

- o All the A group participants were supportive of a trade agreement with Canada, the U.S.A. and Mexico. The Toronto B participants were willing but some would want to exclude the U.S.

- o The B group participants in Montreal were divided; some were skeptical and would want to see the benefits of the U.S./Canada Trade Agreement first while others saw the need to form a North American trading block to compete with Europe.