

THE BOOK ROOM

WE extend a hearty greeting to the students at the opening of another college year, and will be pleased to have one and all call and see us at the Book Room.

We have a spacious, well-equipped store, where one can be at home, looking through the large and varied stock of books, writing a letter, or meeting with friends. Careful attention to the wants of students will be our aim, in showing stock or quoting prices, which will always be as low as they can possibly be made. We draw your attention to the following items:—
