

APPENDIX V.

Sioux, of the meadows	} towards the heads of Mississippi	2500
Sioux, of the woods		1800
Missouri, on the river of that name	- - - - -	3000
* Grandes Eaux	- - - - -	1000
Cfages,	} south of Missouri	600
Canles,		1600
Panis blancs,		2000
Panis piques,		1700
Padoucas,	- - - - -	500
Ajoues, north of the same	- - - - -	1100
Arkansas, on the river that bears their name, falling into Mississippi on the west side	- - - - -	2000
Alibamous, a tribe of the Creeks	- - - - -	600
* Ouanakina	} Unknown, unless the author has put them for tribes of the Creeks	300
* Chiakanessou		350
* Machecous		800
* Caouitas		700
* Souikilas		200
Miamis, upon the river of that name, falling into Lake Erie	- - - - -	350
Delawares (les Loups) on the Ohio	- - - - -	600
Shawanese on Soto	- - - - -	500
Kickapoos	- - - - -	300
Ouachtenons	} on the Ouabache	400
Peanquichas		250
Kaskasquias, or Illinois in general, on the Illinois river	- - - - -	600
* Pianria	- - - - -	800
Catawbas, on the frontiers of North-Carolina	- - - - -	150
Cherokees, behind South-Carolina	- - - - -	2500
Chickasaws	} Mobile and Mississippi	750
Natchez		150
Chactaws		4500
		56,500

THE above list consists chiefly of such Indians as the French were connected with in Canada and Louisiana. Wherever we knew the names by which the different nations are distinguished by the English, we have inserted them. But the orthography is yet very unsettled, and the several nations marked with an * asterism are unknown to us, and therefore they are left as they stand in the original list.