Torbay in Line for Monroe Policy

Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe Receive Rousing Welcome.

The Liberal-Conservative Party campaign under the banner of W. S. Monroe opened at Torbay last night with a monster meeting in St. Michael's Hall. The candidates Messrs. Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe received a most enthusiastic welcome. Bonfires and volleys of musketry were in evidence everywhere and Torbay undoubtedly showed to the full its appreciation of the Fighting Trio and the worthy cause led by Mr. Walter S. Monroe. Not within memory has such united support been given by Torbay to the standard bearers of any party. When the meeting was called Mr. William Goeke, the veteran of numerous campaigns was unanimously chosen chairman and in his hands the meeting was most capably conducted.

THE MENACE OF GROUP CONTROL.

Mr. W. J. Higgins on taking the platform was greeted with prolonged applause. He recorded his heartfelt appreciation of the endorsement accorded himself and colleagues, just a short year ago, and he knew that the same support and good will still existed. Political situations had suddenly arisen each in turn only to be surpassed by one more eventful. Throughout them all he had been called upon to play a part. Within the past month he had been brought face to face with the real political domination of W. F. Coaker and his undignified intention of continuing to boss and direct our political future. As in 1913, 1919 and 1923, Mr. Higgins had stood before the electors of Torbay and preached the menace of group controlled Government so in 1924 he re-affirmed that principle.

THE ISSUE TO-DAY.

To-day the people are again called upon to face the issue which was continued corruption, extravagance, squandering and debauchery of public monies, or the end of such misrule forever. It is Newfoundland's good fortune to-day to have a man of the Monroe stamp to step to the helm of our sinking ship of state, and pledge himself to carry us safe, and dry to a port where ordinary livelihood is certain and national prosperity a real possibility. The Monroe promises are simple, straightforward and unadorned, the promise of a man who honest and untainted in himself, could not give his word without the determination of his honor and integrity to fulfill it. The issue was plain and Mr. Higgins left it to his hearers to choose between a continuance of past misrule and a square deal fighting chance under Monroe. The hearty prolonged cheers and applause of the entire audience left no doubt as to Torbay's purpose.

SHOWS UP DECEITFUL PROPAGANDA.

Mr. N. J. Vinicombe when called on to speak was accorded a magnificent reception. He began by reviewing some of the events which have stirred the country since 1923 election and unfolded for his hearers the web of deceit and propaganda that had been employed during the year to continue hood-winking the electors. Last year the Humber had been advanced as cause for a renewed support in the Squires maladministration. By narrow majorities the bluff had worked, but the people soon found that there was little or nothing in it for them. The huge promises of plentiful employment had not materialized and the issue of the Humber meant prosperity for everyone but Newfoundlanders. Foreign labor was being imported wholesale and all the jobs worth while went to those who could pull strings with English Directors and contracting bosses. To-day they found themselves no better off than a year ago. Throughout the length and breadth of our island to-day the people are resolving to bring in a Monroe Government that will be of the people, for the people and by the people.

Mr. C. J. Fox brought the meeting to a close with a stirring speech in which he reviewed the history of the recent Governments, controlled as they have been by corruption and vicious waste. Taxation stands today at ten millions as against four millions ten years ago. Either there must be retrenchment or Newfoundland must soon go to the wall. Salvation lay in the new order of things which were fearlessly promised by Mr. Monroe's manifesto. A complete change in policy. Economy is the urgent need of the hour unless extravagance and squandering can never be heard of again if our national existence is to continue.

FIGHT AGAINST WASTE AND CORRUPTION.

The fisheries have to be sustained and fostered, and new industries introduced to care for the large numbers of our people who are in need. The good news that is pouring in from all sections of the country demonstrates that the fight against waste and corruption is being carried on successfully in other districts besides St. John's East, and in two weeks more the last of group Government and political dictatorship will have been witnessed. Midst ringing cheers and loud applause, Mr. Fox concluded.

With the singing of the National Anthem the meeting was brought to a close.

Numerous bonfires with loud prolonged cheers for the Fighting Trio and the Monroe Government marked the occasion and send of given Higgins Fox and Vinicombe on their campaign to roll up bigger majorities than ever before.

The Question

This time the question to be answered is clean-cut and definite. Do we want an honest Government? And the answer is in our hands. We have the power of the Franchise. We, the people are the last court of appeal. We pronounce judgment on all just stewards of the people's estate. I do not see any other argument in it. There is no question of party or personality—but are we going to re-employ the servant whom we have just dismissed, or are we going to look for one who has not been convicted of the most flagrant dishonesty. "Give us men—never mind their names, or any of the old stock-in-trade. Men who have handled their own affairs properly may be induced to handle our business somewhere near the mark. If we make any mistake, be assured that we are the ones who will pay for it. We are now at the cross-roads. One leads to clean honest administration of the affairs of the country, the other leads back to the same old den of thieves. In this great crisis of our national life, we should pay great attention to the character of the men who presume to be our leaders. We can only predict a man's future from our knowledge of his past. The evils from which we suffer must be eradicated at the point of germination. You cannot get a clear stream from a foul source and it is no use to expect honest measures from any but honest men. If we have made mistakes in the past, and no doubt we have, let us use them now as the homeward bound mariner uses the beacon-lights he passed on his outward voyage. Only in this way can we arrive at the port of Heart's Desire in the grand old colony of Newfoundland.

The policy of the purgator who polly requests the householders to leave the door unlocked for his second visit is not likely to appeal very forcibly to an intelligent electorate. "Breathes there a man with soul so dead who never to himself hath said—this is my own, my native land." JUSTUS.

Wedding Bells.

TAYLOR-HOWELL.

At Everett, Mass., U.S.A. on April 19th, Miss Nellie Howell, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Howell, of Everett, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Ronald S. Taylor, son of Mr. Herbert Taylor, of St. John's, Nfld. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Pitman, Pastor of the Glendale Methodist Church, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of white tulle with tulle veil trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Martha Taylor, sister of the groom. The best man was Mr. Raymond Howell, brother of the bride. The bridesmaid wore an evening dress of pale green crepe de chine, with silver band on her hair. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. A reception followed with refreshments, including a beautiful wedding cake, which was cut by the bride. The decorations at the house was an arch covered with white streamers and lilies of the valley with a wedding bell. Easter lilies were used to decorate the house.

The event was a very happy one for all concerned. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are both workers in the church. Mr. Taylor was the former President of the Epworth League, and is a local preacher. Mrs. Taylor is the Intermediate League Superintendent. Evidence of the esteem in which the happy couple are held amongst their many friends was shown in the valuable presents received. Before the wedding march was played Miss Isabelle Walker sang "Oh Promise Me." The Wedding March was played by Mr. Robert G. Fraleigh. At the close the wedding party motored to New Hampshire where the honeymoon will be spent. Guests were present from New Hampshire, Vermont, and various parts of Massachusetts. The couple will take up their future home in Everett.

Appreciative Audiences

STAR MOVIE LAST EVENING.

The artists at the popular Star, again last evening, delighted the audiences at both performances, and were obliged to respond to encores. Only in this way can we arrive at the port of Heart's Desire in the grand old colony of Newfoundland.

sensation. They open here next week when "all roads lead to the Star."

The Reason

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—I advertised in your paper for the name of the car driver who killed my dog on LeMarchant Road last Sunday week. The reason I did so was because the driver did not stop in accordance with the Cruelty to Animals Act, and if possible prevent the animal suffering. The driver answered the ad. promptly and stated he didn't stop because he was taking a patient from the Hospital and in any case didn't think the dog was injured.

Will you kindly publish this in justice to all concerned, and oblige.
Yours very truly,
CAPT. P. H. WINSOR.
May 20th, 1924.

Another Suggestion for Our Councillors

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—I am entirely in accord with Citizen's suggestion in yesterday's paper, to wit, that the Councillors who during the past few years have made our streets "better" with Tarvia should get it on as soon as possible. I suggest that one side of a street be done thoroughly, having the Tarvia broomed well into the surface, from the centre of the street to the drain, and that until the street has absorbed the Tarvia and dried out, all traffic should be compelled to use the untreated side of the street, more particularly horse traffic, and thus avoid having the Tarvia carried off on the wheels of passing vehicles. Some streets could be wholly tarvied at one time, whilst the traffic is diverted to nearby streets. I beg to suggest that Mr. Ryan, our efficient Chief Engineer, be given "a free hand" to make the necessary arrangement.

Yours truly,
ANOTHER CITIZEN.

Rhode Island Red a Record Breaker

A hen, a Rhode Island Red, by Mrs. R. A. White, who lives in Oakland, Cal., has produced 150 eggs in 150 days, weighing six ounces and measured by 1 1/4 inches in circumference, closed in the egg was another egg, shell and all, and the yolk. The hen's eggs had been increasing in size daily before the 150th egg appeared.
