NEW Nuns .- At the Convent of St. Joseph, Park-st. North, Hamilton, a few days ago six young ladies received the religious habit and took the vows of admission to the Convent-some of them from the neighborhood of Guelph. The cere mony was a public one, and conducted by three Hamilton priests, and one from Brantford - Rev. Father Bardon. The following are the names of the sisters: Miss Coady received the title of Sister Mary Pauline; Miss Hurly, Sister Mary Philomene; Miss Sullivan, Sister Mary Febrona; Miss Sarah Horan, Sister Mary Benedicta; Miss Mary Horan, Sister Mary Matilda, and Miss Kelly, Sister Mary Ambrosia.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW has reached us from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, 140 Fulton-st., New York. Amongst the subjects treated on in this number is the English Pulpit. The present system of preaching and style of pulpit oratory is referred to, and the measure of its influence discussed. There is an interesting article on Land of Moab," giving an account of im-portant discoveries on the east side of portant discoveries on the east side of the Dead Sea, and the River Jordan.

"The Programme of the Radicals" gives useful information on the present posi-tion of political parties in England. An article on "Holiand House" brings up reminiscences of the times of Walpole, Pitt, Fox, and their fellows. There are also articles on School Boards, Voltaire, English Dictionaries and Herbert Spen-cer—the last having chiefly reference to metaphysical matters. metaphysical matte notwithstanding the efforts of medical nen to keep the matter quiet, not a few are suffering from its effects. There are numbers of cases in private houses and among respectable families. Its presence is known at present on Elm, Walto Bay and Elizabeth streets, and in the north western part of the city.

THE Halifax correspondent of the says:-The Opposition are trying to induce Hon. Charles J. Campbell, member of the Legislative Council, to opose Ross in Victoria. Campbell is friendly to the Government, but has always been opposed to Ross, and the Opposition calculate on his personal feeling inducing him to take the field. It is doubtful yet if he will, but if he should do so his chances of defeating Ross are small. Coffin will not be opposed.

Curring.-A talented young minister, n Hamilton, while addressing his congregation the other evening, made at east one remark that was received with profound attention. While exhorting all o become members of some Christian denomination, he said no mere professing Christians were wanted, for they were worse than useless, even when they make

Welcome to the New General Sec-retary of the Y. M. C. A.

On Monday evening, after the work of the regular business meeting had been gone through, the members present of the Y. M. C. A. adjourned to Mr. Walrond's, where an Oyster Supper was spread in good style. The spread was in honour of their new general Secretary, Mr. True, late of Detroit, the intention being to enjoy a social chat, and endeavour to make him feel at home in their midst.

After the good things had been par-taken of, Mr. Osborn took the chair, and briefly stated the object of their meeting -extending to Mr. True the hand of welloud protestations, for these were like the cinnamon tree, the only virtues of which censisted in the bark. were sleigh-riding down a bank opposite had been removed he earnestly hoped that members of the Association al Secretary, and now that this barrier child aged seven, sen of Mr. K. He did not know how to thank them aright for this kindness shown him, but though he could not adequately reward them he trusted that the stranger's God would bless them for their kindness.

Singing, prayer, and the benediction brought the meeting formally to a close, after which the members lingered another half-hour before they finally withdrew, making themselves better acquainted with their new fellow-worker.
