Life and Character Reading JANUARY 18.

People born on this date should make a careful study of themselves, find their weakest points and then set diligently to work to strengthen or eliminate them. The chief lesson for an intelligent Capricorn person to learn is that there is something higher than the intellect, and that there are things which cannot be proved by mathematics or worked out by a syllogism.

Children born on this date must be reared very carefully, and not be allowed to associate with coarse or cross persons, as they are very apin picking up things they see about them. These kiddles are liable to be arrogant and haughty if not controlled. JANUARY 18.

The governing sign of this date is Capricorn, pictured on the Zodiac as the goat. The governing planet is Saturn, and the birthstone is a
