speak thou also saying unto the Children and. Verily my Sabbaths ye shall keep for a sign between me and you throughout generations, that ye may know that I am nord that doth sanctify you.

The dealing with Sabbath observance gency, which was not to be infringed upon for the work of the tabernacle, he said it wrong to have excursions under the pleathe street cars take people to services as camp-meetings or religious gatherings and photograph establishments, continued the preacher, have hitherto quiet Sabbath.

Toronto. The arres have been closed; shops, erns and photograph establishments e been closed; boats have not been ning as on other days, newspapers are not need, street railways and cars have not been ning. It is proposed by some to change d, street railways and cars have not been ag. It is proposed by some to change as proposed that street cars should run on abbath and the question is—is this arry? The plea that is unged is that it is arry to take people to church. Is this uld? The Presbyterians have fifteen ass in the city of Toronto, besides a nummission churches. These are distributed the city of the city of the city of the city are convenient by one who wishes to attend the Presbythurch. The same plea was unged for mense work done by cabs on the Sabbut when an examination was made it bund that only five per cent. of the work as for earrying people to church, and if cars were running not more than five and to church, but would be traveling for ment or something worse. The besides no demand for street cars to a the Sabbath. Infidels and those who to make the Sabbath a day of recreation of it say they wish it in the interest of anymen, but they forget that it will unity mcrease the work of the workingmen day is a day of samesment. There must and horses to run them.

Crafts of New York said a short-time of cities in the United States asking sestion: Where in your travels have en the Sabbath best observed? The reagreet majority of cases was Toronto Edinburgh second and Madagascar. We rejoice in our Toronto Sabbaths, us remember that the price of our is eternal vigilance. The avaricious the pleasure-seeking class, the infidel and formal church members are all willing ive up our Sabbath of rest, but we the Church of God, made up of different inations, will adhere to God's come "Ye shall keep my Sabbaths and mee my sanctuary. I am the Lord."

WILD AND ANTI-POVERTY. Wild's church was crowded yesterday ing to hear his discourse upon the Antirty Society, a branch of which has lately established in Toronto. The doctor is his text Jeremiah, xxxiii:
Schold the days come, saith the Lord, will perform that good thing, which I mised unto the house of Israel and to go Judah.

eing and happiness.

Jails, churches, temperance, labor, benevoent, benefit, and anti-poverty societies—all aid the same object in view, and would be uccessful in proportion to their trust in the Divine Word and the degree in which they were guided by it. He instanced the Salvaion Army as a most successful anti-poverty ociety, as it was the means of reforming trunkards and criminals and by bringing salvaion to men made them happy; industrious and prosperous members of society.

If the Anti-Poverty Society did as much cod as the Salvation Army he would look upni as a success. If the Gospel were but obseented to the people in its frue light and once there would not be, he contended, nineenths of the societies which now exist.

nesented to the people in its frue light and orce there would not be, he contended, nine enths of the societies which now exist.

Having averred that Christianity pays the aborer one-fifth of his weekly wages, he doctor went on to say that he Society of Friends (or Quakers), were model people, and as sure as there was a sappy hereafter, the Quakers would have a sood chance of attaining it. In his young ays it would have been as hard to find a poor Juaker as a Tipperary Jew or Cork negro. Poverty, he held, was attributable to the sheer modelence, perversion and ugliness of men and women, and was not to be rectified by the perations of legislation.

God, nature and man were opposed to overty, and the three should be brought into tractical harmony if real benefit was to actual harmony
