The winner of the greatest number of harness races in 1890 was the bay pacing mare Lady Sheridan, owned in Athol, Mass. She has recently reduced her record to 2:19½ in an eight-heat race.

Statistics compiled on the meeting which has just closed at Washington Park show that during 25 days 400 horses participated in the races run, the value of which was $195,701. Two hundred and fifteen of these horses won money, Strathmeath leading with $18,860 to his credit, while Curt Guun was next, with $13,895 won. The other winners of $5,000 and over were: Bashford, $10,047; Poet Scout, $9,070; Ban Chief, $8,960; Verge d'Or, $6,025; Racine, $5,288. G. B. THE TRIGGER.

LONDON, July 21.—The members of the Canadian team at Bisley are issuing invitations for the usual receptions next Thursday. So far the team has fairly realized the expectation of its friends. They have made a good record, securing third place in the first 100 for the second stage of the competition for the Queen's prize, besides winning the Prince of Wales' prize, reserved for competition among medallists. The Kolapore match has been fixed for Wednesday, and the final stage of the Queen's prize for to-day. Three Canadians are qualified to compete. In competition yesterday the Canadians won second prize, £10, in the McKinnon contest and several other successes.

Among the communications read at Monday nigat's meeting of the City Council was one from Frank E. and Charles W. Leonard. It announced their desire to present to the citizens of London a memorial to their esteemed father, the late Hon. Elijah Leonard, in the shape of a public bathing house. The writers were willing to provide about $7,000 towards the object if the Council would furnish $1,600 for the purchase of the real estate necessary. The principal conditions mentioned were: That the board of management should consist of the mayor, one aldorman and one of the Leonard brothers or a citizen appointed by them; that the Council pay all salaries, fuel, light, water, insurance and rapairs necessary for the proper working over and above the revenue; that the charges for admission be 10 cents for plunge bath, 15 cents for private bath and 25 cents extra for an extra private bath at the discretion of the Board; that the bath be open every week day and up to 9:30 a.m. on Sundays. in such a manner that both the discretion of the Board; that the bath be open every week day and up to 9:30 a.m. on Sundays, in such a manner that both sexes will have entire private use of the building on days set apart; that the surplus, if any, be credited to the Board and be used for extensions or improvements as it might decide; that the city provide suitable sidewalk, boulevard and lay water and sewer pipes into the building free of charge. ensued and ended in the clause being adopted.

The petition in question was signed by a number of people, and asked that the request to allow a railroad to run across Adelaide street to Ald. Winnett's coal sheds be not entertained owing to the danger attendant thereon.

Clause 8 had to do with the gravel irregularities. Ald. Spencer read two letters addressed to the mayor, signed "One Who Knows," in No. 2 ward. The latter asked that a watch be placed on certain gravel foremen, alleging that the city was paying one-third more than it ought to. The letter warned the mayor not to tell any of the city officials of the communication. It further stated that during the week ending July 17, M. Shea was paid for 100 cords of screened gravel which he never had furnished. Mayor Taylor, on receipt of the second communication consulted the chief of police and watches were placed on Messrs. Shea and McEwau. Mr. Shea was counted for 145 loads by one watch and Mr. McEwau, the spreader, for 149.

Shea and McEwan. Mr. Shea was counted for 145 loads by one watch and Mr. Mc-Ewan, the spreader, for 149.

Ald. Spencer said that Mr. McEwan had appeared before the committee and had 245 loads marked in his book. Mr. Shea had also his copy, and between the two there was a difference of about six loads.

Ald. Gartshore moved that Mr. Mc-Ewan's services be dispensed with, and Mr. Shea's contract for gravel conceled, the latter to be not paid for the gravel actually delivered until he had prepared an account of all the gravel delivered during the season. Carried.

THE SEWAGE PROBLEM.

As chairman of the Board of Health, Ald. Ivey brought in a statement from Engineer Chipman as to the result of his recent visit here. Mr. Chipman said his work had been handicapped owing to the fact that the levels of the street intersections had not been previously taken. He thought, however, that the sewage could be deposited on the sand flats near the Cove without being pumped. The cost of the system, with the two main trunk lines, he would roughly estimate at about $90,000, exclusive of the right of way. The soil at the Cove seemed admirably adapted to the disposal of sewage. One acre, he considered, would suffice for 1,000 people. Mr. Chipman took occasion to comment on the present system as very defective,—constructed with no regard for future extensions. He would recommend that the levels of all street intersections in No. 6 ward, and also the land lying south of the Pipe Line road be taken. The report was only preliminary.

Ald. Gartshore moved that the acting engineer take the required levels and be empowered to employ assistance. Ald Taylor moved that No. 2 deal with the matter and have the levels taken as soon as possible.

Mayor Taylor intimated that Ald. Ivey

Mayor Taylor intimated that Ald. Ivey might have to go to Toronto in connection with the question.

Ald, Ivey alluded to the pending judgment of the courts in regard to the sewage problem. They had not sufficient data before them to give a decided opinion. He had asked Mr. Chipman to see the authorities touching a further extension of the stay of proceedings.

Ald. W. W. Fitzgerald said the city had not kept faith with the Provincial Government on the stop log question. The Council should take some action; the whole process seemed to be one of delay.

Ald Taylor's amendment carried.

SUNDAY SCRIMMAGE

At a Summer Resert Near Mentreal— Conflict Between Catholic and Protestant Guests.

Montreal, July 21.—There was quite a disturbance on Sunday at the Hotel de Lotbiniere at Vaudreuil, one of the popular summer resorts in the vicinity of Montreal. The difficulty arose out of religious differences between the French Catholic and English Protestant guests at the hotel. The greater number of the guests are prominent French-Canadian Catholics, but there is a good sprinkling of English Protestants. French-Canadian Catholics, but there is a good sprinkling of English Protestants. The hotel is run by a stock company, which is controlled by French-Canadians, but the manager is Edwin J. Fenton, an American. It seems the Catholic guesta have been contributing $10 weekly as rent for a building in the village in which their service is held, and Sunday nights they have apart in avaning them. in which their service is held, and Sunday nights they have spent in amusing themselves with a dance in the hotel parlors. Sunday, a week ago, when they assembled for their customary dance they found the Protestant guests in possession of the parlor, where a clergyman was holding zervice, the Catholics withdrawing. On Sunday the latter, determined not to be done out of their dance, assembled early, when they found the following placard hung in the parlor:

This was torn down and dancing commenced. Then Mrs. Fenton turned out the lights, only to find them re-lighted. Mr. J. M. Fortier, of Montreal, one of the proprietors of the hotel, was sent for, who ordered the lights to be turned on again and a lively fracas ensued. Manager Fenton had by this time put in an appearance and took his wife's part. The manager and his wife were abused by the French-Canadian guests, who jeered and hooted them, and there was every appearance of a free fight, when the mayor and hooted them, and there was every appearance of a free fight, when the mayor appearance in his insignia of office and succeeded in quelling the disturbance. The firm stand taken by the manager and his wife in support of the sanctity of the Sabbath is widely praised. Several Protestant guests left the hotel and there are rumors of others going. The head waiter and head cook with their staff, numbering about twenty, declared that if Mr. Fenton were to leave they would leave with him. Monday afternoon Mr. Fortier left with a complete new staff for the hotel; and, fearing trouble, he took sufficient protection with him to clear out the old staff from the house.

Elopement and Marriage of Marshal

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald moved, seconded by Ald. Scarrow, that Acting Engineer. A. O. Graydon be appointed city engineer, the question of salary to be referred to No. i.

Ald. Ivey moved that the matter be laid over for the present. It was better to move cautiously.

Ald. Gartshore said Mr. Graydon had done the work better than the city engineer. He did not think Mr. Graydon wanted the appointment right off; it would be better to wait until later and give him a chance to show what he could do. Ald. Scarrow thought it unfair to ask Mr. Graydon to continue to do both the engineer's and the assistant engineer's work at the latter's salary.

Ald. Ivey's amendment was lost on the following division: Yeas—Wyatt, Ivey, W. W. Fitzgerald, Winnett, Gartshore, Spencer and Thomas—7; nays—Taylor, O'Meara, J. Fitzgerald, Scarrow, F. J. Fitzgerald, Bartlett, Wilkey, Judd and Shaw—9. The motion carried and Mr.
