U. F. Movement.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

Greenspond, March 12.—The meeting which was held here to hear report from delegates of the United Fishermen's Movement was better than anything ever held here by Blandford when he swept the District. A true estimate of Greenspond is as follows: Cooker 50, Winsor and Abbot 30; Opposition 200, Westleyville and Newtown about the same proportionately. Attended a meeting at Pinchard's Island. A lot of men away. The vote in this place is two to one for Opposition. Count the North Side of Bonavista absolutely safe for Opposition. CORRESPONDENT.

C. L. B. Cadets.

LIEUT.-COL. WALTER F. RENDALL, C.B.E., APPOINTED OFFICER COMMANDING.

At Headquarters of the 1st Nfld. Regiment Church Lads Brigade Cadets on Tuesday, the Regimental orders for the day read by Major R. H. Tait, M.C., Adjutant, contained the following:—
Lieut.-Col. and Officer Commanding the 1st Nfld. Regt. Church Lads Brigade Cadets—Lieut.-Col. Walter F. Rendall, C.B.E., late of the Royal Nfld. Regiment. This announcement was received by all ranks with great enthusiasm as the new Officer Commanding has seen many years service before the war in the Brigade, and now, after a lapse of time returns to the supreme command of his old regiment.

Lieut.-Col. Walter Rendall joined on the organization of C Company, Bishop Field College as a private, and by merit soon passed his efficiency exam and was promoted to N.C.O. rank, and proved one of the smartest N.C.O.'s ever trained in Field College Companies. Subsequently after leaving the school he secured his officer's commission at Headquarters, and was afterwards appointed Adjutant on the 25th March, 1905, succeeding Captain W. R. Warren, the present Minister of Justice. He took a leading part in all Executive work of the Brigade as well as in games and in athletics. He was also a member of the Committee appointed by Col. R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., Officer Commanding, to arrange for the opening ceremonies of the present armoury, Harvey Road, which took place on March 28th, 1910. Lieut.-Col. Walter Rendall acted as Camp Adjutant in 1910, Camp Commandant in 1914, and was the organizer of the "Legion of Frontiersmen," being their Commanding Officer in 1914 when on the outbreak of the Great War, and a member of A class under the terms of engagement he was automatically for duty in any part of the Empire the moment war was declared. He was probably the first man to report for war service to the Governor Sir Walter Davidson, who promptly arranged for him and Lieut. A. W. Wakefield (medical officer) and one hundred Frontiersmen to sail promptly by the Allan liner Mongolian for England. While awaiting the steamers sailing date public meetings were held and the organization of the 1st Nfld. Regt. arranged for. His Excellency then requested the cancellation of the draft of Frontiersmen and asked them to join the Regiment. The date of Lieut.-Col. Walter Rendall's enlistment might therefore be stated to date on August 4th, 1914. Other details of his service from official records are gleaned as follows. Received Captain's Commission 1st Nfld. Regiment, 21st Sept., 1914. Appointed Adjutant September, 1914. Promoted Major, 25th April, 1915; appointed Chief Staff Officer, Dept. of Militia, 28th October, 1917. Promoted Lieut.-Col., 16th May, 1918. Awarded C.B.E. 16th Dec. 1919. Received mention in despatches of Secretary of State of War, 10th Feb. 1920. He was wounded twice, Gallipoli (Gallipoli Bay) 20th Sept. 1915, and in the Somme Transloy Ridge, near Guedecourt, 11th Oct. 1916. Lieut.-Col. Rendall, C.B.E., therefore has an unique record, possibly standing alone, in the fact he has won on merit all his promotions, from Private to Lieutenant-Colonel in his old Regiment. On the nomination of his Lordship Bishop White, Regimental Chaplain (by cable) to the Brigade Headquarters, London, the new O.C. has been officially granted his commission and the London Executive has cabled their hearty good wishes through his Lordship to Lieut.-Col. Rendall on his appointment. All ranks will give a hearty welcome on taking over the command likely on Easter Tuesday, April 3rd, when the Brigade Executive hope to arrange a fitting ceremonial for the occasion.

SCHOONER ASHORE.—Yesterday at noon hour a large schooner drifted from her moorings down the harbor and went ashore on the south side of the Narrows, near King's. It is not known if the vessel suffered any damages, but an attempt will likely be made to tow her off to-day.
