"MR. PIPP" PLEASED You need only to LARGE AUDIENCE

At the Grand Opera on Saturday Night—Digby Bell Is Very Popular.

It was a large and a well-pleased audience which filled the Grand Saturday night to see Mr. Digby Bell in "The Education of Mr. Pipp." Mr. Bell's place has for many years been fixed by playgoers as in musical comedy, but on two occasions in the same play he has demonstrated to Londoners that he is equally at home in the legitimate article. In "The Education of Mr. Pipp," Mr. Bell has a role for which he appears admirably fitted. He gives to the character of Pipp the quaint old man's humor of the seasoned actor, and he so sinks his personality in the part that his age of scarcely more than 40 never betrays itself in the character of more than 60 summers. It is a long time since Digby Bell came through London in his ill-fated light opera, "Jupiter," but ever since that time he has been able to lay claim to a cosy corner in the regard of London theater. goers. Whether in the "Chaperons," 'Mr. Pickwick," or "The Education of Mr. Pipp," his appearances have be equally acceptable. He was given man curtain calls Saturday night, and w compelled to make a speech. His bri address proved one of the most plea ing features of the evening.

ROAST FOR WHITNEY

Conservatives Condemn the Education Policy as Contrary to Freedom.

Toronto, Jan. 13 .- East Toronto Conservatives held their annual meeting yesterday. In the contest for the presidency, Dr. Walters, of East Toronto, defeated Mr. H. A. Nichols, of Richmond Hill, the latter being elected vicepresident. For the second vice-president, Henry Duncan defeated R. J. Hall. The offices of secretary-treasurer and representative to the Ontario Conservative Association were given by acclmation to Messrs. Robert Patterson and Adam Hood, respectively. Among the speakers were Mr. Alex. McCowan, M. P. P., Mayor Fisher, of North Toronto; Mr. W. H. Pugsley, of Richmond Hill, and ex-Warden Alex. Baird, of Scarboro. From the latter was forthcoming some plain truth on of the Ontario Government.
