"Willie, did the grocer tell you these eggs were fresh?"
"He didn't say so, mummy, but he told me to hurry home with them."

THE "At Home" given by Mrs. J. A. Harte, on January 13, in honor of her niece, Miss Craig, of Thortaby, England, and Miss Perrin, of London, Ont., was a decided success. The hostess was ably assisted in receiving her guests by her daughter, Miss Harte, and Mrs. Charlie Iles, while the Misses Ross, Edgar, Pelton, Cowen, McBain and Iles, and Messrs. Austin, Boyd, Ives, Barry, Iles, McGill, Clay, Howard and Dr. J. Munroe saw that they were well taken care of in the diningroom, which was beautifully decorated with red and white—knots of McGill ribbon being worn by the young ladies of the house. During the evening dancing was enjoyed by the young people who had so ably assisted their hostess during the afternoon.

Some men get on in life by working,
And some by laying plans,
And each would like to drop his calling
And take some other man's.

"The average life of an engine only 30 years?" said an astonished passenger. "Such a tough-looking thing ought to live longer than that."
"Well," said the driver, "perhaps it would if it didn't smoke so much."

The work of removing the bodies of the kings, which for years have lain beneath St. George's chapel, at Windsor Castle, has been begun, in order to make room for Queen Victoria and her descendants.

ETHEL.—What is the difference between a necktie which a girl very much fancies, and her young man?
ERNEST.—One is her ideal bow and the other is her beau ideal.
