

Total, 1985 pounds clothing. A parcel from Guelph enclosed in Kingston box for India.

Orangeville Presbyterian Society.—To Rossburn Reserve, Rev. Geo. Flett, 450 pounds, and later 100 pounds from Alton. Good second-hand. Total 550 pounds.

Hamilton Presbyterian Society.—To the Boarding School, Round and Crooked Lakes Reserves, Rev. Hugh McKay, 1,000 pounds second-hand and 620 new. Total 1,620. Also 1 box tea, 30 pounds. From Knox church, Central church, Erskine church, McNab Street church, and St. Paul's church Auxiliaries, Hamilton, and St. Catharines, Drummond Hill (Niagara Falls South), Burlington, Dunnville, Niagara, Kirkwall, Carluke, Dundas, Simcoe, Caledonia, West Flamboro, Thorold and Lynedoch Auxiliaries, and Willing Workers, Lend a Hand, and Knox church Mission Bands St. Catharines.

Paris Presbyterian Society.—To Muscowpetung and Pasquah Reserves, Rev. W. S. Moore, 1,140 pounds second-hand and 150 new clothing. The second-hand very good. Total 1,290. From Ayr Auxiliary, Stanley street Auxiliary, Ayr; First Presbyterian church Mission Band, Brantford, Embro, St. Andrew's, East Oxford, two splendid quilts; Knox church Ingersoll; Paris, Princeton, St. George Auxiliaries, and Chalmers' church Auxiliary and Mission Band and Knox church Auxiliary and Mission Band, Woodstock. Juvenile Mission Band, Woodstock, sent dolls in Kingston box to India.

London Presbyterian Society.—To Stony Plains Reserve, Mr. Magnus Anderson, care of Rev. D. G. McQueen, Edmonton, 1,750 pounds second-hand, 700 pounds new. Total 2,450. Excellent clothing. Every description of warm material. The Auxiliaries and Mission Bands contributing were: Park Avenue and St. Andrew's London; Knox church St. Thomas; Ailsa Craig, Kintore, Mosa, Vanneck, Glencoe, Aylmer, North Westminster, South Westminster, Hyde Park, Thamesford, Knox church London South, London East, Komoka, Dorchester, Crumlin, Belmont, Argyle (Crinan P.O.), Victoria Mission Band London, Knox church Mission Band St. Thomas, "King's Messengers" London.

Sarnia Presbyterian Society.—To Mistawasis Reserve, Rev. John McKay, care of Mr. A. C. Paterson, Qu'Appelle, 550 pounds good second-hand and 44 new. Total 594. From