

The exemptions mentioned above shall also apply to Canadian personnel and firms with respect to purchases made for the execution of a project established under a subsidiary arrangement made pursuant to Article II of this agreement.

ARTICLE IX

The Government of URUGUAY shall exempt members of the Canadian personnel from the payment of customs duty, excise duty and sales tax in respect of one (1) motor vehicle imported into URUGUAY or one (1) motor vehicle assembled and purchased locally under diplomatic franchise, provided that:

a) the motor vehicle is imported by the member of the Canadian personnel for personal use from his/her country of origin or the country of his/her last posting. In either case (the importation of a vehicle or the purchase of a locally assembled vehicle), the privilege must be exercised within the period of six (6) months from the date of arrival of the member of the Canadian personnel in URUGUAY;

b) if that motor vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of, it shall be subject to the normal duties and other charges at the rate in effect on the date of sale applied to the CIF value of the vehicle that was established when the vehicle was brought into URUGUAY; and

c) Motor vehicles referred to under this agreement shall be insured in conformity with the administrative provisions applicable in URUGUAY.

In the event of fire, theft, damage or destruction, the exemptions under this article may be re-exercised at any time during the assignment of the Canadian personnel.

ARTICLE X

The Government of URUGUAY shall grant Canadian firms and Canadian personnel freedom from currency exchange restrictions in respect of the re-exportation of their salaries or remunerations transferred from abroad through authorized banking institutions in URUGUAY.

ARTICLE XI

Upon request, the Government of URUGUAY shall inform Canadian firms and Canadian personnel of local laws and regulations which may concern them in the performance of their duties.
