

HORRIBLE MURDER OF A NEW YORK NURSE

Beaten to Death With a Bottle and Torn By Human Teeth.

Plumber Arrested on Suspicion Admits Being With the Woman.

New York, Oct. 3.—A victim of a murder of almost unparalleled atrocity, in some respects resembling the "Jack the Ripper" crimes that stirred London and the world years ago, a young woman, believed to be Nellie Quinn, who had been a nurse in the City Hospital, on Randall's Island, was found dead in a room at 431 East 118th street, yesterday morning.

Search of the room revealed a man's suit of underclothing bearing the name of George Kramer and the stamp of the Blackwell's Island laundry. Inspector McCafferty, in charge of the detective bureau, was informed of this, and in a few minutes established the fact that a man bearing that name was employed in the Metropolitan Hospital. Warning the officials not to let Kramer leave, he sent Detective Curley to the island, and the latter arrested Kramer at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Although exceedingly nervous Kramer readily told his captor and the other detectives that he had gone to the 118th street house with the woman. He said she was Nellie Quinn and that he knew her about three months. They met on Friday at 120th street and Third avenue and had then engaged a room. Since then they had been drinking heavily, he continued, and he could not remember what had happened except that he had left the house about ten o'clock yesterday morning, leaving her asleep.

BABIES' RALLY.

Cradle Roll of Barton Street Methodists Had a Day.

Yesterday was baby day in Barton Street Methodist Church, under the auspices of the cradle department of the vigorous W. M. S. of this church. The babes and their mothers were invited to a social gathering in the church between 3 and 5 p. m. Some sixty or more of the little people responded. It was a rare and delightful sight to see so many of the babes together. There was a short programme. Each of the children was presented with a miniature cradle, well filled with dainties. Tea and coffee were served. The splendid success of the occasion was largely due to Mrs. Allport, superintendent of the cradle roll, and Mrs. Livingston, president of the W. M. S.

The Man In Overalls

63,756. We're growing.

We are now heading for the 100,000. Brigandage on the mountain will have to be suppressed.

An increased revenue of $50,000 is looked for by the city next year. Will that mean $50,000 extra for the Board of Works?

In the matter of population, however, one Hamilton man is worth a dozen of some other kind.

While we are all taking in our winter's coal we can indulge the pleasant reflection that we have Indian summer still to the good.

It is just possible that the "knockers" made life so miserable for the sandstruck that it took this way of passing in its checks.

Oil has been discovered in Beverly. Had it been gas, the irrevocable would have blamed the Grit majority up there for being a sort of spouting well.

Another matter that might be looked up, are there any colon bacilli in the Coal Oil Inlet?

The quarterly rally of the House of Refuge Committee is the next fashionable function on tapis, whatever that is.

Newsy, trustworthy, cleanly. Those features commend the Times to every man's family.

Hamilton is doing very well, thank you, in these good Grit times.

A course at the Art School would be money in your pocket, young man.

To be sure, for aught we know, the sandstruck may just have been engaged in boiling the water.

They now say that the Spencerian system of penmanship makes sissies of the schoolboys.

Wouldn't it be a judgment or something, if the new fire engine was to be burned to the water's edge, too?

The brigand who is snatching women's purses on the mountain side would confer a favor if he would call at the police station any time during business hours.

Now that the Fire and Water Committee is laid up for repairs, the Board of Trade might make a few remarks, without committing itself.

No, Maude; License Commissioner Fanning is not a baseball fan.

Well, Harry Orchard did not do it this time. Some people will be more apt to believe his story.

Gasoline and a naked lamp are more dangerous than dynamite.

Who was the boy that stood on the burning deck of the sandstruck?

Men are wise who advertise.

A NEW SCHOOL

Will Be Built Near the East End Incline.

School Section No. 3, Barton, which is that section immediately to the south of the city, on the mountain, is to have a new school, and it is to be erected in the east end of the section, somewhere in the vicinity of the East End Incline. The trustees met last night in the present school, which is about three-quarters of a mile south from the city quarry. Mr. Harry Bryant presided. There were two propositions—one to enlarge the present school and the other to build a new school for the accommodation of the rapidly growing settlement at Mount Hamilton. The latter idea met with favor, and a new school will be built there in the near future.

DISTRICT MEETING

Of the Independent Foresters Committee Here.

About fifty delegates were present. The principal business transacted was the election of officers for the incoming year, the result being as follows: J. M. Paterson, Court Pride of Barton, Chairman.

George Clark, Court Pinehurst, Winona, Vice-Chairman. H. T. Drope, Secretary. Horace E. Elmer, Treasurer. Walter Randall and E. S. Hogarth, Auditors.

Much enthusiasm was manifested in the work of the committee in this district and special efforts will be put forth to make the big I. O. F. week at the Bennett Theatre, commencing Nov. 4th, a success.

MONEY FOR DEFENCE OF JAKE SUNFIELD.

His Mother, Mrs. Tamillo, Comes From Chicago and Will Aid Financially.

Eminent Lawyers to be Engaged to Assist Mr. J. L. Counsell.

Relatives and friends of Jake Sunfield, alias Jake Tamillo, who is in jail awaiting trial for the murder of Andrew Radzyk, have come to his aid financially, and he will make a hard fight for his life. His mother, Mrs. Tamillo, has come here from Chicago, and has arranged for a conference with J. L. Counsell, the prisoner's lawyer, this afternoon. She wants Mr. Counsell to get the best legal assistance possible and it is not improbable that Mr. E. F. H. Johnson, or Mr. Louis Heyd, will be retained as pleader. Mrs. Tamillo is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Binker, Sherman avenue. She has visited her son in the jail. To her Sunfield laid the blame for the unfortunate death of Radzyk on Mrs. Radzyk. The accused continues to be surly and the jail officials don't seem to have the same sympathy with him that they usually have for prisoners charged with the taking of the life of a fellow. Mrs. Radzyk takes life easy in the jail and the confinement does not seem to bother her much.

Mr. J. L. Counsell denies the statement made in a local paper last night that he intends to make application for a change of venue. He said, however, that he will have to question those empaneled as to whether they have read certain articles that appeared in one paper and if they have formed an opinion as to whether the prisoner is guilty. He claims that one newspaper has overstepped the bounds in regard to Sunfield's case.

It is likely that Sunfield's wife will come here from Chicago for the trial, although the Crown will not send for her, as she has no personal knowledge of the killing of Radzyk. She is very bitter against her husband.

FOUR MURDERERS HANGED; KILLED MAN FOR HIS MONEY

Robbed Italian Laborers and Slew One of Them Who Resisted.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 3.—Anthony DeLoro, Stephen Carui, Sivero Rodelli and Joseph Celione were hanged here today. All died from strangulation.

The crime for which they paid the penalty was the murder of Plato Albamase, and was the culmination of a daring robbery. On the night of Aug. 30th, 1906, they entered a shanty near Gap, Pa., occupied by fifteen Italian laborers, who were asleep. One of the quartette was stationed as a guard at the door, while the other three awakened the sleepers, and with drawn revolvers and knives, demanded their savings. The amount secured was small, because the men had only a few days before sent away their money. Plato Albamase, one of the laborers, had $30 on his person, which it seemed was known to the robbers, and they demanded it. He denied he had the money, whereupon they proceeded to search his clothes by force. He seized a razor and fought desperately. In the melee Albamase was shot and stabbed more than twenty times. The four made their escape and fled towards Philadelphia. The wounds about their heads and faces were the means of their arrest soon after.

OLD CASE SETTLED. A BAD FIRE IN ANCASTER.

Terminal Alley Dispute Is Practically at an End.

Before Judge Snider this morning, the alley dispute between Messrs. H. B. Whipple, J. Finlayson and H. Grierson and the Terminal Station was practically decided. The company will take the present alley and will build a new alley to conform with the wishes of those interested. It was adjourned till tomorrow morning to see if Mr. Finlayson and Mr. Grierson will agree with the proposition. Mr. Whipple has signified his willingness. Mr. G. H. Levy appeared for the Terminal Station Company, Mr. F. S. Morrison for Mr. Mr. Whipple, and W. S. McBrayne for Messrs. Finlayson and Grierson.

TEMPERANCE WORK.

Arrangements for Sunday Meetings in Bennett's Theatre.

The Hamilton and Wentworth District Council, R. T. of T., held its monthly meeting last evening, and discussed plans for the fall and winter. As to aggressive temperance work in the community generally, it was thought best to cooperate in every possible way with the Central Temperance Executive in the holding of Sunday evening mass meetings in the Bennett Theatre during the month of November, and perhaps longer. As to internal activity, it was decided to recommend that each select council in the district hold a reunion meeting as early as possible in October, to mark the beginning of a campaign for new members, culminating in a large ingathering on rally night, in November.

Mr. W. J. Armstrong, Ontario Grand Councilor, was present, and gave a stirring address on the prospects of the order in this Province. Personally a resident and town councillor in Toronto Junction, he told of the success of prohibition in that municipality.
