ТНЕ ALDINE.

THE JOURNAL OF AMERICA. Issued Monthly.

"A Magnificent Conception-Wonderfully Carried out."

The necessity for a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our greatartists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of higher art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public atonce rallied with enthusnasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity bas none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rajest specimens of artistic skiil, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior the pness, ascompared with rivals of a similar class. THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or charge ter. The passessor of a complete volume can not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for irn times its cost of all the chromo besides!

Elenational feature of THE ALDINE in ust be to enin no duplicate in the chromo former and the control of the chromo besides!

In the time is east, attention, there is the carromo besides.

Ethe national feature of The Aldine must be to en in no durrow sense. True art is cosmopolita. While The Aldine is a strictly American in titution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate only on the grunds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the patrons of The Aldine as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to speciments from toreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtains able from home or foerign sources.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in all colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much will be welcome in every home. Everhody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the verifable presence of the animal itself. The Rev T, De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it. Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to the ALDINE for 1876 is constituted a member and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all The Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,600 sub-cribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500, are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each eerles as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE ALDINE This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.
