PUBLISHED BY

DAWSON BROTHERS, MONTREAL.

TESTIMONIALS FROM LEADING PROFESSORS AND LITERARY MEN.

From the Rev. CHAS. ROUX, M.A., Principal of the Grande Ligne Institute, formerly Professor of the French language at Bishop's College, Lennoxville, P.Q.

GRANDE LIGNE MISSION, Sept. 16th, 1879.

MY DEAR MR. DUVAL,

I have had occasion to use your "French Series," and have been much pleased with it. Your Elementary French Grammar, compared with Fasquelle's Juvenile Course, which it is intended to supersede, is, in respect of completeness, very superior to it; but your Lectures Choiesies are certainly the best of the lot.

From Prof. P. J. DAREY, Professor of French at McGill University, B. A., of the University of France, M.A., B.C.L.

MONTREAL, September 20th, 1879.

For an Elementary French Course, I think the Series of Mr. Duval well calculated for the purpose. It is small, yet comprehensive, well printed, and deserves to be considered favourably by educators.

From Prof. LOUIS POLLENS, professor of French at Dartmouth College.

HANOVER, N. H., September 22nd, 1879.

DEAR SIR,

Your books are certainly wonderfully cheap; they seem to me also very clear and practical, altogether unusually well adapted to the object you had in view in preparing them. In this land of high prices and numerous and expensive text books, we have, I think, nothing like them. I hope your new editions will meet even a better reception than former ones from the public.

From Mr. J. CORNU, formerly teacher at Pointe aux Trembles, and afterwards French Master at the High School of Montreal.

MONTREAL, 21 Septembre, 1879.

J'ai examiné la Grammaire du Prof. N. Duval, ainsi que son Cours de Lectures Choiesies, je penso que ces deux livres répondent bien au but de l'auteur, et qu'il peuvent être employés avec succès dans les écoles pour l'enseignement du français.

From Mr. J. R. LAMOUREUX, Professor of French, for many years, in this country and in the United States, and corre-pondent of the French Protestant paper L'Aurore.

MONTREAL, 24th September, 1879.

Such methods for learning the French language as those of Prof. Duval, aiming at clearness, perspicuity and brevity, are much needed in our schools, and should be everywhere recommended and encouraged.

Mr. L. E. RIVARD, for many years the editor and proprietor of L'Aurore, and now editor of the French department of the Daily Witness, concurs in the preceding testimonial.
