

Lecturer who is to preside, and shall be upon the subject of his lectures then in progress, and two students on each side of the case will be appointed by him to argue it, of which notice will be given at least one week before the argument. The decision of the Chairman will be pronounced at the next Moot Court, if not given at the close of the argument.

At each lecture and Moot Court the roll will be called and the attendance of students noted, of which a record will be faithfully kept.

At the close of each term the Principal will certify to the Legal Education Committee the names of those students who appear by the record to have duly attended the lectures of that term. No student will be certified as having duly attended the lectures unless he has attended at least five-sixths of the aggregate number of lectures, and at least four-fifths of the number of lectures of each series during the term, and pertaining to his year. If any student who has failed to attend the required number of lectures satisfies the Principal that such failure has been due to illness or other good cause, the Principal will make a special report upon the matter to the Legal Education Committee. For the purpose of this provision the word "lectures" shall be taken to include Moot Courts.

Examinations will be held immediately after the close of the term upon the subjects and text books embraced in the Curriculum for that term.

The percentage of marks which must be obtained in order to pass any of such examinations is 55 per cent. of the aggregate number of marks obtainable, and 29 per cent. of the marks obtainable on each paper.

Examinations will also take place in the week commencing with the first Monday in September for students who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who having presented themselves thereat, failed in whole or in part.

Students whose attendance at lectures has been allowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the May examinations, may present themselves at the September examinations at their own option, either in all the subjects, or in those subjects only in which they failed to obtain 55 per cent. of the marks obtainable in such subjects. Students desiring to present themselves at the September examinations must give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Law Society, at least two weeks prior to the time fixed for such examinations, of their intention to present themselves, stating whether they intend to present themselves in all the subjects, or in those only in which they failed to obtain 55 per cent. of the marks obtainable, mentioning the names of such subjects.

Students are required to complete the course and pass the examination in the first term in which they are required to attend before being permitted to enter upon the course of the next term.
