

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
Psalm li. 7.

ASLEEP IN CHRIST.

DEATH has once again made a break in our rank of workers. Our brother and fellow worker, W. N. McFarlane, died on Thursday last, after a brief illness. Bro. McFarlane was for several years Chairman of our "Bible and Tract Committee," and one of our most earnest and faithful workers. For the past two years he has been attending college, preparing for the ministry, but amid his cares as a student he always found time to help in our work whenever called upon. His funeral took place on Saturday, at 2 p.m., from Knox College, and was attended by many of the Workers. To know Bro. McFarlane was to love him. He was a genial, whole-souled Christian.

Only a few days have elapsed since he was assigned to labour for the coming summer on his field of last season, Baysville, Muskoka. But as he remarked to us a few hours before his death, "God knows best. Man may propose, but He disposes." Our brother was conscious to the last, and he passed away in triumph. Truly may we desire to "die the death of the righteous."

IMPROVEMENTS.

THE Board has at last taken up the work of renovating and improving the Building. Thus far the improvements are being confined to the Parlor. A new carpet has been laid and the furniture renewed. No more pleasant room than this parlor is to be found in the City, and all that was required to make it the most attractive is now being attended to.
