

EXPECT CATTLE EMBARGO BILL WILL TRIUMPH

Passage of Resolution in British Commons Paves Way For Autumn Victory.

DRURY PRAISES DOHERTY

LONDON, July 25.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—The passing of the embargo resolution last night in the House of Commons was nothing more than an expression of opinion favoring the introduction of legislation to repeal the act of 1896, which prevents the importation of store cattle from several countries besides Canada.

Any new act would have to state that Canada was especially exempted from these provisions unless the government decided to go the whole way and repeal the old act entirely.

Even if the government decides to proceed with a new act such an act cannot possibly be passed before the autumn session, probably early in December. The position, meanwhile, is exactly as before.

The Canadian Press learned tonight from an authoritative source that a bill will be introduced by the government at the autumn session.

The present bill program does not permit the introduction of any additional measures before adjournment on Aug. 4.

QUEEN'S PARK HAPPY. TORONTO, July 25.—The vote in the British House of Commons yesterday in favor of the removal of the Canadian cattle embargo has afforded immense satisfaction at Queen's Park.

No small amount of credit is ascribed to Hon. Manning Doherty, the Ontario minister of agriculture, who inaugurated an educational campaign in Britain which has proved effective so far.

In view of the favorable vote in the Commons on the resolution it is considered a certainty that the necessary legislation will be passed at the autumn session to wipe off the statute books the act of 1896, which put the embargo into effect.

The debate in the House of Lords recently is also said to be gratifying from a Canadian standpoint. "I regard the vote in favor of the lifting of the cattle embargo as the direct result of the campaign of education begun in England by Mr. Doherty in 1920, and carried on in 1921," declared Premier Drury tonight. "It is not the action of the British government nor the result of representations made to it through the usual official channels, but the expression of the people of Great Britain finding voice through their members of parliament. The course of the cattle embargo debate justifies the action taken by Mr. Doherty by bringing the matter not before British officialdom, but before the great British people. I am wonderfully pleased with the vote of the people's representatives."

People's Victory. Hon. Manning Doherty describes the vote in the Commons as "a great triumph for the British people over the manipulations of a very circumstance."

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious to the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain Mulford's coconut oil shampoo. It is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulford's at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulford's in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure you get Mulford's. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package—Advt.

Union Village, Vt.—"I was weak and nervous and all run-down. I could not walk across the floor without resting, and I had been that way for weeks. I saw an advertisement in the paper and after taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt the good it was doing me and I took seven more in all. Before I finished I was able to work nine hours a day in a steam laundry. I cannot say too much in favor of your medicine. I trust all sick and suffering women will take it. It has been two years since I took it and I am strong and well."—Mrs. L. A. GUIMANN, Union Village, Vermont.

Liner's Masts Hit Power Cables Near Montreal, Halting Industry

MONTREAL, July 25.—Industrial districts on the south shore of the St. Lawrence River, including such important centers as Asbestos, Theford Mines and Nicolet, have been deprived of power and light as a result of the masts of the Cunard Liner Tyrrenia bringing down four of the six big cables of the Shawinigan Water & Power Company which cross the St. Lawrence at Banlieu, about a mile and a half below Three Rivers.

No loss of life was reported, and the liner proceeded up the river to Bell Mouth, 25 miles below Montreal, where she anchored. The Tyrrenia was coming up the river to Montreal when, working her way up the channel, her masts brought down the first two cables of the series of six, passed under the next two in safety and brought down the remaining two. The cables snapped sharply and the ends fell, but escaped the liner.

Each cable carried 50,000 volts. The peculiar part about the accident is the fact that on her last trip up the river the Tyrrenia passed under the cables easily.

The Cunardier is commanded by Captain F. G. Brown, one of the best-known Atlantic skippers who at one time was master of the Caronia. The Tyrrenia is one of the largest ships coming to Montreal.

The statement of the provincial minister of agriculture was as follows:

"I rejoice with the Canadian people that the British House of Commons by a very substantial majority has shown itself to be in favor of lifting the embargo which has persisted for 30 years against Canadian cattle entering the markets of Great Britain except for immediate slaughter. This embargo was originally imposed on grounds which were never substantiated and has persisted down through the intervening years because of the fact that the great mass of British people were uninformed of the true facts. Of my own efforts I have only to say that I have simply done my duty as minister of agriculture of the great livestock province of Ontario. When I was in England in 1920, I found that this question had been completely side-tracked and in spite of the fact that we believed that a pledge had been given in 1917 for the lifting of the embargo, Canada was very little nearer to obtaining the desired result than she was twenty years ago."

Official Channels Ineffective. "Investigation drove me to the conclusion that the Canadian government, not only never could succeed in having the embargo lifted, but also that any pressure exercised by the federal government of Canada was of little effect. I concluded that the British people alone could bring sufficient pressure to cause the government of Great Britain to change its attitude. I discussed the matter fully with members of the British government and they confirmed my opinion. I then inaugurated a campaign of publicity throughout Great Britain, believing that if the British consumers fully and correctly understood this question that they would demand the removal of the embargo."

"The vote of the British House of Commons yesterday is a great triumph for the British people over the manipulations of a very circumstance. Now that it is apparently assured that the embargo will be lifted, my first thought is, not to expose those in authority in Canada who did everything they could to block me in my campaign, but rather to give credit to those in England who so materially assisted. We all owe a deep debt of gratitude to Lord Beaverbrook. When I had convinced him of the justice of our cause and after I had shown him that the removal of the embargo would increase imperial trade and strengthen imperial connections, he threw himself into the fight with all his power and with all his amazing resourcefulness."

"The livestock farmers of Canada certainly are in need of extended markets. Canadian agriculture as a whole will be much benefited by anything that brings increased prosperity to our livestock industry. I cannot deny experiencing the glow of satisfaction which comes to any red-blooded man when success comes to an effort of which he has been an active factor. The livestock industry of Great Britain will not suffer as a consequence, and I hope increased prosperity and stability comes to the Canadian livestock industry when the embargo is finally lifted."

PROMINENT WAR WORKER PASSES WHILE PRAYING

Mrs. Beckles Willson Dies During Service in London Church.

LONDON, England, July 25.—Mrs. Ethel Beckles Willson, an Ontario woman and wife of Lieut.-Col. Beckles Willson, died with tragic suddenness while at prayer at Mitchell Church yesterday morning. She was 50 years of age.

Mrs. Willson assisted during the war to found the famous Paris canteen, popularly termed "Corner of Blighty." Recently she was prominently connected with the Ypres League movement, and was about to accompany the Earl of Ypres to Ypres.

EXPECT EARLY RAIL DECISION

St. Thomas Circles Think Conciliation Board Will Have Brief Session.

Look For Compromise Between Michigan Central Employees and Company.

Special to London Advertiser. ST. THOMAS, July 25.—It is not expected that the conciliation board, which will commence sittings here next week to look into the justice of wage cuts in the railroad shops here, will take more than a day or so to make a finding, because the feeling is confident among those interested that a compromise will be reached between the Michigan Central and the men, within the next few days.

Many of the men believe that the railroads will be returned to government control in the United States, and claim that they should never have been placed in the hands of the owners after the war.

That the United States railways are making every effort to avert a tie-up of their industry by the striking shopmen is evidenced in the fact that Wabash train No. 3 passed through here about two hours late Tuesday afternoon, carrying three extra coaches of strike-breakers.

They are being rushed to western points where they will be asked to do the rough work, which does not require long experience.

The department of labor has granted the request of the Pere Marquette clerks for a conciliation board, following a recent wage cut, and the clerks have chosen Charles McLurg, a barrister of this city as their representative. It was announced Tuesday.

The company is expected to indicate its choice for the board in a few days.

WIDELY-KNOWN SARNIA LUMBER MERCHANT DIES

William Frederick Lawrence Succumbs To Heart Trouble in 71st Year.

Special to London Advertiser. SARNIA, July 25.—The death occurred at noon today of William Frederick Lawrence, aged 70 years and 4 months, following an illness of five months, heart trouble being the cause of death.

Mr. Lawrence was one of the best-known and most highly-respected citizens of Sarnia, having resided here for 30 years, during which time he had been prominently identified with the lumber business with the Lawrence Lumber Company, formerly Jacob Lawrence & Sons, and then W. F. Lawrence & Sons.

Born in Toronto, Mr. Lawrence came to Sarnia 30 years ago, and was widely known as a business man throughout Ontario and in lumber circles in many parts of the continent. He retired from active connection with the business in 1911, and his son, Edward Lawrence, is now the head of the concern.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Edward of Sarnia, and C. Wilbur of Toronto.

Mrs. Mary E. Bowen of Sarnia is a sister, also Mrs. William Ritchie of Saskatchewan, Mrs. C. Roehm of Algonquin, and Mrs. Edward Kelly of Winnipeg. The funeral, which will be private, will take place Thursday afternoon from the residence, 127 Christine street south, to Lakeview Cemetery.

FARMERS AT MITCHELL REPORT HEAVY HAY CROP

MITCHELL, July 25.—Haying in this district for this season has been finished and a number of farmers claim that they have taken off the heaviest crop of hay of all the years that they have been farming.

The fall wheat, which is a bumper crop, has nearly all been harvested, and the yield from some fields will be more than 35 bushels to the acre. Oats, which are very heavy, will not be ready to cut until another week and a half. Everything grown on the farm or in the garden this summer is excellent. In fact it is many years since there were crops as good as this season's.

Bandits Baffle Police in Coniston Hold-Up.

SUDBURY, July 25.—The police have absolutely no clue in connection with the daylight hold-up at Coniston, when bandits secured $3,600 of the Mond Nickel Company's payroll, while it was being taken from the Bank of Commerce to the plant.

The bandits were attired in overalls, and wore masks, but further than this the men in charge of the money were unable to state. The country is being fine-combed, but police have little to work on.

A dozen or more suspects have been picked up, examined and released. It looks like a clean getaway. Company and bank officials are, however, congratulating themselves on the fact that the robbers overlooked a package containing $25,000.

MAY VOTE TO FILL COUNCIL VACANCY

Brantford Citizens Mourn Death of Alderman John Robertson.

Special to London Advertiser. BRANTFORD, July 25.—Ald. John Robertson's death left a vacant seat in the city council and some conjecture has been made whether or not a by-election will be necessitated.

Mavor Parker stated, when asked regarding the subject, that it was not yet known if a by-election will be necessary. He expressed the hope that another election might be avoided on account of the expenditure involved.

"An election would cause a great deal of expense," he said, "and if it is at all possible we will not hold one. The city council has adjourned until September and it hardly seems plausible that an election would be necessary for a term of three months. On the other hand, an election might be necessary from a legal standpoint, but the city solicitor will look after this matter fully in the course of a few days."

"We are extremely sorry to lose Ald. Robertson from our council circles. He was a very capable representative of ward 5, and always had the interests of the municipality and his ward at heart."

PROTESTS BOMBING OF HOTTENTOTS IN AFRICA

Col. J. C. Wedgewood Draws Attention of British House to Attack on Natives.

LONDON, Eng., July 25.—(Canadian Press Cable).—In the House of Commons today Colonel J. C. Wedgewood (Labor) drew attention to the proceedings in the mandated area of southwest Africa, including the bombing of Hottentot villages containing women and children by an aeroplane dropping from a low altitude no fewer than forty bombs and spraying with 2,000 rounds of ammunition, a party of 500 Hottentots involving heavy loss of life.

Colonel Wedgewood asked whether the government proposed to take any steps to stop these proceedings. Right Hon. Winston Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies, replied that he was aware that the administration of southwest Africa found it necessary to take military action against one of the native tribes. He pointed out that the mandate for southwest Africa was held by the South African Union Government, who was responsible to the League of Nations.

BUS OPERATORS TO FACE CHARGES

Summoned To Court For Alleged Violation of Brantford Bylaw.

Special to London Advertiser. WOODSTOCK, July 25.—The police commission recently passed a bylaw governing the operation of the motor busses in competition with the street railway, and today the first step to enforce the law was taken when three charges were laid against operators of the busses for contravention of the bylaw question.

The bylaw was passed some time ago, following a request from the city council that the busses be called upon to pay a tax similar to that paid by the street railway in taxes in its franchise.

This amounts in all to $800 per year, so the police commission passed a bylaw requiring the busses to pay an equal amount without making any provision that it must be paid in installments covering the year.

MULES ENJOY PASTURE WHEN MINES ARE CLOSED

Brantford Alderman on Trip Sees 847 Animals in One Field.

Special to London Advertiser. BRANTFORD, July 25.—Ald. J. H. Minshall, who has just returned from a ten days' motor trip through Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania, states that his trip took him through some of the districts which are in the throes of the coal strike. From all appearances the strikes will not be settled for some time to come. He draws this conclusion from the fact that most of the mines are shut completely down and are making no attempt to operate.

"Some of the mines have closed their doors altogether," stated Ald. Minshall, "and I think the strike will be of long duration. I witnessed one great sight in the region of Wilkesbarre and Scranton, where the mines are shut down. I saw 847 mules, taken from the mines, in one field."
