In Memoriam.

The home on earth is lonely, The baby voice is still, Bereaved parents, murmur not It is thy Father's will.

No earthly love could shield her.

Like Jesu's tender care. His gentle arms they hold her And guide her every where,

And let the knowledge comfort. That His abiding love Can never tire or falter, But ever faithful prove.

Earth's life will soon be over. The better life begun, And then in heavenly mansions Sweet May will be your own.

Gone only for a little while, Her little hand shall guide; And draw you near that bright home, Where endiess joy is stored.

Then take God's comfort to you, "Look up" and see the light Which Christ has given His children, E'en through the darkest night.

Lovingly dedicated by ALICE BROOKS, Goderich.

And He is only keeping Your little gem so fair. To give again in besuty Into your loving care.
