

The Canadian Illustrated Shorthand Writer.

Advertising Rates.

Ten cents per line for first insertion.
Eight cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

Clubbing Rates.

Any person sending us a club of six names, with subscriptions for one year, will be entitled to a free copy of the WRITER.

CHICAGO

School of Phonography

DAN BROWN and MRS. F. A. HOLLAND, TEACHERS.

Seventeen years of practical experience in court and general reporting and correspondence enables us to give to our students practical instruction. Our class roll shows five hundred and seventy-five pupils in the past five years.

DAY AND EVENING CLASSES.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION, fitting students for any branch of the reporting profession in a short time.
Lessons given by mail to persons who cannot take class or private instruction.
Instruction given on the Type Writer.

CHICAGO

Bureau of Phonography

PROF. DAN. BROWN, SECY.

An employment bureau affording phonographers assistance in securing situations, and offering to business men desiring phonographic help a choice among practical phonographers.

CHICAGO AGENCY for Browne's Phonographic Monthly, Longley's Phonetic Educator, Graham's Students Journal and the Canadian Shorthand Writer.

THE PHONETIC JOURNAL, PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Devoted to the propagation of Phonetic Shorthand and Phonetic Reading, Writing, and Printing.

The Phonographic portions comprise Learner's, Corresponding and Reporting styles. It is the oldest Phonographic publication on the market, and should be in the hands of every student. Subscription price per annum—weekly, $1.56; fortnightly, $1.04; monthly, stitched in covers, $1.44. Remittances may be made by P. O. order, by a bill of exchange on London or Liverpool, or by paper money. Sums under half a dollar may be forwarded in the postage stamps of the respective countries. Address,

ISAAC PITMAN,
BATH, ENGLAND.

THE PRINTER'S MISCELLANY.

Devoted to Typography, Phonography and All Kindred Arts.

Only independent Typographic and Phonographic periodical in America. Has no connection with any College, Advertising Agency or Printer's Furnishing Warehouse.

Has a circulation of 2,000 copies monthly in Canada, United States, Great Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, New South Wales, Newfoundland, West India Islands, Africa and South America.

Subscription Rates, (post paid) Canada, United States and Newfoundland, $1.00; United Kingdom, 2s. sterling.

Advertising rates and any other information may be had on application to

HUGH FINLAY, St. John, N.B., Canada.

PHONOGRAPHIC STATIONERY.

Lead pencils, 10c. each, per dozen $1.
Blank Reporting Books (ruled with red lines) 10c. each, per dozen $1.
Blank Reporting Books (ruled with red lines and marginal lines) 15c. each, per dozen $1.50.
Blank Reporting Book (ruled with red lines, marginal lines and paper) per doz. $3.50.
Covers for Reporting Book 25c.

We shall be pleased to forward any book or periodical desired by friends at publishers' lowest prices.

BENGOUGH BROS.,
TORONTO.

FOR SALE.—First four volumes of the PHONETIC MAGAZINE at half price, first volume soiled.—D. F. HAMON, Auburn, N. Y.

Every Shorthand Reporter

PRICES

No. 1	$70
" 2	100
" 4	80

should have

A TYPE WRITER.

Write to RICHMOND, BACKUS & Co., 183 Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Agents for Michigan.

BROWNE'S PHONOGRAPHIC MONTHLY AND REPORTERS' JOURNAL

An American illustrated magazine devoted to Phonography, Phonotypy and the interest of Phonographers and Newspaper Reporters.

Originated the idea of giving fac-simile reporting notes, which has become very popular. Organ of the profession, contributed to by Eminent Reporters and Literary Men; gives engraved portraits, fac-simile reporting notes and biographical sketches of distinguished phonographers of England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, and America. Notes the movements of the profession, and the latest phonographic news to date; price list of all shorthand books and material.

Price in Europe 7s. a year, postpaid, including grand Holiday Number in December, for which 4s. 2d. is charged where this number is purchased separately. Price in America $2 per year, single copies free for 20cts. in stamps. (Except holiday edition.)
Address: the Title, 737 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

THE SHORTHAND REVIEW

Published at Cleveland, Ohio, in lithographic and printed portions, now in its fourth volume, has all the prominent features of a first-class shorthand journal, and is replete with matters of interest and instruction to all writers of shorthand, irrespective of system.
Subscription price, $1 per year. Address,

SHORTHAND REVIEW,
Wolfe & Fracker, Publishers, P. O. Box 175, Cleveland, O.

OPINIONS OF SHORTHAND WRITERS.

I have taken a great fancy to it.—Wm. Holly, Chester-Field, Eng.

I am delighted with it.—Wm. Milligan, White Rock, Ill.

I am very much pleased with it.—Herbert Burrows, Napalet.

It has more than met my expectations.—T. S. Godfrey, Hamilton.

I will do what I can for the WRITER.—R. Finley, Montreal.

It has an exceedingly neat appearance.—S. C. Rodgers, Troy, N. Y.

I trust it will meet with all the success it merits.—Jos. Pops, Ottawa.

Like it first rate.—H. A. Aumont, Phonographic College, Sterling, Ill.

It surpasses foreign material.—S. W. M. Truro, N. S.