PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.OPENING OF THE SESSION.

On Thursday, January 25, at 2 o'clock, His Excellency the Lieut. Governor came down to the Council Chamber, attended by his suite, to open the Legislative Session. He was received at the entrance to the Province Building by a guard of honor of the 65 regt., and on the stairs and the avenue leading to the Council Chamber, by Capt. Pryor's effective dress company of Militia. Some interest was excited in consequence of the recent changes in the Councils of the Colony, and a number of persons congregated in the Council Chamber. Many members of the Executive Councils, were present; and a privileged few with a number of ladies, were admitted to the space proscribed to the crowd. The Legislative Council were called to order previous to the arrival of His Excellency, by their President, the Honble. S. B. Robie, and took their seats around the Board. On His Excellency's entrance the new Honble. Body rose to receive him, and soon after the Assembly, with their Speaker and Clerk at their head in Legislative costume, came into the Council Chamber, when His Excellency delivered the following

SPEECH.

*Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council,
Mr Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,*

My first duty, and a painful one I find it, is to condole with you on the loss which, since our last meeting, we have sustained, by the demise of his late most gracious Majesty William the 4th, of blessed memory, whose paternal attachment to this Province, which he visited at an early period of his life, will be remembered with gratitude and respect.

The Throne of the British Empire is now filled by his august niece Queen Victoria, the daughter of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, who for many years resided amongst you, when Commander-in-chief in British America. Her Majesty's accession has been hailed, in every part of her extensive dominions, with the most enthusiastic loyalty: her youth and sex claim from her subjects their dutiful affection and support.

It is with deep regret I have to notice the late unfortunate events in the Canadas; but I have the satisfaction of informing you that the insurrection has been put down in Lower Canada and that the traitorous attempt made to separate the Upper Province from British rule, has been signally defeated by the gallant conduct of its Militia alone; it is true that a small and desperate band still retain possession of Navy Island; but the is every reason to believe, as measures have been adopted at the recommendation of the President of the United States for the enforcement of the neutrality on the frontier, that these deluded men, deprived of all foreign assistance, will be speedily dispersed.

These Rebellious proceedings have called forth in this Province the strongest expressions of indignation and abhorrence, and the addresses from various quarters which have been presented to me, declare the unshaken attachment of the inhabitants of Nova Scotia to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

I have great pleasure in congratulating you upon the abundant harvest with which it has pleased Divine Providence to reward the labours of the husbandman, and which has diffused the blessing of plenty throughout the Country.

Mr Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

The Provisional Establishment of two Distinct Councils which has recently taken place, and the dispatches which I am instructed to lay before you, afford ample evidence of the gracious attention that has been paid to the representations which you addressed to the Throne in the last session.

I earnestly hope that this important alteration of the ancient constitution of the Province, will be attended with all the advantages which when you advised the measure, you expected it would be accompanied.

I have directed the Public accounts to be laid before you, and I trust you will find that the supplies granted to her Majesty in the last Session have been faithfully expended. The usual estimates of the Civil Establishment for the present year will be submitted to you, and I have no doubt of your providing for the support of Her Majesty's Government, and for all other necessary services, with your usual liberality.

*Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council,
Mr Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,*

I have great satisfaction in acquainting you that the Revenue last year has increased considerably; the receipts have been more than sufficient to meet all the demands on the Treasury.

I feel it my duty again to recommend an economical application of our means, by keeping our expenditure within our income.

I most earnestly desire to draw your particular attention to the inefficient state of the Militia; it is not at present what I wish to see it; there is all the good feeling and loyalty I could desire. As it is the Constitutional defence and security of the Province, I am persuaded you will see the necessity of amending the Law now in existence; and the discipline of twenty-five thousand young and willing Sons of your own families ought not to be neglected by Government and the Legislature.

It is the earnest desire and recommendation of Her Majesty's Government that you will enter upon the discharge of our Public Duties, with that spirit of harmony in your proceedings, for which the Legislature of this Province has so long been conspicuous, and which has proved so conducive to the best interests of the Country.

My anxious wish is to see peace, content, and prosperity prevail throughout the Province; and you may rely upon my cordial co-operation, in every measure which can tend to secure and increase these blessings.

FRIDAY, 26.

Answer to the Address.

The House met at two o'clock to day; a draft of an Address in answer to His Excellency's Speech was reported by the hon. Mr Huntington, and passed without any discussion, a few verbal alterations only having been adopted.

To His Excellency Major-General Sir COLIN CAMPBELL, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency—

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects—the Representatives of her Majesty's loyal people of Nova Scotia, thank Your Excellency for the speech with which you have been pleased to open the present Session; and condole with Your Excellency on the demise of our late Gracious Sovereign, William the Fourth, whose blessed memory is endeared to
