

extension of Canadian television service, development of Canadian talent, or otherwise for the benefit of Canadian broadcasting: the Commission may require as a condition for entering into any such agreement that a percentage, to be stipulated by the Commission, of the voting shares of such subsidiary be beneficially owned by Canadian citizens."

And on the motion of Mr. Friesen, seconded by Mr. Alexander,—That Bill C-58, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act, be amended in Clause 3 by striking out line 12 at page 2 and substituting the following therefor:

"of being extended or renewed; or

(c) a written agreement entered into after the coming into force of this section with a Canadian subsidiary of a foreign broadcasting undertaking if not less than seventy-five per cent of the voting shares of the said Canadian subsidiary are beneficially owned by Canadian citizens and a percentage of the gross revenues of the said Canadian subsidiary, to be agreed upon by the said Canadian subsidiary and the Canadian Radio-Television Commission, less only normal advertising agency and sales agencies commissions, is allocated directly to Canadian television program production, extension of Canadian television service, or other broadcasting objectives for the benefit of Canada: an allocation so made to be pursuant to a plan made by the Commission and approved by the Minister of the Department of National Revenue."

And on the motion of Mr. Friesen, seconded by Mr. Alexander,—That Bill C-58, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act, be amended in Clause 3 by striking out line 12 at page 2 and substituting the following therefor:

"of being extended or renewed; or

(c) a written agreement entered into after the coming into force of this section with a Canadian subsidiary of a foreign broadcasting undertaking if a sum of money in the amount of twenty-five per cent of the gross revenues of the said Canadian subsidiary less only normal advertising agency and sales agency commissions, is used for Canadian television program production, extension of Canadian television service, educational television or other broadcasting objectives for the benefit of Canada: the method of utilization of such amount to be determined by the Canadian Radio-Television Commission and approved by the Minister of the Department of National Revenue."

And on the motion of Mr. Friesen, seconded by Mr. Alexander,—That Bill C-58, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act, be amended in Clause 3 by striking out line 26 at page 2 and substituting the following therefor:

"aircraft not registered in Canada and which fails to observe guidelines for such foreign broadcasting undertaking jointly established by the Minister of the Department of National Revenue and the Canadian Radio-Television Commission."

And on the motion of Mr. Friesen for Mr. Wenman, seconded by Mr. Alexander,—That Bill C-58, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act, be amended by deleting Clause 3.

And debate continuing;

A Message was received from the Senate informing this House that the name of the Honourable Senator Riley has been substituted for that of the Honourable Senator Robichaud on the list of Senators serving on the Standing Joint Committee on Regulations and other Statutory Instruments.

Changes in Committee Membership

Notice having been filed with the Clerk of the House pursuant to Standing Order 65(4)(b), membership of Committees was amended as follows:

Mr. Balfour for Mr. Fairweather on the Standing Joint Committee on Regulations and other Statutory Instruments.

Returns and Reports Deposited with the Clerk of the House

The following papers having been deposited with the Clerk of the House were laid upon the Table pursuant to Standing Order 41(1), namely:

By Mr. Sharp, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council,—Supplementary Return to an Order of the House, dated October 29, 1975 (Question No. 2,985) showing: 1. By year since 1968, when the Prime Minister came to office, how many people have been engaged in public relations on behalf of the government for each (a) department (b) agency (c) board (d) Crown corporation and, in each case, what has been the cost?

2. For the same period, how much money has been spent on advertising on other information programmes not covered in Part 1 and what are the component parts of these costs?—Sessional Paper No. 301-2/2,985C.

By Mr. Sharp,—Supplementary Return to an Order of the House, dated October 29, 1975 (Question No. 3,092) showing: 1. For each (a) department (b) agency, what (i) statutes (ii) guidelines (iii) regulations govern the giving or withholding of information requested by private individuals or organizations?

2. In each case (a) what is the substance of the (i) statute (ii) guideline (iii) regulation (b) by whom were they prepared or issued and on what date?

3. In each case, what effect has increased computerization had upon the (a) ability to meet private requests for information (b) cost of providing such information (c) frequency with which requests are made?

4. In each case, what is the general practice with respect to the (a) maintenance (b) destruction of manual files when the essential information within them has been computerized?

5. In each case, has the experience with respect to computerization been similar to that noted in the United States by a study for the National Academy of Science which determined that strictly factual files were most likely to be the first to be computerized while those containing subjective information were likely to remain in manual files?

6. In each case, how many computers are (a) owned (b) rented by the government?

7. In each case, approximately what percentage of information stored for more than one month is (a) stored in a computer (b) stored manually (c) both?
