Copy of a LETTER from B. Hawes, Esq., to Sir J. H. Pelly, Bart

No. 13.
B. Hawes, Esq., to
Sir J. H. Pelly,
Bart.
31 July 1848.

Sir,

Downing street, 31 July 1848.

I am directed by Earl Grey to inform you, that he sees no reason to object to the draft of the grant of Vancouver's Island to the Hudson's Bay Company, which was forwarded to this department with your letter of the 20th of this month, and he will be prepared to take the proper steps for the formal execution of the grant in these terms, so soon as the other arrangements required for the settlement of the island shall be finally agreed upon.

With this view it will, in the first place, be necessary to provide for the government of the colony, which the Company undertakes to found on the island, and to make provision also for the establishment of legislative authority among the colonists. It appears to his Lordship, as has been already explained to you in the interviews which have taken place on this subject, that, with reference to the probable circumstances of the future settlement, the best course which suggests itself is, to confer on the emigrants the same powers of local self-government which it was usual to grant to the settlers in new colonies in the earlier days of our colonial history. With this view, it is proposed that a Commission, as nearly as possible in the same form as those granted to the first Governors of Jamaica, should be issued to a Governor, who must be appointed by the Crown, though in the selection of the person to be recommended to Her Majesty for the office, Lord Grey would think it right to be guided in a great measure by the wishes of the Company. By such a Commission the Governor would be directed to summon an Assembly, elected by the general votes of the inhabitants, to exercise, in conjunction with himself and a Council nominated in the usual manner, the powers of legislation. Provision is already made for establishing a judicial authority under the "Act for establishing a Criminal and Civil Jurisdiction in certain parts of North America," 1 & 2 Geo. 4, c. 66.

Lord
