Revivals.

The Great Revival.

A religious movement of great extent and extent has taken place and is progressing through the Eastern part of Nova Scotia, is evident to all observers. The whole county of Pictou is stirred as it was before, and the same is true of the portion of the Presbyterian population of Colchester, as well as of Cumberland and Hants. What commenced among the Protestants of Antigonish has also extended to the Protestant population and especially the Presbyterian congregations in the parts of that county. We publish what has been penned by persons who have been eye-witnesses and actors, in the solemn meetings that we refrain from publishing any comments from our own.

The Lord's Supper was dispensed a few weeks ago by Rev. P. Goodfellow in Antigonish aided by Rev. G. Walker. Eighteen adults were baptized, and a youth of 10 years of age, and 9 were added to the communion Roll. Others were to join at Cape George, which is another part of the congregation. We can readily believe our correspondent who testifies that it was a glorious time and a day to be remembered.

Similar manifestations of the power and presence of God are reported from many of the great cities of America, Great Britain, and the European Continent, which our limits forbid us to describe.

In Edinburgh, a Theological Student from Nova Scotia gives the following account of the continued progress of the work :

"There has been a grand work here this winter among the masses. This class was not even touched last winter; but the converts and workers of last winter have taken up mission work largely amongst the poor and the lapsed; and very many have been brought back to the paths of virtue and sobriety. When we look upon what the Lord is accomplishing by the humblest instrumentality, we are constrained to exclaim 'Is anything too hard for the Lord?'"

Our "Sabbath Free Breakfast" is still increasing in attendance. Last Sabbath morning there were 750 fed with Bread and tea and Gospel. There is also an afternoon meeting in the Drill Hall for those who wish to hear more about Jesus and His love. I don't remember of addressing a more attentive and apparently earnest congregation than we had last Sabbath. There is a wonderful change in the complexion of the audience since we first met them. The attendance is steadily increasing by 50 every week; and there is no lack of attendants. About 100 young men and women come there about 7½ a. m. to serve and sing.

The Work of Grace in Upper Stewiacke.

BY REV. EDWARD GRANT.

At your request I will endeavor to give you a brief statement of the wonderful work of grace now in progress within the bounds of my congregation. Trusting to Brother Smith, in whose congregation this movement commenced, to give you some account of its origin, I will confine myself exclusively to my own congregation.

It is now four weeks since we commenced
