Functions at Bay Roberts.

Monday, May 21, writes a Bay Correspondent, to the H.
Barnard, the Scarlet Chapter No. 3, L. O. A., paraded Matthew's Church to attend service. Although a very small number of the members of the order were in attendance the four bands was a pleasing feature.

need, Shearstown, the Band of the S.
A. Corps, Bay Roberts, and the C.L.B.
Band. The Rev. J. O. Britnell conducted the service, and preached very acceptably from the text: "For none of us liveth to himself, and no man denieth himself."—Rom. XIV, 7.
On Wednesday night last, 24th inst., the officers of the G. L. B. Ladies Auxiliary met in the G. of E. Academy for the purpose of giving a "band" to Mr. Henry Morgan, bandmaster of the

Fads and Fashions.

A charming afternoon frock has a bodice of white crepe de Chine embrodered in jet and a skirt of black mousseline.
A white crepe de Chine frock has a skirt of white silk and straw, and a cape of black lace, which also forms the sleeves.
A new blouse is smocked around the neckline, and has full sleeves at the wrist. It is worn under the juniper dress.

A charming summer hat has a crown made of flowers, a poke-brim, and a flat taffeta bow placed in the middle of the back.
A silk bodice embroidered in bright colors is worn over a skirt of dark blue, and there is a little button-on apron of the dark blue.
The quaint dress with fitted bodice and puffed sleeves is never out of vogue. The latest version of this model has a scalloped hem.
With a red and white costume, is carried a white parasol with a deep black border. The handle is painted black.

A dress of yellow voile has a large large red flower placed at the girdle, and is worn with a floppy red hat.
The combination of colors is novel.
The bracelet in favor is made of small stones or carved ornaments connected with a gold or silver chain.
Other ornaments dangle on chains or their own.
White linen frocks are to be crosstitched. Combinations of colors used in the stitching are red and dark blue.

erally used as the lining of panels or wide sleeves.
Many of the simple morning frocks are a combination of colors, or white and colors. The bodice is often of white, the skirt being in color, with neck and sleeves piped in the same.
A frock of orange crepe with scalloped hem and long flowing sleeves is worn with a cream crepe cape, and a large hat of the cream crepe, trimmed with orange-centered white flowers.

Jet is a much-used trimming for the black afternoon gown. It is the more effective because scarlet is seen
