this act, have caused the intoxication of such person, for all damages actually sustained, as well as exemplary damages; and a married woman shall have the same right to bring suits, prosecute and control the same, and the amount recovered, the same as if being law to the prosecution of any other business, we sold, and all damages recovered by a minor, under lieve that it would cease, we do not see how the this act, shall be paid, either to such minor, or to his selling liquor thus contraband can be openly can or her parent, or guardian, or next friend, as the Court shall direct, and all suits for damages under this act shall be by a civil action, in any of the courts of this State, have jurisdiction thereof.'

Besides these personal hazards, the keeper of a Coffee-house will find it difficult to retain possession of the building used as such.

Linbelities of Landlords, Guardians, &c, owning buildings rented as Drinking Hous. s. - The provisions of the tenth section of the law will certainly claim the · immediate consideration of rentors of the houses ocsupled as tippling shops, particularly of those acting as guardians of minors, instine persons, or idiots, whose the mill rise like a mountain, wearing a tubal premises are liable and may be sold for fines or costs of clouds. At the door stood a sharp featured, bare-it their tenants. They are as follows: "In case any ed old man, with a scythe hung over his shoulder, person or persons shall rent or lease any building or an hour glass in his hand. The machinery premises, and knowingly suffer the same to be used maminoth establishment was propelled by an ind trary to this act, such building and premises so leased I neked a distribution of a calif and occupied saall be held liable for and may be sold which he was so busily employed. to pay all fines and costs assessed against the person occupying such building or premises, for any violation! of this act; and in case such building or premises flock of sheepbelong to any minor, insane person or idiat, the guardian or guardians of such minor or minors, or insane person or idios, who has control of such building or premises, shall be liable for and account to such ward or wards, insone person or idiot, for all citement; to gratify it I ventured into the bull damages, in consequence of the use and occupation of such building and premises, and liabilities of such fines and costs, as aforesaid."

What cribunals have jurisdiction?-Justice of the neace and Mayors of cities and villages are the tribunais before whom complaints are to be entered and ery sad variety of iniquity was represented most The penalties collected fully in the mammoth mill. oriminal prosecutions had. are to be paid over to the city, village or township, Treasurer for the support of Common Schools, which seized a poor creature who was trambling with no doubt will and materially in the popular inclination palsy. He cried out "moderation, moderation," to visit with condign punishment every violater of the they flung him head and heels into the hopper law.

who may make a written complaint before a Magis- his hat. These stalworth follows then took be trate or the Mayor, making oath that the person com- poor man who was loaded with the gout; the plained of is a keeper of a room or tavern where in rolled down his cheeks, while he cried out "pa toxicating liquors are sold, in violation of law, or to tion, persecution;" but they thrust him into the minors, or to a person intoxicated or in the habit of per head downwards, and his boots soon dispersion being intoxicated, on such a complaint warrants are I looked in, heard him cry out "shun," but com issued.

To provent escape by technicalities the thirteenth section provides, that "(a all prosecutions under this act, by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold, or to describe the place where sold, and for any violation of the fourth I resolved to see what became of him, but bit to the light section, it shall not be necessary to state the name of reached the hopper he was gone. I heard him any person to whom sold; and in all cases, the person several times in succession, "spec-spec-specor persons to whom intoxicating liquors shall be sold, in violation of this act, shall be competent, as witnesses, A giant of a follow, with a first like a leg of a to prove such fact, or any other tending thereto." was shouting violently, "opposition, opposite And the ninth provider, That the giving away of in These indefatigable millers caught him, but he toxicating liquors, or other shift or device to crade provisions of this act, shall be deemed and held to an unlawful selling within the provisions of this

With those civil and criminal disabilities attached on hereafter. Nous verrons .- National Tempor Organ.

Temperance Mills.

BY Q. W. BUNGAY.

I sat down on a moss-cushioned bank. Before was a calm lake shining in the sun like a mandi ten silver. The lovely landscape was ornamented neautiful wild flowers, and the balmy atmont freighted with delicious melody. travel-worn I soon fell into the embrace of Mont

In my dream I saw the lake swell into a set. clouds. At the door stood a sharp featured, bare-

"Read the sign," said he.

I looked up, and I saw, in large letters, large

"TEMPERANCE MILLS.

" Bring in your grist," said be.

My curiosity was raised to the highest pitch of Judge of my surprise, when I saw a crewd of mi nate creatures who looked as though they had be out of Jails, hospitals and mad-houses. I looked the wretched beings as delegates from the record of vice and crime, and came to the conclusion the

A few moments after my arrival, a pair of start looked over the edge and heard him cry hi Complaint in Criminal Proceedings .- Any person "mod-" but could see nothing except the cost see a few buttons that had been torn off during