SAVORY ROASTER.

Our many customers who had the pleasure of examining and trying our simple of this very useful household article will be pleased to hear that we have just received a shipment, so that all orders can now be filled. What is a Savory Roaster? It is such a good thing that it must be seen to be properly understood. A Savory Roaster is a Pan for roasting meat; but it is more than this, it is a self baster. No torment or burning your fingers removing it from oven to baste the meat. You simply place your roast of meat in the roaster, close the pan—trouble no more about it until it is cooked. The meat is really steamed all through. None of the nutritious properties of the meat can escape. It is a marvel and the price is within the reach of everybody. $1.50.

The Shell.

And then I pressed the shell Close to my ear
And listened well
And straightway like a bell Came low and clear The slow and murmur of far distant seas
Whipped by an icy breeze Upon a shore
Winged with and desolate It was a sunless strand that never bore
The footprints of a man, Nor felt the weight Since time began
Of any human quality or stir Save what the dreary winds and waves incure.
And in the hush of waters was the sound
Of pebbles rolling round.
Forever rolling with a hollow sound, And bubbling seaweeds as the waters go.
Swish to and fro
Their long, cold tentacles of slimy gray.
There was no day,
Nor ever came a night
Setting the stars alight
To wonder at the moon:
Was twilight only and the frightened creech, Smitten to whimpers of the dreary wind
And waves that journeyed blind—And then I loosed my ear—oh, it was sweet
To hear a cart go jolting down the street.

Forfeited Bond in Montreal.

Alleged Hotel Swindler Has Been Arrested in Chicago.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—Said to be wanted as a swindler in England, Canada and a dozen American cities "Professor" Charles Dennis, member of the alleged "clairvoyant trust," which was broken up here last spring, is in the hands of the Chicago police, and will face trial on several indictments charging fraud.
Dennis was arrested in Boston October 24, and was held in secrecy until turned over to the Chicago police.
He was brought back here last night.

Among the criminal transactions charged against the "professor," and for which indictments have been returned, are:—
Swindling five Chicago people, among whom were two employees of the International Harvester Company.

Arranging with another "professor" for holding up clairvoyant friends, who had "cleaned up" $6,000 and a $1500 diamond ring in Louisville.

Swindling many persons in New York by card games, wire tapping and clairvoyancy.

Assaulting a girl in Buffalo.
Forfeiting bond in Montreal.
Arranging two fake horse races in England, one for $25,000 and one for $5,000.

Operating an alleged $10,000 clairvoyant swindle in Peoria, Ills.
Swindling trans-Atlantic and transcontinental tourists.

Dennis is wanted in Chicago as "Professor Callisbury." He is also known under half a dozen aliases.

Woman's ove.

A beautiful thing is a woman's love,
And to think that day by day
Some men are killing a woman's love.
No two in the self-same way!
With thoughtlessness as a wound, Neglect and spite and scorn, Till aching souls are cast in gloom And bleeding hearts are torn!

A beautiful thing is a woman's love,
A sacred thing and true;
Some men are killing a woman's love—
It's an awful thing to do.
An awful thing to do.
For its delicate petals fall As swift as death in the north wind's breath
On the flowers along the wall.

A sacred thing is a woman's love, A solemn and wondrous gift;
Some men are killing a woman's love With the tide towards which they drift;
Some men are bringing to beautiful lives Neglect, with its awful sting, A terrible dart that in the heart Is the end of everything.

A terrible thing is a woman's love,
For it must have love to live,
And men are killing a woman's love If they cease their love to give.
It may not die in a moment, no, Nor yet in a thousand years;
But it takes the happiness out of life And it drowns the world with tears.

Sir Thomas Lipton

the famous yachtsman

When Mary Writes a Letter

When Mary writes a letter, there is something doing that little Ben.
Of course before she writes it she has got to find her pen; So she searches all compartments of her desk, and in between The volumes in the bookcase, and her scrutiny is keen.
Next she pokes around the mantel and up to the clock shelf, too.
Then she goes into the bedroom and she has to rummage through Bureau drawers and also fumble on the dressing table, then She must stop awhile and wonder where she could have left her pen.

Then she goes and finds the children.
First she rounds up little Ben.
And she says: "Tell me this instant what you did with mamma's pen!" But Ben straightway pleads not guilty, and he goes back to his play; Then she asks the girls about it, though she knows what they will say.

When they've said it they go gladly off to play skipping rope, While she stands there disappointed and almost deprived of hope.
But a sudden thought comes to her of an upstairs closet shelf, "That is where it is!" she says, and goes there, smiling to herself.

But it isn't there! She goes on searching high and searching low On the floor and the piano—keeping up a ceaseless flow Of conjecture as she searches; next she sits down at the foot of the bed; For she finds a stack of paper just inside a closet door.
Reads, too, of the latest level fashions chosen for the west; Reads of crepe, brocades, and linens, and of new things in more,
And she puts her letters writing off until another day.

First-Born Children Weakest.

Primogeniture has just received another hard knock. It is several years since Dr. W. C. Rivers, of London, in studying the statistics of a great sanitarium, observed that among consumptive patients the first-born provide a larger number of subjects than any of the other children. Prof. Karl Pearson and Prof.
Brahmer and Riffel collected a vast mass of statistics in England and Germany and fully confirmed Rivers' observation.
Brahmer had been teaching that the first-born children were the strongest; but he proved that the opposite was true. A medical authority states that not only tuberculosis but "insanity and criminality show a pre-ponderant incidence among the oldest children," and quotes Prof. Pearson's statement that the earlier members of a family are more likely than the younger to inherit constitutional defects. It adds that a tendency to coddle, pamper and indulge the first child may account for a part of its vulnerability to disease.

Temperance Sunday at Cochrane St. Church.

Yesterday being the World's Temperance Sunday, the pastor of Cochrane Street Church, the Rev. C. A.
Whitcomb, M.A., at the morning service preached a Temperance sermon, having his remarks on Romans 14th chapter and 21st verse. The reverend gentleman said he was appalled at the drunkenness in the city during the past two weeks, and spoke very strongly denouncing the liquor as a sworn destroyer of bodily health, human intellect and of human character. At the evening service an immense congregation gathered, the church was literally packed, chairs had to be placed in the aisles to accommodate visiting friends. The preacher was the Rev. A. S. Rogers, M.A., of Lunenburg, the gifted son of the late Rev. Dr. Rogers. The text was: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." Mr. Rogers made an eloquent appeal for religious conviction. The sermon was a masterly one, the preacher urged all his hearers to stand fast in the Christian faith, to stand by the old Bible, the book of books, and to stand fast in prayer, the chief funda-mentals of the Christian religion. At the close of the preaching service the Service of Song was held, the familiar songs of the sea hymns were heartily sung. The service all through was inspiring and helpful and the congregation are very thankful to the Rev. Mr. Rogers for giving them the opportunity of listening to him last evening, the message so faithfully delivered will linger in the hearts and minds of many and will not soon be forgotten. Mr. Mews presided at the grand organ, the sweet notes of the instrument, together with the voices of the large choir added much to the helpfulness of this service.

Death in Darkness.

Five People Driving on Private Road near Montreal last night—Struck by Engine at Train Crossing and all Killed.
Montreal, Sept. 25—Five people were instantly killed by the C. P. R. Quebec Express, ten miles from this city to-night, when the carriage in which they were riding was struck by the pilot of the engine. The dead are:
Mordecai Allaire, 49 years; his wife, 46 years; Wilfrid Lortie, 42 years; Algine Lortie, 45 years; and Victoria Lortie, 66 years.

All the deceased lived at St. Elzear, Quebec. The party were driving to their home at St. Elzear over a sort of private road known as Monte du Moulin, which runs from Park Laval to St. Martin. The road is not much more than a rough track, and at the crossing where the accident took place there was no light or sign of habitation.
The train was en route to Montreal.

The engine driver realizing that there had been an accident, pulled up and the train crew picked up the bodies of the party, which had been thrown in all directions, one of them being found on top of the engine. The carriage was smashed into splinters.
Four of the victims were dead when picked up, the only one showing any sign of life was Albina Lortie. All were placed on the train and brought into Montreal. Miss Lortie died before reaching the hospital.

Just how the accident happened no one seems to know. The party carried no light, and the engine driver claims that the first indication he had was when he felt the impact of engine and carriage.
