PARNELL'S SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST THE CROWN OFFICIALS—HIS MOTION FOR AN INVESTIGATION NEGATIVED WITHOUT DIVISION-THE NEW IRISH LAND PUR-CHASE BILL.

LONDON, July 17.—Mr. Parnell moved this LONDON, July 17.—Mr. Parnell moved this ernoon in the House of Commons that the ernoon order a special enquiry into the Go amtrasna murder, making a long speech in Maport. He dwelt on the maladministration of the criminal law in Ireland under Earl of the criminal law in Ireland under Earl or wherehy innocent persons had been of the criminal law in Ireland under Earl fpencer, whereby innocent persons had been n some cases condemned and executed, and is other cases had been sentenced, either to long or life-long terms of penal servitude, He moved, therefore, that in the opinion of the House it was the duty of the Government to institute a strict enquire interest. of the House it was the duty of the Government to institute a strict enquiry into the evidence and sentences in the Maantrasna, the Barbaville, the Crossmaglen, and Castle Island murder cases. Had the Irish executive, said Mr. Parnell, imitated the custom of the English Home Office in cases where the other of prisoners is doubtful by ordering of the English Home Office in cases where the guilt of prisoners is doubtful, by ordering enquiries on the spot in the cases mentioned, the prisoners who were still living under sentences of unjust convictions would long ago have been released from custody. Mr. George Bolton, crown solicitor of Dublin, refused to accept a plea of guilty from Michael Casey, and insisted on forcing four or five innocent men to plead guilty. Speaking of this case, as clearly as I can, Mr. Parnell said, I believe that if ever a murderer deserved to be placed on trial and sentenced to death, that man was Bolton. if ever a murderer deserved to be placed on trial and sentenced to death, that man was Bolton. Irish members of Parliament were never al-lowed to obtain dying declarations of innocent men executed by the Spencer Government, but they had become aware of the nature of many of these declarations without incurring any obliof these declarations without industring any obligations to that Government. He then proceed ed to analyze at length the evidence in the Myles Joyce case, with a view to proving that a this instance the case of the crown collided with facts in possession of Irish members of

Mr. Joseph Corbett (Homo Ruler) seconded the motion, and said he hoped the Government would take a lesson from their predecessors, whom the Parnellite vote deprived of office. Sir Michael Hicks-Beech said the present Government had nothing to say concerning the merits of the case and nothing to say in defence of the late Government. He was, however, au. thorized by the present Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland to state that the present Irish executive land to state that the presental requiry into the will make a careful personal enquiry into the subject submitted by Mr. Parnell for investigation, but he must add that the Government felt themselves compelled to ask the House to resist themselves compelled to ask the House to resist themselves compelled to ask the House to resist the subject was derogatory of Mr. Parnell's motion, which was derogatory of Earl Spencer, a member of the late Govern-

Mr. Parnell's motion was negatived without division. Both Conservative and Parnellites had issued urgent whips for the debate, in expectation of a division.

Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Charles Dilke withdrew during the debate on Parnell's motion. The Parnellites have communicated with the Government on the subject of the Munster Bank. They appear satisfied with the Land

In the House of Lords this evening Lord Ashborne presented the Irish Land Purchase Bill. He explained that, owing to the limited time at its disposal, the Government directed its analysis to producing a short workable non-contime at its disposal, the Government directed its energies to producing a short workable non-con-tentious measure. The bill provides for an ad-vance of three-fourths the purchase money at 4 per cent interest for 19 years. Where needed the whole money will be advanced on conditions, which while justand generous, will not expose the Government to risk of loss. It is proposed in such cases to retain a deposit of one-fifth of the purchase money at moderate interest until the tenant has repaid by instalments an equal sum; also to utilize the Irish Church surplus to guarantee the state from ultimate loss, but only after the forfeiture of the one-fifth retained. The act is to be administered by the existing Land Commission, which will be reinforced by two commissioners for three years at a salary of $\frac{1}{2},000 a year. The Government thought it too late in the session to appoint an entirely new commission. It is also proposed to create a cheap and simple form for the conveyance of the ever loved. whole money will be advanced on conditions, cheap and simple form for the conveyance of land. Earl Spencer approved the measure. Replying to questions, Lord Ashbourne said the Government proposed to limit the amount of money to be advanced to £5 000,000. The church surplus is estimated at £750,000. The bill passed its first reading.

London is the great headquarters of the pet dog trade of the world.

In this country the degrees of heat and cold are not only various in the different sea sons of the year, but often change from one extreme to the other in a few hours, and as these changes cannot fail to increase or diminish the perspiration, they must of course affect the health. Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. In such cases use Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup.

According to tradition, famines occur in Japan every forty or fifty years.

CONSUMPTION CURED

An old physician, retired from practice, hav Eghad placed in his hands by an East Indi-missionary the formula of a simple vegetable renedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. have devised an ingenious plan for making its revelations appear ridiculous and for creating a popular prejudice against it. The plan consists of pouncing upon every man seen walking with a young girl and asking him and her to explain their relationship and the reason of their being seen together. The average Briton angrily resents this interference by a hobby, and tells him to mind his own business. The officer excuses himself by saying that since the publications in the Pall Mall Gazette the orders have been very strict, and he is
