Professor J. D. Dana, a learned and widely known geologist of Yale College, says of the first chapter of Genesis:— "Examining it as a geologist, I find it to be in perfect accord with science, therefore, as a christian, I assert that the Bible narrative must be inspired."

It is impossible for that man to despair who remembers that his Helper is omnip-

The

Life of the Rev. John Geddie, D.D.,

First Missionary to the New Hebrides.
WITH A HISTORY OF THE NOVA SCOTIA PRESBY-TERIAN MISSION OF THAT GROUP.

BY THE REV. GEORGE PATTERSON, D. D.

This work carefully traces the origin and early history of this Mission—the first from a British colony to a heathen land. It presents a large amount of Dr.
Geddie's correspondence and journals, much of which has never before been published, giving many details of his early trials, and hairbreadth escapes, as well as of the work of God on Aneiteum and other islands. It also contains much information regarding the South Sea Islands, their physical structure and productions, the condition of their inhabitants, their customs, mode of life, etc. It has notice-es of the other missionaries, who have laboured on the group, bringing up the history of the Mission to the present time.

It is illustrated by a finely executed portrait, maps of the New Hebrides and Aneiteum, and woodcuts representing the natives, etc.

The work contains 512 pages, is well bound in cloth, and sold at $1.50 per copy.

Agents wanted for the sale of the work to whom a liberal discount will be given.

General agents, D. McGregor, Halifax, and James McLean, Pictou.

HARRY MOORES CHOICE with other missionary stories, is published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication. It is a series of interesting stories with the following titles "Harry Moores choice", "Fred's trip to China", "The Story of Mohammed", and the following missionary stories: "The Brown Jug", "Alex's Mission Fields", "Little Joes Christmas Eve", "What the Jolly Fellows did for cairo".

The narratives are pleasing and instructive. The whole a neat handsome volume of 380 pages. It is sold by McGregor & Knight, Agents in Halifax for the Presbyterian Board, price $1.25.

Church strifes are never bred by the humility and consecration and spirituality of the members. Matthew Henry was right when he said, "If we thoroughly examine we shall find that pride, poly-cy and power are the three principal ingredients in all the disturbances of churches."
