

Sunny Surroundings

FACING the broad Thames Embankment—a situation unique in London—the Cecil Restaurant makes special claims upon the man who would dine or lunch amid sunny surroundings. Commanding wide vistas of open space and interesting river traffic, with the main entrance giving off on to the Strand, London's principal thoroughfare, the Hotel Cecil constitutes the ideal resort of the busy City man or the visitor with ample time on his hands.

Private receptions for Dinner Parties in separate Reception Rooms with beautiful "Rose du Barri" Lounges. Restful seclusion—unobstrusive orchestral.

The Palatial Palm Court

THE chosen of London's most discerning, most artistic bons-vivants. Lofty—spacious—luxurious—imposing without being sombre. Decorated Louis Quatorze style—all the atmosphere of the best Parisian Cafés, leavened by a sense of insular seclusion. Orchestra throughout the day. Light refreshments at any time. Theatre suppers.

Ask at the Canadian Magazine Travel Bureau, Toronto, Canada, for a copy of the Hotel Cecil Booklet. This shows, by text and illustration, some of the luxuries of the Hotel's interior, its imposing exterior, the cost of a stay, brief or extended, and contains a variety of general information that will be found very useful to the intending visitor to London.
