NOTICE.

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TELEGRAPH COMPANY announces that it is prepared to accept Week-End letters to Soldiers, Sailors and Nurses serving with the Expeditionary Forces in the United Kingdom or on the Continent, at a special rate of 5c. per word (no minimum charge) subject to the following conditions:

- All messages must have the prefix EFM written before the address.
- When the persons are with the Expeditionary Forces in France or Belgium, the messages will be sent by post from London.
- The following particulars considered by the British authorities to be essential, must be given as far as practicable:—

- Regimental rank and name.
- Squadron, Battery, or Company.
- Regiment or other unit.
- Expeditionary force concerned, whether British, Canadian, Australian, etc., or, in case troops not with expeditionary forces, name of place where stationed must be given.

The Anglo-American Company will also transmit free messages relating to wounded combatants, subject to the following conditions established by the authorities:—

- The privilege is restricted to bona fide enquiries made by relatives concerning persons officially reported to have been wounded or killed. Matter of a social nature may not be included in the messages.
- The messages must be handed in to the Hon. Colonial Secretary, at St. John's, who will arrange their free transmission over Anglo Cables. The prefix WSM must be written before the address.
- The number of free messages which may be sent concerning any individual wounded combatant is limited to a maximum of three.
- Persons offering such messages must present the original official advice or information about the particular casualty to which the message relates, and each message sent must be checked on such original advice.
- No free messages are allowed in respect of persons reported only slightly wounded.
- The particulars specified in A. B. C. and D. above, must be given as far as possible in every case.

MR. CUSTOMER,—

Probably you've economised by doing without your usual suit and overcoat during Fall of 1914. Are you going to have that down-and-out look in Spring 1915? The Allies have millions of men on the firing line, each requiring thirteen pounds of wool every six or eight weeks. The British Government are keeping British Mills turning out army contracts. Spring quotations for woollens are sky high. We have on hand a particularly fine range of Serges, Tweed Suitings and Overcoatings. Order now as you will have to pay considerably higher in the Spring.
