THE IRISHMAN IN CANADA. By NICHOLAS FLOOD DAVIN, author of the "Fair Grit," "The Earl of Beaconsfield," "British vs. American Civilization," etc. London: Sampson Low, Marsden & Co. Toronto: Maclear & Co.

OPINIONS—Letter from Sir John A. Macdonald to the publishers:—

"TORONTO, November 30th, 1877.

"It is a valuable addition to the scanty store of Canadian books, and does much credit to Mr. Davin's industry, impartiality and literary skill. Yours truly, JOHN A. MACDONALD."

"To give even the faintest idea of its contents would far exceed the space we can allot to the subject. . . . Mr. Davin brings to his work and labour of love unbounded enthusiasm and intense sympathy with the people whose story he relates. . . . Open where we may the greatest affluence of reference and amplitude of record are manifest."—Toronto Globe

"There never has been such a formal assertion of the greatness of the Irish race. . . . It is a great work if only the amount of labour expended on it is taken into consideration not to speak at all of the literary skill and the erudition it displays. . . . One of the largest literary undertakings conceived and carried out in Canada. We are convinced that it will have an assured place in standard historical literature."—Toronto Mail
