LONDON LIBERALS WILL MEET IN CONVENTION ON AUG. 14

Rousing Meeting Was Held Last Night in the Hyman Hall—
Committee Named to Interview Prospective Candidates and Submit Names to Liberals—Reciprocity With U. S. Indorsed in the Speeches.

A convention to nominate a Liberal candidate for the coming elections will be held in Hyman Hall on Monday, Aug. 14. In the meantime a committee composed of Messrs. F. G. Ramsay, F. E. Leonard, T. H. Purdon, R. C. Col. J. W. Little, Philip Pocock, T. S. Hobbs, ex-M.P.P., J. M. McEvoy, Geo. S. Gibbons, H. F. Ramsay and Dr. H. T. Henson will interview prospective candidates and secure their consent to go before the convention. There was a large crowd at the meeting last night when this decision was arrived at, and it is absolutely certain that the Liberals of London will make a great fight for the riding, with every prospect of redeeming it.

Organization work has commenced, and the various committees will be put in shape in the coming week. The hall rooms will be opened every day from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m., and every voter who desires information will be able to obtain it from the secretary and his assistants, who will be constantly in attendance.

Full of Fight.
Several short addresses were delivered before the business of the meeting was discussed. Mr. F. G. Ramsay, president of the Liberal Association, occupied the chair. He was glad to see so large a representation of Liberals present. The old fighting spirit was still manifest, and he was confident that on polling day the City of London would give a good account of itself by electing a Liberal.

"We are going to have a candidate, even if I have to run myself," declared Mr. Ramsay, amid great cheering. The fight, he continued, was the same old fight of Liberalism, the struggle of the masses against the classes. It had always been the same, and would continue to be. The Liberals always stood with the people, and in this campaign, they were fighting the battle of the common people. It was a great fight, but Liberalism would triumph over all opposition.

Senator Coffey liked to be in London when there was a fight for the Liberal party on hand. He was glad to mingle with his old companions, who had fought side by side with him in the days gone by, when Liberals had to battle for their political lives. He was pleased again to stand behind Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The many victories and the proud position of the Liberal party were due to the brilliant leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who had made Canada a happy, prosperous, contented and united country.

A Paltry Criticism.
Touching on reciprocity, Senator Coffey continued on Page Six.

Two Flags.
Two large flags, a "Union Jack" and "Old Glory," will be carried at head of their contingents in monster procession which will be a feature of the celebration, and on every badge miniature flags of the two countries will be prominently displayed.

Two hundred of the Detroit Old Boys will be dressed in automobile costume, representing the great industry of Detroit, and there will probably be several fancy costumes. The Detroit members won a silver cup for the best costumes at one of the reunions several years ago, and this year they may repeat the feat.

"Col." Sullivan, one of the oldest members of the Detroit association, will lead the local delegation in the parade. The Detroiters will take with them Whitley's Military Band of thirty pieces.

Coming Sunday.
The members of the association will leave for London, via Canadian Pacific Railway Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Before going the men will be photographed on the station platform. A special train has been chartered to carry the Old Boys and their wives. It had been planned to have the Old Boys wear goggles in addition to their fancy costumes, but it was found that the order could not be filled in time, and they will carry a banner and black banners with the name "Detroit" displayed prominently on them.

THE NEW COOKERY; USE PAPER BAGS

Unique Invention of the Famous
French Chef, M. Soyer.

A CULINARY TRIUMPH

How to Use the Bags—Will Cook in Any Kind of Stove.

The Advertiser promised in its last issue to tell its readers more about paper-bag cooking, a topic of peculiar interest in hot weather, when the ladies will specially welcome anything that lightens the work of the kitchen. M. Soyer, the French chef, who has done so much to popularize paper-bag cooking, and who invented the Emaline bag, has given full information to the public. These bags are in three sizes, and may be got at The Advertiser office for a price which merely covers the cost of handling them. This is not a money-making scheme on The Advertiser's part. This journal has taken it up as an advertisement, and as a news feature. It is something which will interest the women readers of The Advertiser, as it directly concerns the home. Any reader can get a sufficient number of bags by presenting the coupon printed below. The cost, as will be seen, is merely nominal.

M. Soyer's Instructions.

Here are M. Soyer's instructions for the use of the bags:

1. Select one that "fits" the food intended to be cooked.
2. Grease slightly the inside of the bag, except in the case of vegetables or when water is added. For beginners it is advisable. Butter, lard or dripping may be used.
3. When the food has been prepared for the bag, place the same on the table and lift the uppermost edge of the bag while you insert the contents.
4. Fold the mouth of the bag two or three times and fasten with a clip. It is desirable to fold the corners of the bag so as to secure as near as possible a hermetic closing. Ordinary pins will serve for clips, if the latter are not at hand.

It may occasionally happen that a bag may leak, in which event it is not necessary that the food should be emptied and transferred to another bag. Simply put the bag within another.

The meat should be placed on the grid that is contained in every oven, so that the hot air may circulate. When the meat is cooked the meat essences for the making of gravy will be found at the bottom of the bag, which is impervious to water or grease.

We have now secured a joint, the flavor of which will be improved beyond imagination—with a minimum of labor and cost, but not least, a freedom from grease or odor.

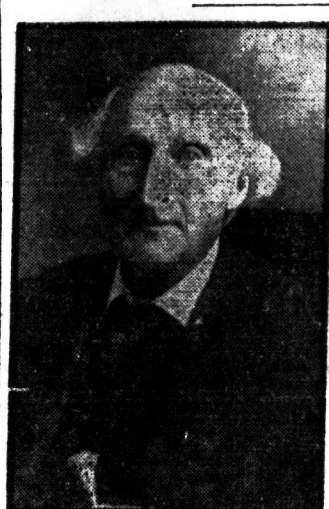

How many people are debarrd from the delights of fish owing to the strong odors that are always attached to the cooking? These fastidious people may have the bag brought straight from the oven to the table with an entire absence of smell.

The cooking of vegetables is more interesting, peas, for example, are moistened with water, sealed in a bag, and cooked in the oven.

Fish and Vegetables.

LONDON OLD BOY OF 102 YEARS COMES HOME FOR THE REUNION

MR. JOSEPH MANTLE.

The oldest London Old Boy, Joseph Mantle, of Peterboro, arrived in London Friday, and is now with his daughter, Mrs. Keith Colquhoun, of 9 Duke street.

The gentleman who holds this distinction is now 102 years old, and is still in excellent health. Mr. Mantle came from Peterboro unattended, and takes frequent trips about the country alone.

He usually visits London each summer, but this year was particularly anxious to attend the reunion. Mr. Mantle was born in England, and came to London 75 years ago. He conducted a shoe business here up until his removal from this city 20 years ago, and has since resided in Tilsonburg, Brantford and Peterboro. His most remarkable good health is considered phenomenal.

LONDON LADY TERRIBLY BURNED FELL DOWN STAIRS WITH A LAMP

Mrs. James Georgeson Met With a Probably Fatal Accident at Her Home Last Night—Suffered Very Serious Injury.

Mrs. James Georgeson, of 417 Ottawa avenue, a middle-aged woman, fell down stairs while carrying a kerosene lamp at her home last evening and as a result of serious burns and other injuries sustained, is now in a precarious condition at her home.

Mrs. Georgeson stumbled at the head of the stairway and fell to the floor at the bottom. The lamp was broken and burning oil spread over her body, burning her badly about the chest, face and arms. A twelve-year-old nephew, who was alone in the house with the lady at the time, succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Mrs. Georgeson was removed to Victoria Hospital this morning, and although she is suffering considerable pain, and cannot be moved much, it is not thought that her burns will prove as serious as was at first anticipated.

Mrs. Georgeson's husband is a well-known business man, and she is a devoted mother.

Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries and of Naval Affairs, to take the position of the supreme court bench, rendered vacant by the death of Justice Gauthier, will take place next week. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the present postmaster-general. Dr. Henri S. Bland, the Member for Beauce, will enter the cabinet as minister of marine and fisheries, and will be succeeded by Dr. Bland, the Member for Beauce.

JOYOUS SWAINS FINED FOR MALICIOUS DAMAGE

Strathroy Men Paid $2 Each for Tearing Down Decorations.

Norman Evans, George McCutcheon, William Ditchfield, Joseph Hale and Charles Bethel, five young men from Strathroy, who came to town yesterday to see the circus, each paid $2 in the police court this morning when they were found guilty of having torn down flags and decorations from the front of Richmond street stores and other places.

Among the flags torn down were Union Jacks, a Greek flag and small American flags.

P. C. McCullough, who arrested the quintette, told of being on duty on Richmond street at 3:30 this morning and of seeing the men carrying flags and talking loudly about the good time they were having.

When they saw him coming they slipped the flags under their coats. He took

THE ALLEGED FLAG INCIDENT IS NOW HAPPILY CLOSED

London Old Boys Are Sure of a Magnificent Welcome—
President and Secretary of Home Guard Sent Out
Reassuring Messages to Different Cities.

The alleged flag incident given so much prominence during the past two days in certain quarters is now happily settled. Yesterday Col. Harry R. Abbott, the president, and Mr. J. O. Weldon, the secretary of the Home Guard, received telegrams from Chicago and Detroit, and other places, asking for information regarding it.

Mr. J. O. Weldon, Secretary of London Old Boys' Association, sent the following wire: "What is there to the flag incident as given in press reports today. Our members are very indignant, and protest vigorously against taking down the flags of our adopted country. Please wire answer immediately." Mr. Weldon at once sent this reply: "Mr. Ched Egerton, Secretary London Old Boys' Committee: 'This will assure you that there is nothing in report re American flags. American flags are flying in profusion here. All American flags welcome as the Old Boys.'"

Col. Abbott received a similar message from Mr. George Moore, president of the Detroit Old Boys. They wanted information as to what had been done in London.

The colonel wired at once: "This will assure you there is nothing in report regarding American flags. They are waving here now. All American flags and Old Boys are alike welcome." These telegrams put an end to a lot of silly talk, and have reassured the visitors that the very best treatment will be accorded them when they arrive in London. There was a rumor that some of the excursions would be cancelled, but the telegrams have made it certain that the Old Boys will be home in large numbers.

"I answered the telegrams, and I think they will give the American Old Boys the assurance they need," said Mr. Weldon. "I deplore the publicity given London in this matter. It certainly did a lot of harm, and there was no foundation whatever for such sensational yarns. I think everything is now satisfactorily settled, and I sincerely hope we have heard the last of it. I have had hundreds of telephone messages condemning those who circulated such a story. In my opinion, there will be many times more American flags shown on account of this affair than there otherwise would have been."

All Well Now.
"Everything is straightened out now," said President Harry R. Abbott. "We will have no further trouble. I sent a telegram to the Detroit Boys, putting the matter straight with them. We should never have been placed in this position. The reunion is going to be a grand success, make no mistake."

The majority of the citizens are much put out at the undue publicity given the affair.

A Detroit Story.
The Detroit Free Press has the following story today:

TRAVELLERS OWN THE PORT BIG PICNIC BEING HELD TODAY

Knights of the Grip to the Number of 500 Paraded Streets With Two Bands Previous to Leaving for the Lakeside.

The Travellers own Port Stanley today. This is their annual picnic day, and thousands of the Knights of the Grip are entertaining their friends at the Port.

This morning they assembled at the Masonic Temple, and marched up King to Talbot, up Talbot to Queen's, down Queen's to Wellington, down Wellington to Dundas, and by way of Dundas and Richmond to the Grand Trunk station.

The Seventh Regiment Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Slater, headed the procession, and many of the officers of the Travellers' Association, President E. H. Harley, John M. Dutton, A. E. Ferte, and others, led the procession.

The Scottish Pipes, under Sergeant Macdonald, brought up the rear of the procession, and were given a great reception.

About 500 commercial men were in line, and they certainly made a fine appearance.

The feature of the programme at the Port was the ball game between Grips and Travellers. The sports programme is an excellent one.

ELDERLY MEN THROWN FROM A WAGON

John Newton and John Taylor Slightly Injured.

John Newton and John Taylor, two elderly gentlemen who reside near Springbank, escaped with slight injuries in an accident which might have had a much more serious ending at the Harrison Hotel on King street this morning.

As a wagon, which they were driving overturn in the hotel yard. Both were thrown heavily to the ground, one rear wheel passing over Mr. Newton's body, while Mr. Taylor suffered cuts about the head and chest, and sustained a severe injury to his shoulder.

They were attended by Dr. James T. Wilson, and were able to return to their homes unassisted.

POLICE WILL STOP THE TALCUM THROWING

Fair Warning Is Given People of London and All Visitors.

The police wish to give all citizens and incoming Old Boys and Grips the strictest warning that all persons going about the streets throwing talcum powder, or any other powder, or perfume in people's faces will at once be locked up and charged with being disorderly.

"The practice is a very dangerous and reprehensible one," said Chief Williams to The Advertiser this afternoon, "and the police have been given the strictest orders to at once arrest anyone they see doing it. Too many serious accidents have been caused in this way."

Another Warning.
The police also wish to warn everyone to guard their pockets closely and watch all the time for pickpockets. A number of the light-fingered gentry are almost certain to come with the crowds, and the detectives warn everyone that they cannot be too careful.

People are warned particularly against leaving valuables about the house, and going out to watch parties and leaving back doors and windows open.

MR. GRAY NOT NOTIFIED AND TROUBLE IS BREWING

Local Conservatives Will Meet Tonight to Name Candidate.

There is liable to be trouble in the Conservative party over the convention called for tonight.

It seems that Mr. William Gray is president of the association. He was not consulted about the meeting whatever, it is said, and did not know a convention had been called until he saw the announcement in the newspaper. As president of the association, he considered that he at least should have been consulted, and he immediately began to ask for reasons why he was overlooked.

So there will have to be some explanations tonight, and it is rumored that Mr. Gray will have something to say. His friends say that it is possible that he will go to the convention and make an effort to secure the nomination.

Three names are prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination—Major Beattie, William Gray, and A. H. Marshall Graydon.
