The Pacific coast is enjoying an unwonted degree of business prosperity, and in the northwestern states the movement of gen-eral merchandise is satisfactory. Wheat is lower, owing to larger stocks, small home demand, and practically no for-eign demand in connection with better weather. Corn is less affected, owing to a fair demand. Provisions are weak and lower, caused by a steady receipt of hogs at the west, and a general distrust of prevail-ing prices in the absence of any noticeable request. club who struggle for the championship to-day against the Shamrocks left last evening by the 7 o'clock train. They were seen off by a number of friends and, as usual, had a Pullman car to themselves. Much interest is taken in the match both in this city and in Montreal. At the latter place, a keen fight is expected, but in Toronto a victory by the visiting team would be considered rather a surprise. It need not be thought, how-eyer, that the twelve who have gone down are not worthy exponents of the game. They form in reality a very good team, undoubi-edly capable of improvement by the acquisi, tion of such men as the absentees, Ross Mc-Kenzie and Wasty Bonnell, but still they may fairly be depended upon to give a good account of themselves.
