"Our Boys" Arrived.

Commencing on Monday afternoon next, at the "Casino Theatre" "Our Boys" "The First Newfoundland Regiment" will pay us a "pictorial visit." This beautiful picture which consists of 4,000 feet, was secured at the instigation of Mr. J. P. Kiely and is controlled by him. It is undoubtedly the greatest film of its description ever taken. Special permission having been granted from the British War Office in order to have this wonderful picture placed upon the screen. Photographically perfect and detailingly excellent this "pictorial" is absolutely the "last word" in the art of motion photography. "Our Boys"—God Bless them—are to be seen in their "days work" both at Aldershot and Avy. They have been photographed "to the minute" by one of the most expert operators in Great Britain, the whole being directed by a man whose name is a household word. Mr. Kiely deserves great credit for his wonderful energy and foresight in being the conceiver and originator of such a "coup." "Our Boys" have been alluded to by one of the leading British Generals as "the coolest bunch" he ever saw under fire. This remark of a warrior of 42 years' experience is praise indeed. We unhesitatingly predict crowded houses during the run of this great picture which will naturally appeal to every man, woman and child of our Island Home. In point of fact it is the only picture of its kind ever to have been taken during the progress of which one of the greatest, the greatest military camp in the world and the home of Robbie Burns, the world-renowned Scottish poet, in Avy. It is worthy of special note that the final performance each night will commence at 9.45, to give everybody a chance to see this "homeland feature."

BOOK BORROWERS.

Some folks are rather funny; if they should borrow money, they're sure to pay it back; they're straight, they're never willing to owe a man a shilling, a shotgun or a tack. In all life's common phases they are as prompt as blazes, a debt gets on their nerves; they are so blameworthy it fairly makes one hither to contemplate their curves. But when they borrow novels, and take them to their hovels, to keep nine days or ten, you may be sure the chances are that those fine romances will never come back again. I am a chronic martyr; my set of Old Nick Carter was borrowed long ago; and Laura Libby's volumes, that stood in stately columns, my shelves no more shall know. What are the cherished treasures that gave me unmixed pleasures in olden golden days? Oh, where is "The Life and Letters of Rutherford B. Hayes"? To honest friends I lent them—at their request I sent them—and maybe they'll come back some day when pigs are soaring, and pterodactyls, roaring, are roosting on my shacks.

Balls and pompons are made of fur; they are a jaunty trimming for the new hat.

The Crescent Picture Palace.

The Crescent Picture Palace is every day giving its patrons the best there is to be had in pictures and as a consequence is becoming more and more popular. To-day's show is a fine one; the two-reel feature "Colombia" is a picturization of Prosper Mélière's famous romance, "The Missing Ruby" is an interesting mystery story. The great Selig Cow Boy actor, Tom Mix, features in "The Man from Texas," and there are two very funny comedies, "The New Editor," and "They Looked Alike." Mr. Dan Delmar sings "She's the Daughter of Mother McChree," a new Irish ballad. On Monday's three-reel feature, "The Girl of the Music Hall" with Alice Joyce will be presented.

Everyday Etiquette.

"What kind of an engagement ring should a man in moderate circumstances give the girl he has asked to become his wife?" queried worried Ned. "A man should not tax his resources to buy even the engagement ring. A ring set with your sweetheart's birthstone or her favorite stone or a plain band ring should be much appreciated by her," replied his uncle.

WITH THE ADVENTISTS.—At the Cooks Town Road Church Sunday evening, Elder Wm. C. Young will speak on Peace, its prospects and surety. A welcome is extended to all.

Gas and Hospitality.

The sound of motor wheels heralding the arrival of unexpected guests has no terrors for the housewife whose menage is run on up-to-date lines. While the visitors are removing the traces of travel, with the hot water which a gas water-heater keeps always "on tap," a match to the gas fire makes the drawing room a place of warmth and pleasantness for their reception; and the children love to "help mother" by toasting the crumpets before the clear and smokeless glow.

The gas cooker (or the modern gas trivet by the drawing rooms gas fire) boils a kettle of water in no time, and within a quarter of an hour after their arrival the guests are enjoying a cosy chat over the cup that cheers. Should they be persuaded to stay, the invaluable cooker makes it possible, even at such short notice, for the experienced housewife, after a raid upon her emergency store cupboard, to set before them a dainty dinner of which no hostess need be ashamed. Gas means ever-ready hospitality.
