and Bishop Hamilton will take part in the ceremony. The enterprise has been undertaken for the benefit of young women who may be glad of a two weeks' outing at a very small cost, and who would not possibly like to go to an hotel. It is intended that the charges shall be placed at the lowest possible figure consistent with providing comfortable accommodation and good plain meals.

HOLIDAY HOUSE CONCERT.

The garden party and concert given in the beautiful grounds of Bishop Hamilton, No. 181 John street north, last evening, was very largely attended. The weather could not have been more delightful, and the entertainment, which was held in the open air, was all the more enjoyable on that account. The programme was well arranged, and the "Young Ladies' Morning Musical Club," under the direction of Mrs. Frank Wanzel, sang "The Voice of Spring," and "Hark the Village Bells" (part song) with great appearance. Miss Pomeroy sang "The Message of the Rose," and being encouraged gave a verse of "Annie Laurie." Mrs. Frank MacKellan favored the audience with "My Queen," and in response to an encore "The Crole Lane Song." Romberg's Toy Symphony was given under the direction of Mrs. Papper, and was as popular as ever. "The Sleight Party" was heartily applauded. Mr. H. B. McGivern was in good voice and sang "The Boatswain's Song" and as an encore "Tommy Atkins." Later on he sang another solo. Mrs. Frank Wanzel charmingly sang "Overture," and was encored. Miss Wood sang "Marguerite" very sweetly. The accompaniments were played by Miss Ridley and Mr. E. Pearce. The whole affair reflected the greatest credit on Mrs. Papper and Mrs. Wanzel, who had charge of the arrangements. There were a great many of the Beach people there, who went home on the 10.30 boat. The proceeds, which will be applied towards paying for the new Holiday House at the Beach, amounted to a considerable sum.

HIS ANNUAL BENEFIT.

Manager Reeche's Concert at the Grand Opera House.

The annual benefit of Mr. Thomas Reeche, the popular manager of the Grand Opera House, was attended by an unusually appreciative audience last evening. The Opera House was rendered delectably cool by electric fans, and the programme was of exceptional excellence and of a sufficiently varied nature to please the most fastidious of music lovers. The Band of the 13th Battalion opened the programme with "The Captain's March," a Bandmaster Robinson's arrangement of airs from "Hemp-hill and Stead's" "Merry Maskers." Mrs. McArthur sang that old favorite "Auld Robin Gray" very sweetly and Mr. Wm. F. Robinson, the champion clarinet solo, Mohr's "2nd Air Varié," in a manner that elicited hearty applause. Mr. Geo. Fox gave a brilliant rendering of his violin solos, Faure's "Andante Religioso" and Wieniawski's "Widow Capriccio." Mrs. Bruce-Wikstrom's vocal numbers, "To the Queen of My Heart" and a Swedish polka song, were received in a manner which showed that that lady has lost none of her popularity. Skadden, and his song, "By the Fountain," was rendered very effectively. Mr. Josh. M. Chapman's recitation, "The Boys in Overalls," was "encored," and he responded with the dream scene from "The Silver King." Mr. C. L. M. Harris played the accompaniments with his usual good judgment.

Mr. Reeche deserves credit for the programme which afforded the abundant entertainment for the present, and for the fact that his is no "pretence hand in the matter of providing entertainment for amusement-loving people."

Mr. Skadden, in a neat little speech, thanked the audience on behalf of Mr. Reeche for their presence, but the crowd wished Mr. Reeche to appear in person and make his own speech. He finally acceded to the frequent calls of "Mr. Reeche," and made a few remarks expressive of his thanks for past favors, and bespeaking their repetition in the future.

TWO VALUABLE CURIOSITIES.

A Victoria Coronation Paper and a Hundred Year Old Almanac.

Fifty-six years ago to-day the Sun, of London, England, contained an account, occupying almost all of its four pages, of the coronation of Queen Victoria. Mr. A. T. Orton, No. 211 James street north, has one, perhaps the only, copy of the original issue of the paper in the country. The first and fourth pages are printed in gold, the inside in black, and on the first page is a large cut of the Queen's head. The coronation chair and regalia are fully described, and the paper contains a congratulatory ode, a sketch of the Queen, and a facsimile of her signature. It is a "Goldsmith's Almanac" of 1792, that at one time evidently belonged to the "Victoria" and for it contains memoranda pages well filled with neatly written notes about the Common Hall of London and the House of Commons, with notes on the "Hornblower's Patent Bill," the "Newfoundland Fisheries Bill," an Act Respecting the "Bill of Exchange," and the "Bill," the abolition of the slave trade and other questions that agitated the mind of the people of that century ago. It also contains dates of remarkable events, tables of holidays, bank days, sittings of courts and names of the judges. It is a valuable source of information such as is seen in almanacs of today. It is well preserved for its age.

THE STREET PAVING.

Laborers to Get 15 and Teams 30 Cents an Hour.

At a special meeting of the Board of Works yesterday afternoon Mr. Wm. Haskins, City Engineer, laid before the members the specifications for the curbing and paving of King and James streets. The document contained 48 clauses, and it took almost three hours to read it. The committee decided to make it a part of the specifications that all laboring men should be paid at the rate of 15 cents an hour for their work, and teams 30 cents. It was suggested that the working day be limited to nine hours, but some objection was taken and nothing was done in the matter. The specifications with a few minor changes will be printed and distributed among the aldermen. A meeting of the Board will be held soon to consider them again.

COMPANY "D'S" OUTING.

The annual outing of the above company will be held this year at Port Dover in the form of a camp lasting from Saturday night, until Monday evening, July 2nd (Dominion Day). Capt. Ross intends to take upwards of 85 men away with him, including a single band 25 strong. An advance party of 6 men and a sergeant will leave on the 2 o'clock train on Saturday afternoon so as to have the tents in readiness for the main body which will arrive about 9 o'clock p.m. The camp will be situated on a bluff overlooking the lake and the city. On Sunday there will be a church parade to St. Paul's Church. Arrangements have been made by the Port Doverites to spend the holiday in a royal high society. The company has been prepared, including a number of military evolutions, in which the red coats will no doubt do themselves credit. There will be a parade in uniform on Friday evening, when every man intending to go on this trip must be on hand.

SERVICES APPRECIATED.

Mr. Sidney W. Grant, President of St. Paul's Church Christian Endeavor Society, has been honored by its members, who presented him with an address and a beautiful floral offering. Reference was made in the document to the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Grant towards the members of the society during the past year, and the incoming President, Mr. George Black, was welcomed. Miss Rennie read the address and Miss Ida Gillard handed Mr. Grant the flowers.

THE SOLICITOR'S OPINION.

He Thinks the Council Was Legally Constituted on May 25.

Mrs. F. MacKellan, Q. C., City Solicitor, has given Aid. McAndrew, chairman of the Markets, Fire and Police Committee, a written opinion as to the legality of the fire limits by-law that was passed on May 25. It was at that meeting that three by-laws were said to have been read when no quorum of the Council was present. Mr. MacKellan's opinion is that if, as is claimed, there were eleven members of the Council in the room at the time the by-law was required to make a quorum—and that, as is undoubtedly the case, one alderman was in the building, watching the proceedings from another room, and occasionally entering the Council chamber, the Council was legally constituted, the member who was going in and out being held to be present, completing the quorum.

If the fire limits by-law is all right, Aid. McGillivray's hospital by-law is, too.

BURGLARY IN BURLINGTON.

The Village Clerk's Safe Broken Into and Robbed.

Mr. James Allen, clerk of the village of Burlington, was disgusted with the appearance of things when he reached his office this morning. During the night burglars had visited the place, broken in the window, burst the safe-to pieces, and carried off $30 in cash which had been deposited in it yesterday. The contents of the desk and drawers were strewn about the floor. The door had been introduced into a hole drilled in the door near the combination lock and a fuse used. The burglars did their work effectually, and got away without leaving a clue as to their identity. The investigation of the corporation, and was a portion of what Mr. Allen has recently collected from the ratepayers as statute labor taxes. The matter has been put into the hands of the detectives.

BLACKGUARDISM REBUKED.

Mr. N. Avery came successfully through a campaign which was not distinguished for its high-minded or exceptionally fair methods. When acting commander for the Province at the Victoria Fair, he succeeded in escaping the extortion of hotel and boarding-house keepers. The expenses of his staff were greatly reduced by his clever, practical methods of reducing a house and leaving an establishment for them. These expenses were represented during the campaign as his private expenditure, and ungenerous insinuations were thrown out regarding his high life. It is gratifying to know that the method brought their usual reward in the return of Mr. Avery with a comfortable majority. As Chairman of the Public Accounts Committee, Mr. Avery's absolute fairness has greatly facilitated the investigation of Provincial expenditures, and, although his course during last session was misrepresented for campaign purposes, his worth is generally appreciated on both sides of the House—Globe.

THE AMPHION CLUB.

The Amphion Club, as a wind-up of the season, had a pleasant time last evening. A party consisting of the club and their wives and sweethearts, with a few invited guests, went out on the lake on the steamer Maceppa, which had been chartered for the occasion. The boat started at 9 and returned to the piers at 10, after which the party adjourned to the beach house, where arrangements for the coming season were discussed. The best possible manner by Tom Young, of the commissariat of the club house. About 35 ladies and gentlemen partook of the repast. Dandling and singing were enjoyed till an early hour this morning, when all embarked on the steamer for Hamilton, where a street car was in waiting. The Amphion Club has had much fun during the past winter, but it is doubtful if ever a pleasanter evening was spent.

A POPULAR TRIP.

The Hamilton Steamboat Company are offering a good programme for the accommodation of excursionists who propose taking in a trip on Dominion Day. The advertisement in another column shows there will be a special boat leaving here on Saturday evening at 9 p.m., and the last boat leaving Toronto on following Monday will leave at 9 p.m. The tickets for the round trip to Toronto are reduced to 75 cents, and are good going on any boat on Saturday, 30th June, and Monday, July 2nd, and returning on any regular boat on Friday 3rd. The boats were never in better shape than they are now, and have lately been fitted up with new awnings, which, on a warm or wet day, prove very comfortable. No doubt a good many of our citizens will avail themselves of the trip.
