

COURSE OF STUDY.

C. S. KEITH, VICE-CHANCELLOR.

All persons wishing to take the Good Templars' Course of Study will write to the Chancellor, inclosing a money order, draft or check for $5.50 or $3.50 as you want cloth bound or paper books, with a registration blank signed, and you will receive books free from expense and be enrolled as a regular student. Registration blanks will be furnished by the Chancellor at any time on application to S. B. Chase, Chancellor, Easton, Pa., U. S. A.

The following is the list of books to be read by all classes this year :

- Alcohol in Science*, by Wm. Hargreaves, M. D.
- The Captain's Bargain*, by Mrs. J. McNair Wright.
- Our Wasted Resources, and Worse Than Wanted*, by Wm. Hargreaves.
- Temperance Physiology*, by John Guthrie, M. D.
- Talks on Temperance*, by Canon Farrer, D. D.
- Readings and Recitations, No. 8*, by Miss L. Penny.
- International Good Templar Monthly*, for 1894.

Price of the above books, bound in cloth, including registration fee, $5.50; in paper covers, $3.50.

Circulars and application blanks sent on request.

COURSE OF STUDY.

DEAR READER:—On behalf of the educational department of our Order, I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Our students seem to be getting along in fine style, and are now writing their examination papers.

We should like to form a new class for 1894. Who will join?

Yours for improvement,
C. S. KEITH,
Vice-Chanc'r.
