The Depositary's cash account for April was submitted, and other routine business transacted and the meeting closed with prayer, led by Rev. H. D. Powis.

The Board met again on Tuesday, June 17th, at the regular hour. The Hon. G. W. Allan in the chair. A letter was read from the Bishop of Huron, accepting the office of Vice-President, and one from E. Leadley, Esq., declining his appointment as director. John Harper, Esq., was appointed in the place of Mr. Leadley. A report was submitted from the Agency and Colportage Committee, recommending plan of operations for the year, and asking authority to erect a permanent stand for the Society in the Exhibition Grounds, at a cost not exceeding $600. The report was adopted. The Depositary's cash account was submitted, and the permanent Secretary reported donations of $50 each, from D. W. Doan, Esq., and C. H. Doan, Esq., of Aurora, who were elected life members of the Society. Several grants of Bibles were voted, some routine business transacted, and the Board adjourned to the 3rd Tuesday of September.

A special meeting of the Board was called for Friday, July 18th, 7.30 p.m., for the purpose of re-considering the amount voted to erect a Kiosk on the Exhibition Grounds. The Rev. Dr. Reid was called to the chair, and the meeting opened with prayer, led by Rev. John Burton. The Rev. J. M. Cameron, Secretary, laid before the Board two plans for a Kiosk on the Exhibition Grounds, estimated to cost $622 and $1,011 respectively. After the Board had inspected and discussed the plans, it was moved by Mr. T. J. Mason, seconded by Rev. H. M. Parsons and resolved, "That in view of the permanent character of the building to be erected, and its probable usefulness at a large number of gatherings during the season, the Committee be instructed to proceed with the erection of the larger Kiosk, the plan of which has been submitted, the cost not to exceed $1,000, and the amount to be entirely raised by private subscription." The meeting was then closed.

The Board met again on Tuesday, September 16th, Herbert Mortimer, Esq., in the chair. The meeting was opened by Rev. Hugh Johnston reading a portion of Scripture, and the Rev. T. W. Jolliffe leading in prayer. The minutes of the regular meeting in June, and also of the special meeting in July were read and confirmed. The Secretaries announced to the Board, the sad news received of the sudden death by accident of the Rev. Charles E. B. Reed, one of the Secretaries of the Parent Society, and submitted the letter addressed to his colleagues on the occasion, which was approved. The Secre-
