Michèle L. Ménard - JWF Acting Coordinator, Revenues and Receivables

There is no question that increased automation makes everyone's job a little more efficient, and this year, many improvements were put in place, not simply for the sake of technology but because they are (or will be) efficient, effective and cost-beneficial.